A FIGHT OVER THE CREDENTIALS.

It Delays the Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Results in a Victory in Committee for Hardin, the Candidate of the Silverites.

LOUISVILLE, June 26 .- The administration and Secretary Carlisle were certainly favorites in the Democratic state conven-tion here yesterday. The silverites went into the district meetings in the morning and into the convention at noon with confidence. In the district meetings they were beaten two to one. They claimed four out of the eleven district members of the committee on resolutions, but the administration men claim that the committoe stood eight to three originally against free silver, and, as completed, nine to

The complexion of this committee could The complexion of this committee could not have been changed by the appointment of both members at large from the silverites. But when Judge William Beckner, as temperary chairman, divided the members at large, giving one of the two to each side, the silver men felt that they had been outclassed, although they would not confess to being outnumbered. They claimed a victory in the election of Beckner over Stone, but after the former divided the appointments equally on all the committees, and announced his conservative views, no claims were made on him Stone would have appointed only "sound money" men on the committees. Judge Beckner is a "sound money" man, but favored General Hardin for governor. Although General Hardin favors free coinage, he has been supported throughout by many who insist on a "sound many" platform for him.

The feature of the day was the defeat in his home district of Senator J. S. Blackburn for member of the committee on resolutions by Professor Arthur Yeager, a man of pronounced gold standard views, but who has devoted his time to college work, and not to politics. Senator Blackburn aspired to the chairmanship of this committee, and expected to have a major ity of its members with him for free coin age and against Cleveland and Carlisle.

When Blackburn was defeated in the Seventh district it was ascertained that the Hardin men did not want to be embarrassed by his appointment as one of the members at large, and then Mr. W. T. Ellis, of the Second district, offered Senator Blackburn his proxy. Objections were raised in the convention on the announce-ment of Blackburn's name for the committee from the Second district, and no further effort in that direction were made.

Aside from the temporary organization and the appointment of committees no work was accomplished at yesterday's sessions. Numerous dilatory motions were indulged in, the Clay men wanting an adjournment till today. This fillibustering was kept up for over two hours, with much disturbance. The committee on resolutions was ready to report at 9 p. m., but delayed its report, awaiting the outcome of the credentials committee, which was fighting over contests among the delegates from Louisville and Newport.

Senator Lindsay prepared the majority report on resolutions, which embraced a strong honest money plank and indorsed Cleveland and Carlisle by name for their financial policy and administrations. It was signed by nine of the thirteen members of the committee. There were two minority reports, one for the free colnage of silver at 16 to 1, and the other simply reaffirming the platform of 1893.

There was intense feeling because the fight between the Hardin and Clay men on stealing delegates in the committee on redentials delayed the resolutions and the proceedings of the convention, but nothing could be done toward facilitating business. Secoral hundred motions to adjourn were roted down and the convention remained siting, although the committee on cre dentials at 11 p. m. announced that it could not report until after midnight. Senator Lindsay and Chairman Berry refused to report the resolutions or do any

> Convention of Free Silver Democrats. MEMPHIS, June 26.—Immediately after the adjournment of the silver convention recently in this city a meeting of a num ber of prominent Democrats who attended that gathering was held and plans outlined for an organization of free silver men within the Democratic party for the purpose of carrying on the silver campaign within party lines. As a result of this meeting an address has been sent to Democratic leaders throughout the country, inviting them to meet at Washington on Aug. 14 next to perfect an organization. SALISBURY'S MINISTRY.

The Principal Advisers of the New British Premier.

VETERANS IN PUBLIC SERVICE.

They Are the Duke of Devenshire, A. J. Baifour, Joseph Chamberlain, Michael Hicks-Beach and George J. Goschen. Brief Sketches of the New Minister,

LONDON, June 28 .- Great Britain's new premier has partially completed the new ministry, and announces the appointment of the following: Premier and secretary of state for foreign affairs, Marquis of Salisbury; president of the council, Duke of Devonshire; first lord of the treasury, Mr. A. J. Balfour; secretary of state for the colonies, Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain; chancellor of the exchequer. Si-Michael Hicks-Beach; first lord of the admiralty, Right Hon. George J. Goschen. The other members of the government have not yet been fixed upon.

The new premier, Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoigne-Cecil, third Marquis of Salisbury, was born in 1830, and married the daughter of the late Baron Alderson. was educated at Oxford, and is chancellor of that university. He has been twice secretary of state for India and twice sec-retary of state for foreign affairs. He was premier in 1885, and formed his second ministry in 1896. He resigned in 1802. He proceeded to Constantinople as a special ambassador at the conference there in November, 1876, and he and Lord Bea consileld, in 1878, were the representatives of Great Britain at the congress of Berlin.

Spencer Compton Cavendish, K. J., P. C., eighth Duke of Devonshire, is the leader of the Liberal-Unionists in the house of lords. He was born in 1888, and was educated at Trinity college, Cambridge, which conferred upon him the degree of M. A. in 1852 and LL. D. in 1852. His second title is that of Marquis of Hartington. He was attached to Earl Granville's special mission to Russia in 1856. He has been a lord of the admiralty, under secretary for war, secretary for war twice, postmaster gen eral, chief secretary for Ireland from 1871 ts 1874, and secretary for India in former Liberal governments. He sat as a member of parliament for different districts from 1857 to 1894. He is a chancellor of the University of Cambridge, and an alder-man of the Middlesex county council. Hon. A. J. Balfour, the new first lord

Hon. Joseph Chamberiain, the Unionist leader in the house of commons, and the newly appointed secretary of state for the colonies, is one of the foremost and most daring men in British politics at the present time. He is credited with having engineered the downfall of the Rosebery government, and is undoubtedly a man of great personal ability. He was born in London in 1836, and has been married three times, his present wife being a daughter of W. C. Endicott, formerly sec-retary of war of the United States. He was educated at the University college school, London, was formerly a manufac turer in Birmingham, and retired from business in 1874. Mr. Chamberlain has been three times successively elected mayor of Birmingham, and was president of the local government board in 1886. In August, 1887, he was appointed one of the commissioners to settle the fisheries dispute with the United States. He has sat for Birmingham in the house of commons since 1876.

Sir Michael Edward Hicks-Beach, ninth baronet, was born in 1837,in London. He was educated at Eton and at Christ church, Oxford, where he graduated B. A. in 1858, and M. A. in 1861. He was par liamentary secretary to the poor law board from February till December, 1868, with the exception of a few weeks, during which he was under secretary for the home department. He was chief secretary for Ireland in 1974-78, and secretary of state for the colonies from 1878 to 1880. He was appointed chancellor of the exchequer in 1885, and again secretary for Ireland in 1886. He resigned the latter office in March, 1887, but remained a member of the cabinet without office till January, 1838. He re-entered the cabinet in February, 1888, as president of the board of trade. He has been a member of parliament since 1834.

Right Hon. George Joachim Goschen calls himself a Liberal-Unionist, though he held office in Lord Salisbury's former Conservative ministry. He was born in 1891, and was educated at Rugby and at Oriel college, Oxford. He was appointed an ecclesiastical commissioner in October. 1889, lord rector of Aberdeen university in 1887, and lord rector of Edinburgh university in 1890. He was vice president of the board of trade and paymaster genera in 1865-66, and subsequently chanceller of the Duchy of Lancaster, president of the poor law board, and first lord of the admiralty. He was engaged on a special mission to Constantinople in 1880-81. was chancellor of the exchequer in Lord Salisbury's second administration in 1887-

92. He has set in parliament for different districts since May, 1808. It is believed that the Marquis of Salisbury, before deciding to form a new ministry, received assurances that the outgoing ministry would assist the new government in passing the estimates in time to enable parliament to dissolve by July 10. The Tories are reluctant.

Both parties profess to be ready for a general election in July, but the outgoing ministers do not appear greatly disheart-ened. Lord Rosebery and Sir William Harcourt are particularly jaunty and jo-vial, and make it plain that their release from office at this time was the thing most to be desired.

The Irish people are taking a great interest in the present situation. Justin McCarthy has issued a manifesto to the people of Ireland, stating that the defeat of the government has placed treland's bitterest enemies in office. "For a brief space before the election," the manifesto says, "Downing street and Dublin castle will be occupied by men pledged to the policy of opercion in Ireland. This defeat was compassed by the factionists who still divide Ireland."
