Will Undertake the Formation of a New British Ministry.

GOSSIP AS TO ITS PERSONNEL

SALISBURY ACCEPTS.

The Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lansdowne Sir Henry James and Messre, Balfour, Chamberlain, Goshen and Courtney Belleved to be Slated for Positions.

LONDON, June 25.—The Marquis of Salis-bury conferred yesterilay with the Right HCn. A. J. Balfour, the Conservative leader in the house of commons; the Duke of Devonshire, the Unionist leader in house of lords, and with the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, the Unionist leader in the house of commons, at his house in London, and proceeded to Windsor in reply to the summons of the queen follow-ing the resignation of the Rosebery min-istry. After a brief interview with her majesty Lord Salisbury accepted the task of forming a new ministry.

The cabinet crisis continues to absorb the attention of the clubs, etc., and the best informed speculations regarding the cabinet agree in the belief that the new ministry is to be composed of representa-tives of both sections of the Unionist party, although a dissolution of pariament cannot long be delayed. It may not be necessary to fill all the places in the ministry before taking steps for an im-mediate appeal to the country. Then, according to program, the Mar-quis of Salisbury would become premion and president of the council of ministers, and the Duke of Decombing scalible become and the Duke of Devonshire would becom ecretary of state for foreign affairs. Mr. Balfour is said to be slated for the office of first lord of the treasury, and Mr. Chamberlain will become secretary of state for war. The Right Hon. George J. Goshen, formerly chancellor of the ex-chequer, is said to be slated for the post of first lord of the admiralty. Lord Lansdowne, Sir Henry James and the Hon Leonard Courtney, Liberal Unionist, are also reported to have been selected for cabinet positions.

The principal members of the Salisbury cabinet must be re-elected immediately. and the dissolution of parliament is expected within a fortnight.

The Marquis of Londonderry, Conservative, is expected to be the next viceroy of Ireland.

There were few peers in the house of lords when the premier, Lord Rosebery, rose at 3:45 p.m. to announce the resignation of the cabinet.

The Prince of Wales, the Duke of York and the Duke of Cambridge sat on the cross benefies. The galleries were crowded with peeresses and a number of members of the house of commons were present in order to hear the statement of the premier Lord Rosebery, amid deep silence, said : "I desire to make a very brief statement, which the house has undoubtedly anticipated. After the vote in the house of commons on Friday, which was practi-cally a vote of censure on the secretary of war on a question of national defense, im-mediately after there had been laid be-Lager and fore the house a great scheme for military organization, the government felt it their duty to place their resignations in the hands of the queen. Their resignations were accepted, and the government will only hold office until their successors are appointed."

The Earl of Cranbrook, Conservative, said that the Marquis of Salisbury had destred him to say he wished the house to adjourn until today.

Lord Rosebery remarked that there was only one important bill, the seal fisheries, which would be proceeded with, and he expressed the hope that it would pass all its stages today.

The seal fisheries bill then passed its first reading.

The Daily News denies that Sir William Harcourt intends to retire from politics. At a meeting of McCarthyltes in the house of commons it was decided to appeal to the Irish people, at home and

THE KENTUCKY CONTEST It Narrows Down to a Fight Between Gold and Silver.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM A MAJORITY.

Senator Blackburn Making a Vigorous Fight Against the Adherents of Secretary Carlisle, and National Politics Enter Largely Into the Fight for Supremacy.

LOUISVILLE, June 25 - The Democratic state convention here will be among the the hottest contests in the history of the commonwealth. The polling of all the Louisvilie papers show the gold delegates to be in the majority. The silver nien dispute their estimate, and charge that the Louisville papers claim most of the uninstructed delegates when those delegates are equally divided. The lines are down on the indorsement of the administration, with Carlisle's friends leading for the administration and Blackburn's friends against its financial policy.

General Cassius M. Clay is the adminis-tration candidate for governor, and Gen-eral P. W. Hardin is the anti-administration candidate. Ex-Governor Buckner publishes a card that he would not accept the nomination for governor, and insists that the sound money Democrats must se lect some other man if they cannot nomi-nate General Clay. General Buckner says he is a candidate for senator on a sound money platform, and will have nothing

The fighting is for the temporary organization, with a view to securing the chairman, two members at large of the committee on resolutions and controling the rules and order of business so that nominations shall be made before the platform is adopted. As General Hardin claims enough votes to nominate him, the "honest money" delegates want the plat-form adopted first. There are some dele-gates instructed for Hardin who are opcosed to free coinage. General Hardin is eported to have said he would insist on a free silver platform, and when seen he de-clined to deny it. His friends claim that he could not run on a Carlisle or administrative platform, and the canvass has been made with Blackburn and others on the free coinage issue. There is a conservative element wanting the convention to reaffirm the national platform of 1862, and go no further on the financial question, but the silverites say that would imply indorsement of the administration. Senator Blackburn favors the reaffirming of the platform of 1892. with an additional affirmation that the pledges of 1892 have not been fulfilled by President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle

The conservatives argue that if [General Hardin is nominated, and so controls the convention as to prevent the reaffirming of the national declaration of 1892, that the state ticket and platform would be outside the party, and that there might be some justification in the threatened bolt of the uitra gold men. The conservatives propose to have the balance of power in the convention, but they evidently have very little influence in the fighting that is going on for the chairmanship and con-trol of the committees.

The state committee does not name the temporary chairman for this convention in advance. Chairman Carroll, of the state committee, holds the gavel till the convention selects its temporary chair-man, and the first thing in order is the election of temporary officers, on which at this time depends the fate of the sena-torial, gubernatorial and other candidates and the metallic complexion of the platform.

The "sound money" delegates an-nounced ex-Congressman W. J. Stone as their candidate for temporary chairman. They say Blackburn's man is Judge Becker, who at the Winchester conven tion last week opposed the indorsement of Cleveland and Carlisle. They will make a test case on the vote between Becker and Stone, the latter being popular with

She was in r sinking condition when she arrived, and badly battered, looking as if she might have encountered a Spanish gunboat.
