PATHETIC APPEAL FOR CLEMENCY.

Mrs. Buchanan Falls on Her Knees at Governor Morton's Feet and Prays for Her Husband's Life - The Governor Deeply Affected,

Sixa Sixa, July 2 .- With two electric contacts, consuming not over a minute, Dr. Buchanan was put to death in Sing Sing prison yesterday. Like all others who have preceded him, he went to death calmly, and did not say a word in the death chamber. The only appearance of fright or weakness was the fact that he closed his eyes when he entered, and did not open them again. Two contacts were made, but all the physicians and electric-ians claim that the second contact was merely precautionary and that the victim died instantly. There were no burns and no unpleasant features, and every physician present declared the execution a success. The body has been claimed by friends, and the case will go down into history as a cause celebre.

Warden Sage's action in proceeding with the electrocution was the result of a telegram from the attorney general to the effect that the warden would not be in the wrong if he carried out the sentence in the case of Dr. Buchanan. The indefinite language in which the opinion was couched and the refusal of the attorney general to advise the execution, but only to say that he would not advise its delay, did not ex-actly please the warden, who had expected that when he acted it would be under the advice of the state's legal adviser. But after consideration and consultation an order was issued to proceed with the execution.

Warden Sage said: "I am not pleased with the opinion of the attorney general, because it is not made final instruction for me to proceed; but, as it says that I am not justified in delaying the execution. I shall go on with the affair." The most pathetic feature of the execution was the vain appeal of the condemned man's wife for executive elemency. She went to Rhinecliff Sunday night, and stopped at the village hotel. Arising shortly after 5 o'clock she was driven to Ellerslie, where she was admitted to the governor's mansion. Mr. Morton was in bed, but on being informed of Mrs. Buch-anan's presence in the house he arose, and before 6 o'clock met her in his library. The woman sank on her knees before the governor and pleaded for her husband's life, though her grief almost prevented her from speaking. Governor Morton was plainly overcome by the woman's plead-ing, and tears stood in his eyes as he lifted her to her feet and told her that he could not grant her request.

"The highest courts have confirmed your husband's conviction, and I have no right to interfere. It was my sympathy for you that led me to give him a reprieve," said the governor. Then the governor asked Mrs. Bu-chanan many questions about herself, expressed sympathy for her and told her that if she ever needed assistance to call upon Chris. Schmidt, Agent him and he would gladly help her. After drinking a cup of coffee which the governor handed her, Mrs. Buchanan left Ellerslie and took the 8 o'clock train for Sing Sing. During the execution Mrs. Buchanan was in the warden's house, hav-ing come there after the witnesses were summoned to the death chamber. She was extremely nervous,"and when told of the death of her husband broke down and wept freely. She was taken care of by Mrs. Sage

Mrs. Buchanan is in destitute circum-stances, her expenses to Rhinechiff having been defrayed by Warden Sage. The persistency with which Buchanan clung to life marked his case to the end. Since the death of the wife whom he murlered on April 28, 1894, in PARIS, July 2 .- One of the most disastrous fires in years occurred in Godillot's military outfitting establishment yester-day. The water failed, and it was only possible, to some extent, to prevent the fire spreading, but fourteen houses in the vicinity were also burned. One fireman was killed and fifteen injured. Two thousand people are thrown out of employment and 275 people are left homeless. The property loss is 2,000,000 francs. A repulsive aspect of the terrible event was the presence of a crowd of thieves, who ran-sacked the neighboring houses, frightening the inmates and seizing everything portable.

Fraternal Insurance Order Bankrupt. CLEVELAND, July 2. - Grand Ranger William Oelstrom, of the Ohio division, Independent Foresters, announces that the order in this state will probably pass out of existence within two or three days. A lack of young blood is given as the cause of the order's failure, and it is estimated that the members will lose in the in the neighborhood of $70,000. The poli-cies outstanding aggregate $700,000. The order was organized principally for the insurance of members on the assessment plan.

Over 2,000 people were present during the evening.

Ky., July 2.—In Carter county there is intense excitement because of the appearance of strangers who acknowledge their mission to be to collect the famous railroad tax that has been in dispute for forty years. This tax grows out of the bond issue of $75,000 to the Elizabethtown and Lexington and Big Sandy railroad from Lexington to Cattlettaburg. The company after securing the bonds, about doned the project, selling the bonds at s liberal discount to David Stanton, a mill ionaire at Cincinnati, Through a mis take of the county attorney in drawing up the contract the road and the people of caped the liability for construction, and their refusal to meet their agreement gave rife to the contest that has ever since been successfully maintained. All who voted the bonds, save a single resident of Carter county, are dead, and 2.500 of the new gen-eration have organized to resist the colles

Numerous attempts have failed, and it is now regarded as worth your life to at-tempt the collections. Two months ago a deputy collector, after making a levy upon the farmers' property, escaped being lynched by 500 people by slipping off in the night. The men are determined that no collection shall be made, and openly announce it. If Peck and his deputies re sort to imperative measures there may be bloody scenes. All that holds the matter from a crisis now is a doubt of the sincer-ity of the collector and his allies.

Shinburn Wanted East and West.

CONCORD, N. H., July 2.-The question whether or not Max Shinburn, the "king of bank robbers," under arrest at New York, will be returned to the New Hampshire state prison, is of much interest here. When he escaped from Concord he had served only nine months out of a sertence of ten years for participation in the robbery of the bank at Walpole on April 2, 1865. The first night after his convic-tion at Keene he gave the officers the slip. He is also wanted by the Illinois authorities. His total stealings are said to ag gregate a million dollars.
