And the sweet girlsgraduating— These are signs that I am relating Of sunny rose-bell wedding month of June.

The School Board of West Chester has been induced to take a step, doubtless as the result of annoying experience, which will not find much favor with the female school teachers of that borough. It has re-adopted a resolution requiring these teachers to sign an agreement not to get married during the year which their anpointment covers. The board does not desire to go on record as believing matrimony to be a bad thing for the average school marm any more than for any other class of women, but they contend that such a rule has been found absolutely necessary to avert undesirable breaks in the teaching force. The board of directors is considerate enough, however, to permit Higgins and John Martin, Phoenix: William J. Evans, Harry Jenkins and Liees them to court, if that pleasant pastime is not indulged in during school hours. The James S.
