THE BOARD OF HEALTH

Interesting Proceedings at the Meeting Last Night.

DISCUSSIONS OF NUISANCES.

Health Officer Miles Settled Over the Indifference With Which He Alleges He is Treated—The "Falls of Filth."

The Board of Health held a regular meeting in the Council chamber last night and was attended by President Spalding, Secretary Scanlan, Health Officer Miles and Messrs. McHale, Miles and Bronghall. The epidemic committee reported that during the two weeks preceding the meeting nine deaths and one case of diphtheria were reported.

M. M. Burke, Esq., appeared before the Board and asked that the application of a Hazleton man for a permit to establish a sausage factory on West Centre street be reconsidered. The Board had denied the application, deciding such establishments could only be located on the outskirts of the town. Mr. Burke stated that the applicant was willing to take a license on the condition that if the factory became a nuisance in any way operations would be suspended at once. He gave assurances that there would be no noise from machinery, or stench, smoke or other nuisance, and that amplexverage would be provided for all offal.

The Board declined to reopen the case in view of past experience of the people with such establishments, especially the Lessig case.

A letter from J. J. Franey was read. It called attention to a nuisance at the corner of Pear alley and Oak street and the writer gave notice that if the Board would not take immediate action the matter would be brought to the attention of the State Board of Health. He also called attention to the drainage of water past his residence, cor of Coal and Jardin streets.

The communication was referred to the street committee of the Borough Council. President Spalding said he observed that Council had taken no steps to enforce the ordinances relating to the restriction of roaming dogs, or the muzzling of the canines. Under these circumstances, he said, the people could only hold the Council responsible should hydrophobia become prevalent, as the Board of Health had done all in its power in the matter. Hydrophobia, he said, was caused by the dogs not having a sufficient supply of water and food, and there is little doubt that room for this cause is plentiful in the town during summer months.

Health Officer Miles made an emphasized address on the indifference shown by some people to nuisances on their premises and laid stress upon the indifference of Mr. Michael Malone, a member of the Board of Health. Mr. Miles said that this gentleman's properties at the corner of Oak street and Pear alley, in the Fourth ward, and on "the rocks," where the refuse flows down to the Lehigh Valley railroad to such an extent that the place has been christened "the falls of filth," should be attended to at once. Mr. Miles said that Mr. Malone's properties were not the only sources of trouble on "the rocks," but Mr. Malone was the only owner who refused to give any satisfaction. One of the responsible parties has commenced to put in sewerage and another has promised to begin work next week, but Mr. Malone met the complaint with the remark that the people could turn their faces towards Turkey Run and that they have no business on the railroad tracks. Mr. Miles said the newspapers had been pounding him on account of the filthy state of "the rocks," and he did not blame them for complaining, but he thought it about time that the real parties to blame in the matter should receive some pounding. If Mr. Malone is not maintaining nuisances, he should attend the meetings of the Board and defend himself.

It was the sentiment of the Board that the Health Officer should proceed against everybody maintaining a nuisance, whether it be a member of the Board or anybody else.

The Health Officer also stated that his attention was called to the case of Daniel Maceky, residing at the corner of Cherry street and Pear alley, who is suffering from typhoid-pneumonia, with a possibility of typhoid fever developing. The sewerage of the house was in bad condition, and Mr. Miles ordered the owner of the premises to put it in repair. The owner said he would do so in a few days, when the new water works would be put in operations, but Mr. Miles gave him two hours in which to do the work, with a notice that if it was not done the officer would put men on the job and charge the expense against the property. The owner complied with the notice. The Board sanctioned the officer's action in the matter.

Some of the members made reference to the fact that the Board was evidently not considered a part of the local government, as it had not been invited to participate in the Fourth of July demonstration.

FELL INTO A LIME BOX.

Racy Incident With Many Interesting Side Issues.

Last night Chief of Police Tosh was stopped by Mrs. William Reed, who resides at the corner of Cherry and Jardin streets, and asked to accompany her to a house at the rear of the O'Hara stables, located on North White street, where her husband was with a girl named Mary Walker. Just as the officer and Mrs. Reed got to the place Reed and the girl came out. Mrs. Reed knocked the girl down and pounded her with a club before the officer could interfere. The husband was held and turned over to Policeman Hand, who started for the lockup with his prisoner. At Market alley Reed dashed away from the officer. In his flight in the darkness he failed to observe a lime box in front of the building being erected by Thomas Bellis and tumbled into it. When Officer Hand fished him out he looked like a plaster of Paris figure. He was taken to the lockup. Reed threatened to cut his throat and his wife told him to do so, but he changed his mind and appeared hale and hearty before Chief Burgess Burns this morning. He is now spending 48 hours in the lockup. He also paid fine and costs.

NAVITSKIE'S FAILURE!

It Causes a Sensation Among Shoe Dealers.

SUSPICIOUS DEVELOPMENTS.

Host of Creditors Come to the Front and Charge Wholesale Fraud. One of Them Makes a Find.

The failure of William Navitskie, the East Centre street shoe merchant, is the one absorbing topic just now among the shoe dealers of the town and shoe firms who make sales in the town.

Navitskie was looked upon as a careful business man and was supposed not to be encumbered. Indeed, his stock was looked upon as the largest in the town. Some fixed it at from $8,000 to $10,000.

Last Tuesday Deputy Sheriff Roberts closed the store on an execution issued by Navitskie's brother on a judgment for $1,838. This caused no little surprise and it is now alleged that this judgment was fraudulent, and it is also contended by the creditors of Navitskie that he has been disposing of his stock in a very suspicious manner.

On Wednesday the representatives of several large shoe firms came into town and took steps to contest the Navitskie judgment and protect their claims. J. C. Farrell, a Wilkesbarre shoe man, was the first to take determined action. His claim is in the neighborhood of $700. Early Thursday morning he and his counsel, M. M. Burke, Esq., appeared at the Pottsville court and commenced attachment proceedings under the Act of 1869. The papers filed allege that the debt was contracted fraudulently and that the defendant has been fraudulently secreting and disposing of his goods, and that the judgment of Navitskie's brother is not due and owing, but simply given for the purpose of defrauding creditors.

Thursday night Mr. Farrell, in company with Constable Boland, went to Mahanoy City and there found in the possession of one Frank Bucolo, a former shoe dealer of that place, eleven cases of miners' boots which had been shipped by Farrell to Navitskie. The statements made by Bucolo and Navitskie as to how these goods got from Shenandoah to Mahanoy City do not agree, and there is every reason to believe that Farrell has tapped one of the most glaring frauds ever perpetrated in this section for some time.

Bucolo was arrested on oath of Farrell, charging larceny of the cases of shoes found at his place and was put under $400 bail by Justice Lawlor for trial at court.

This morning Eisenhuth & Miller, shoe dealers of Orwigsburg, through their counsel, M. M. Burke and Charles E. Breckons, Esqs., commenced attachment proceedings against Navitskie to recover a claim of $500. Similar proceedings have also been commenced by the Lebanon Shoe Company for $250 and John Northrop, of Vineland, N. J., for $423. Several New England firms are in for large amounts. Sage & Co., of Boston, having been caught for something like $700 and another Boston firm for $132.

Navitskie's liabilities are said to aggregate between $6,000 and $8,000. George J. Wadlinger, Esq., of Pottsville, is his counsel.

J. H. Pomeroy, Esq., represents Elliott & Sons, who have claims amounting to several hundred dollars against Navitskie. Mr. Pomeroy made an effort to find the goods of this firm in Navitskie's store, but failed. As the goods were but recently sold to Navitskie it is a mystery how they could have disappeared so suddenly.

A Teacher Retires.

John B. Scheuing has retired from the local corps of public school teachers, and yesterday left for Philadelphia to take a position in a pharmacy and intends to become a student in the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. We wish him success in his new undertaking and studies and trust that it will not be long before he will graduate with high honors. Mr. Scheuing has taught in the public schools of this borough for the past six years. He has had charge of first, second, third and fourth grade primary schools and during the term recently closed he taught a first grade grammar school. He graduated from the local high school in 1888 and from the Bloomsburg State Normal school in 1889. As a teacher he has been very successful, but expects to better himself by entering upon the field his new studies will open for him.
