STILL IN DEADLOCK!

Efforts to Hold a Borough Council Meeting Fail.

BOLTING MEMBERS ABSENT.

A Proposition to Leave the First Ward Vacancy Rejected and the Bolters Refuse to Attend the Meeting.

Another effort was made last night by the Democratic members to have a meeting of the Borough Council, but it was as ineffectual as on last Thursday night. The Council is in a deadlock and there is no telling when it will be broken. There was no meeting last night because one of the bolting Citizens members was in Philadelphia and the other six refused to attend the meeting unless the Democratic members would pledge themselves not to try to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Malinsky.

In the early part of the evening the bolting members made this proposition to President McGuire. He left them and returned with the answer that the Democratic members would not agree to refrain from an attempt to fill the vacancy in the First ward. Messrs. McGuire, Kane, Kerns, David R. James, Dougherty, Hand and Ganigan waited in the Council Chamber until long after eight o'clock, but none of the bolting members put in an appearance. President McGuire then took his place and directed the secretary to call the roll, at the conclusion of which the presiding officer stated that in the absence of a quorum Council could not transact any business and could only adjourn to some fixed time.

Mr. D. R. James moved that an adjournment be taken until Thursday evening, 27th inst. Mr. Dougherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Kane then took the floor and said: "The business of the people of this borough is neglected by these adjournments. It does not look well. It looks like boys' play. We were here last Thursday night, and we are here again tonight. There is important business and it can't be transacted. I don't see why we can't get the members together. The dam is full of water and we ought to be doing something to have the water works tested. A stop one way or another should be put to this."

Mr. Kerns then spoke. He said: "There are from 85 to 90 families waiting anxiously for this water at Turkey Run. They have to go to Maple Hill to carry water, or pay ten cents for a wash boiler full. If some of the members absent this evening had to do the same thing they would appear here. They deserve censure."

The motion to adjourn was carried and the president directed the secretary to issue notices for a meeting of the water committee to be held tonight, and a meeting of the Borough Council to be held on Thursday evening.

One of the Citizens members of Council said today: "The proposition made by the Citizens members was submitted in good faith, and with a motive only of expediting whatever business of the borough that may require attention. We desired to take no undue advantage of the Democrats. They would have had a majority present to control whatever legislation may have been transacted, but they refused. If they are so anxious to serve their constituents why did they refuse our proposition? If there is any edict attached to the controversy it falls upon the shoulders of our Democratic friends."

FELL FROM A POLE SWING.

A High School Graduate sustains Dangerous Injuries.

Miss Agnes F. Leckie, of East Centre street, is lying in a critical condition at the house of friends at Lakeside. She is suffering from injuries sustained by a fall from a pole swing. On Monday Miss Leckie and members of her family, with several friends, went to the resort for a day of pleasure. They had a very enjoyable time until about six o'clock in the evening. Miss Leckie and her brother, James, who is a motorman in the employ of the Schuylkill Traction Company, got on the swing and were full of mirth and having a very enjoyable time when the young lady lost her hold and fell face forward to the ground. She was picked up unconscious and has remained in that condition since. Her family and a physician are in constant attendance. The exact nature of the injuries are not known. They are supposed to be of an internal nature. The young lady's head struck the ground with great force and there is an ugly mark above the left eye, but there is no fracture of the skull there, although it is possible that there is a fracture at the base of the skull. Last night Miss Leckie's condition was such that there were no hopes of recovery. Her condition was not improved today. James Leckie, the brother, is overcome by the accident to his sister and it was necessary to procure medical attendance for him last night.

Miss Leckie is about seventeen years of age. She was a member of the High school class of '95 and took part in the commencement exercises at Ferguson's theatre last Friday night, reading an essay entitled, "The Distance Lends Enchantment." She is a young lady of amiable disposition and always bright and cheerful. In the class she was a favorite and several of her classmates are now at her bedside. Those who cannot find it convenient to be there make frequent calls at the family residence to glean tidings of their unfortunate colleague's condition.

The Big Day.

The glorious Fourth of July, Independence Day, will soon be here. There isn't much time left in which to prepare to properly celebrate the day. But patriotic hearts and willing hands will furnish the spirit and find the means and adopt the methods to that end. We feel assured that Shenandoah will not be behind hand in celebrating the great national holiday in a properly patriotic and becoming manner. The Columbia H. & S. F. E. Co. will hold a grand picnic on the Fourth and Fifth and have a gorgeous fantastic parade on the latter day.

AFTER CIRCUS MEN!

Constables Chased Away at Muzzles of Carbines.

MORE WARRANTS ISSUED!

Constable Boland Goes to Mt. Carmel With Re-enforcements to Make Prisoners of the Circus Men.

A number of legal complications have grown out of the visit of the circus to this town last Monday, as stated in yesterday's HERALD. Constable Phillips attempted to make service of summons and attachments on the management in suits to recover wages by canvassmen, but failed. Yesterday the papers were given to Constables Boland and Dando and they followed the circus to Ashland, where they attempted to make service, but were driven off the circus grounds at muzzles of carbines.

The officers returned here last night and swore out warrants for the arrest of Manager McMahon and Ticket Seller Beaulleigh, charging them with attempting to bribe an officer, interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty, assault and battery with intent to kill, and preventing an officer from making service of attachments. Boland says one of the men offered him $10 to go away and drop all proceedings.

This morning Constable Boland, re-enforced by Policemen Tush and Lee and Special Officer Martin Mullaley, started for Mt. Carmel with the determination of taking the two circus men prisoners, or making things lively for somebody.

McMahon, the manager, claims to be the champion scrapper of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Policeman Lee has had some experience with him. Last Monday Lee made repeated efforts to arrest McMahon on a charge of assault and battery preferred by a canvassman, but could not find him. At midnight he found McMahon superintending the removal of the circus. The latter had eight ugly looking men at his back and matters assumed a very disagreeable shape. Lee said he didn't care what McMahon was champion of, but wanted the circus man to go with him. Some men of town with whom McMahon had associated interfered and the case was settled before Justice Lawlor by payment of the costs.

THE UNKNOWN DEAD.

Inquest Held on the Body of the Unidentified Suicide.

Deputy Coroner Manley and a jury composed of Messrs. P. J. Cleary, F. J. Brennan, M. J. Scanlan, P. J. Flaherty, M. J. Sullivan and P. J. Stanton last night held an inquest on the body that was found at the foot of the pine tree on Locust Mountain last Sunday and the following verdict was rendered: "That the deceased came to his death by committing suicide."

All efforts to establish the identity of the deceased have failed and the remains have been interred in a pauper's grave at Schuylkill Haven almshouse, with the many "Unknown" that have been given rest in the place.

There were but two witnesses at the inquest. One, David Herring, told of the discovery of the body. He also related the circumstances of his return to the place with Thomas Kinney, John Eisenhower, Amos Yarnell and William Delowery. The latter searched the clothing on the body to find something that would lead to an identification, but found nothing. The clothing contained no money. A revolver rested under the left hand and the hat was beside the body.

The other witness was Dr. F. F. Burke. He testified that there were two bullet holes in the head, two on the right side and one on the left. One of the bullets had passed through the head. There were several holes in the neck, but it was impossible to determine whether they were made by bullets or insects. The body was very badly decomposed and had been on the mountain probably 2 or 2½ months. From the clothing the body appeared to be that of a Pole or Lithuanian. Only cigarette papers were found in the clothing. The man was about 33 years of age. The revolver found was of 32 calibre and two of the chambers were empty.
