FOUND BOUND AND GAGGED.
Narrow Escape from Starvation of a Wealthy Buffalo Man.
BUFFALO, June 27.—Oswald O. Cottle, a prominent Buffalo lawyer, was found bound and gagged in the cellar of a vacant house at Black Rock yesterday. He had been there since Monday.
Mr. Cottle's story is as follows: On Monday morning an unknown man drove to his house and told him a man on Chicago street desired to make a real estate deal with him. Mr. Cottle was driven to an unoccupied cottage in Baynes street, where on entering he was seized by his guide and another man and gagged and bound. Money was demanded, and under threats he was compelled to write a note to his wife saying that he was under arrest in Erie and asking for $4,500.
The man with the buggy drove back to Mr. Cottle's house with the note and delivered it to Mrs. Cottle, who called upon her son for advice. The latter went out to confer with the man, who rode away. Mr. Cottle was kept in bondage for two days. He was handcuffed and gagged and a dog collar put about his neck, and then he was chained to a post. He was discovered by accident and was nearly exhausted.

It's Water-proof.
Interlined "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs turn water like a duck's back and show neither spot nor soil. They are not effected by perspiration, and always look as if right out of the box. When they get soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth. These are but a few of the advantages of wearing the "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs. There are many others that you will readily discover the first time you wear one.
They are the only water-proof interlined collars and cuffs made. Be sure to get the genuine with this trade mark.

DEADLY DUEL IN OKLAHOMA.
It Arose Over a Published Article in a Daily Newspaper.
SOUTH END, O. T., June 27.—R. W. Patterson, register of the United States land office at this place, and City Marshal Williams, who died at the city morgue, while K. L. Isenberg, editor of the Daily Wave, is badly wounded, the result of a sensational street fight that occurred here last evening. Isenberg will recover. The cause of the tragedy was a criticism of Patterson written by Isenberg in his paper.
The objectionable article appeared in yesterday afternoon's paper, and no sooner had Patterson read it than he started on a search for the editor. The men met on the main street at 7 o'clock in the evening, and a prelude of angry words was almost immediately followed by blows. Several passes were made when Patterson flashed a revolver and began shooting at his alleged slanderer. Several shots were fired before Isenberg could seek cover, one ball taking effect at the outer edge of the left eye and producing a painful wound.

In the midst of the fracas Marshal Williams appeared upon the scene, and Patterson turned his gun upon him. Before Williams dropped he was able to draw his revolver and managed to fire at the murderer, the bullet hitting Patterson in the forehead and killing him instantly. Williams died within an hour.
Patterson's body was removed to the morgue, where it rests near that of Williams. Patterson leaves a widow and three little girls. Williams leaves a widow and one child. All concerned are prominent, and hitherto had borne good characters. The city is in a state of intense excitement over the tragedy.

Important Railroad Decision.
CARLEISLE, Pa., June 27.—Judge Biddle rendered an important decision in the suit brought by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, against the Philadelphia and Reading Railway company, to enforce a traffic agreement between the Gettysburg and Harrisburg railway, which is controlled by the Reading, and the Cumberland Valley railway, which is controlled by the Pennsylvania. Judge Biddle's order requires the Gettysburg road to issue common tickets, enabling passengers over its lines to travel on the Pennsylvania, and directs that it ship all freight under its control over the Pennsylvania lines, when its destination is reasonably accessible by that road. The court, however, refused to order the Gettysburg road to arrange its schedule of trains so as to connect with the Pennsylvania.

A San Francisco Sensation.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Two sensational cases which have never had publicity, although they have been in the United States circuit court for three years, were brought to light yesterday. The suits contain allegations of embezzlement against two of the most prominent residents of this city. These alleged defaulters are William J. Bryan, ex-postmaster of San Francisco during President Cleveland's first term, and John Quinn, who was revenue collector under President Harrison. The charge made by the government against Bryan is that he received $250,000 which he neglected to turn into the United States treasury. Quinn's alleged misappropriations amount to $2,981,32. The defense of Bryan and Quinn is stated, is that the shortages were caused by the defaulters of subordinates.

Mrs. Barnes is under arrest, awaiting the investigation of the coroner's jury.

SENATOR QUAY'S CAMPAIGN.

He Will Open Headquarters in Philadelphia Next Week.
PHILADELPHIA, June 27.—Senator Quay will come to this city next Monday and establish headquarters at the Hotel Metropolitan. His purpose is said to be to consult the lieutenants of the Quay faction of the Republican party concerning plans for the campaign against the Hastings-Magee-Martin-Porter element. He will probably maintain these headquarters until the convention on Aug. 28, but until that time, it is stated, he will make periodical trips throughout the state, touching every county.
Senator Quay left Harrisburg last night for his home in Beaver. He was accompanied by Sergeant-at-Arms Harrah, of the state senate. The senator's foot is still swollen, and gives him much pain. He is confident of his election as chairman of the state committee, and regrets that his foot compels him to remain at home instead of making a personal tour of the state in his behalf. Mr. Harrah will look after the details of Senator Quay's campaign.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 27.—Colonel John J. Dargan, a Populist editor of Sumter, S. C., who preaches negro equality and who is said to be attempting to stir the negroes up to making an effort to control the constitutional convention, was in Edgefield, S. C., for the purpose of making a speech along that line. A committee of the state committee "requested" him not to carry out his intention. He replied that he would speak. They notified him that if he did he would be rode out of town on a fence rail, and he decided it would be pleasanter to depart on a train, and did so as quickly as he could.

Five Deaths from Lightning.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 27.—Five persons were killed by lightning during the thunder storms throughout the state yesterday. William Methvine and his wife were driving near Smith's Mills, when their buggy was crushed by a tree that had been struck by lightning. Methvine was killed and his wife received injuries from which she died soon after.

Mrs. Wilver finally reached a revolver and opened fire. Mrs. Hanson was killed. The trouble grew out of the idea held by Mrs. Hanson that the widow was trying to alienate the affections of her husband. Mrs. Wilver was placed under arrest.
