WILL the Borough Council deadlock be broken tonight, or will the people and the water works have to wait another two weeks, or longer, until the Councilmen get ready to transact business ?

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Asserman, Chicago says. "I regard for King's New Dis-desery as an ideal palacear for coughs colds and ling complaints, baving costs I in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians, prescriptions or other preparations. Rev. John Burgus, Recicule, Jowa, writes of Investoes a minister of the Methodist Episcopal a minister of the Methodist Episcopai church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." "But evil is wronght by want of thought, As well as want of heart."

By want of thought mothers allow daughters to become frail and puny. Overstudy in girls induces uterine disorders and weaknesses, and bights their future happiness as wives and nothers. Joined to proper hygienic care, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless remedy in such allments, its value becoming even more apparent every year. Using it, the wan, debilitated school girl gains color, flesh and spirits, tosing those deathly headaches, tormenting backaches, languer, dejection, and other symptoms of functional irregularities, and nervous debility. It never harms the most delicate girl.

On Trial for Emily Hall's Murder,

DETROIT, June 27 .- Herman B. Lane continued his testimony in the trial of Dr. Seaman, who is charged with Emily Hall's death. Lane told a straight story about Miss Hall's death and burial. He said the doctor gave the corpse the name of Myrtle Cook, and her address as Piquette avenue, which he remarked would do as well as any other. Dr. Scaman afterwards signed Emily Hall's name to a money order addressed to her, and witness himself got it dressed to her, and witness himself got it cashed. Rev. William Pease, of St. Chair, identified letters sent from England to Mrs. Lane regarding the cure of Emily Hall as being in the handwriting of the Rev. Jonathan Bell, who is a brother-tinlaw of Pease.
