A GLORIOUS FOURTH!

An Appropriate Local Observance of the Day.

CANNONS ROARED FOR HOURS

Hundreds of People Witnessed the Parade in the Morning and Attended the Columbia Picnic and Wild West Show.

Our forefathers of three generations ago had a much more pleasant method of celebrating the glorious Fourth than the advanced and cultured urchin of today employs in paying tribute to his dear old Uncle Samuel. Yesterday the nation was plunged in a historical vortex of booming, snapping, thundering, cracking and crashing sound. Perhaps if the bold signers of the Declaration of Independence could have known what they were inflicting upon posterity they might have paused before affixing their signatures to that noble document.

Contrasted with the violent celebration of this up-to-date age, the Fourth of July of sixty, seventy or 100 years ago presents a peaceful picture of hearty patriotism more in keeping with the real sentiment of the event than the present blustering fashion. But in this age a Fourth of July without the booming of cannons and the smoke and glare of fireworks would be like a Christmas Day without Santa Claus.

Shenandoah did not celebrate the Fourth in colonial style yesterday, but with all the noise and bluster that the ingenuity of the fireworks manufacturers could promote. The celebration started Wednesday night and was kept up until the early morning hours, when there was a cessation of the boom and roar of cannon and dynamite crackers. Then those who had retired early the night before arose to continue the racket the sleeping ones had started. A strange and pretty sight was presented during Wednesday night by bonfires blazing at the hilltops north and south of the town.

Visitors arrived in town early yesterday morning and by nine o'clock, the time announced for the parade to start, the pavements were thronged with people, but the effort to have the parade done with early in the morning failed and the spectators had an anxious wait of nearly two hours. The parade was a very creditable one, although not a representative one of the town. Many societies were not in line. Still the line was quite lengthy and was very pretty. It moved as follows:

Pawnee Bill's Company.

The Columbia Hose Company had its apparatus in line and the steamer "Columbia" was drawn by four horses. Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show made an excellent climax to the display. The large bands of genuine Indians, Mexicans and Cowboys, the buffaloes and steers, and the prairie schooner bearing the Australian boomerang throwers excited considerable interest. After the parade was over the people dispersed and so many sought their homes that for an hour or two the streets were quite clear of crowds, but with the opening of the afternoon the pavements were again crowded.

The discharge of fireworks continued all day and evening, and in some places it appeared to be without cessation. Fortunately no serious accidents occurred. At noon the canvass awning in front of Tax Collector Scoulan's store caught fire, but the flames were quickly extinguished. About half the awning was burned.

The town presented a very lively appearance during the afternoon, although the attractions at the Columbia and Trotting parks drew great numbers. Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show was patronized immensely. It is estimated that from 2,000 to 2,500 people witnessed the performance. Every seat in the semi-circle was occupied and hundreds of people were obliged to stand. Many sought standing room on the border of the field opposite the side set apart for spectators. The exhibitions of expert rifle shooting by Major Gordon W. Lillie (Pawnee Bill) and May Lillie, the daring and skillful riding by the Indians and Cowboys, the expert lassoing by the Mexicans, the horse stealing act and mock lynching, the Indian attacks on the Deadwood coach and the trapper's cabin and subsequent rallies by the Cowboys afford an entertainment that is both interesting and thrilling. There are many other features in the show and the whole made one of the best exhibitions within canvass ever given here. The boomerang throwing by the Australian bushmen is very interesting.

The Columbia Hose Company held a picnic at Columbia park during the afternoon and evening, and it was pretty well patronized considering the counter-attraction of the Pawnee Bill show and the rain. The picnic will be continued tonight if the weather is favorable, and will be also continued tomorrow afternoon and evening. The company makes a special announcement elsewhere. An excellent orchestra furnishes dancing music and there are abundant attractions on the grounds for people who do not dance. The refreshment stands are abundant and well stocked. The public should patronize the picnic liberally tonight and help swell the treasury of the fire company, which is in need of funds. None are more prompt or work harder in fighting fire than the Columbia boys.

Jennings Guards, Jr. O. U. A. M., held an ice cream festival in Robbins' opera house yesterday afternoon and evening and it was well patronized. The ice cream and fruit festival in the Primitive Methodist church was also a success.

Messrs. Edward Doherty, Geo. M. Boyer and R. D. Hagenbuch, a committee representing the Jr. O. U. A. M., hung a new American flag to the breeze from a pole on the High School building, and it floated proudly during the day.

Several local members of the P. O. S. of A. attended a flag raising at Gilberton yesterday. The flag was raised on a pole in front of the school building in the eastern part of the town. William Wendt, of Philadelphia, State Secretary of the P. O. S. of A., made the presentation address, and Rev. Smith, pastor of the Gilberton Methodist Episcopal church, made the acknowledgment.

A Presentation.
Preaching services were conducted in the Trinity Reformed church on West Lloyd street Wednesday evening by Rev. J. M. Schaeffer, of Ashland, and at the close of the sermon Mr. M. H. Master, in behalf of the congregation, presented the pastor, Rev. Robert O'Boyle, and his wife, with a handsome silver tea set. The presentation was a surprise to the recipients. Rev. O'Boyle made a brief acknowledgement. After the close of the service an informal reception was held by the congregation and Mrs. O'Boyle was welcomed as a member.

Street Mishaps.
The six-year-old son of Matt Smarowski, of South Main street, was run over by one of Fay's laundry delivery wagons on Wednesday night and one of his shoulders was dislocated. The boy was caught by the hub of a front wheel and whirled around and the rear wheel passed over him. A small Polish boy was knocked down by a wagon on East Centre street, Wednesday night, but escaped serious injury.

THE TEACHERS ELECTED

All the Old Members Applying Are Re-Elected.

FOUR NEW ONES SELECTED

An Election of Janitors and Janitresses Also Held—Superintendent Whitaker Announces His Promotions and Assignments.

A regular meeting of the School Board was held on Wednesday evening and there was an election of school teachers and janitors. All the members of the board were in attendance.

A request on behalf of Otto Carlis that the School Board sell him thirty feet of the property recently purchased from C. E. Titman was denied. Mr. Carlis wanted a part of the southern side of the property as a site for a stable.

Superintendent Whitaker made the following statistical report for the last month of the school term: Enrollment for the month—Boys, 984; girls, 1,205; total, 2,189. Average daily attendance—Boys, 800; girls, 958; total, 1,758. Average percentage of attendance—Boys, 85; girls, 83; total, 84. Pupils present every session, 508. Visits by citizens, 135; by directors, 19.

The report of the High school committee showed that the graduating exercises were not as successful financially as those of the preceding year, the receipts being $23 less.

The Committee on Teachers and Salaries recommended, among other things of minor importance, that the salaries remain the same as last year, that a new second grade grammar school be established, that the next school term consist of ten months, that they open on August 22, 1895, and close June 18, 1896, that four new teachers be elected, that all appointments of teachers be made and vacancies filled, and that the election of evening school teachers and substitutes be deferred until the next regular meeting. The Board adopted all the recommendations.

The committee on Text Books and Supplies asked for an appropriation of $3,000 and that the secretary and superintendent be authorized to purchase the books. It also asked permission to call for bids for supplies and the requests were granted.

The committee on Building and Furniture was also authorized to ask for bids for supplies.

After the regular business of the meeting was transacted an adjournment was taken for fifteen minutes. Upon convening again the board proceeded to elect teachers, janitors and janitresses. The election of teachers was first taken up and fifty-one teachers of the old corps applying were re-elected, each receiving the fifteen votes of the board. They are: J. W. Cooper, Clara Chise, J. R. Lewis, Annie E. Cogan, Jeannette H. Barnage, Bridget A. Burns, Lizzie M. O'Connell, Anna M. Dengler, Maggie E. Cavanaugh, Joseph W. Burke, Mahala Fairchild, Ella M. Clauser, Amelia C. Schoener, Mary A. Lafferty, Mary A. Connelly, Anna E. Mansell, Jane T. Lambert, Sallie Conry, Mary A. Stack, Hattie I. Hess, Eliza J. Finerty, Frank B. Williams, Maggie C. Brennan, Minnie C. Harnett, Mary H. Wasley, Mary Roberts, Corinne Tempest, Mary E. Fox, Hannah B. Morrison, Nellie Baird, Sallie E. Fadden, Annie M. Kimmel, Mary A. Lynch, Michael H. Britt, Mary E. McGinnis, Annie Burke, Bridget Flynn, Mary Monaghan, Lizzie Bellis, Nellie L. O'Hara, Julia Miles, Annie L. Sheehy, Katie Cunningham, Julia Donahue, Hannah Scanlan, M. Alice Lehe, Julia Creary, Idaho P. Kolb, R. A. McHale, James M. Mullahey, Herbert C. Hooks.

Misses Lizzie Lehe and Jennie Gunter and Mr. John B. Schenling were not applicants for re-election.

There were 25 applicants for election as new teachers and the following were elected: Misses Mary C. Bassier, Annie L. Williams, daughter of ex-Town Clerk J. S. Williams; Sallie Daniel, daughter of C. & I. Policeman James Daniel, and William E. James, son of Councilman T. J. James. It was decided that the salaries of the janitors and janitresses remain the same as last year and the term of service to be eleven months.

All the old janitors except Lewis Hopkins, Jr., and old janitresses except Mrs. Rossier and Mrs. Stanton were re-elected. Mr. Hopkins was not an applicant. Mrs. Stanton's school in the German Lutheran church will not be in use next term, and Mrs. Rossier was not an applicant. Her daughter is one of the new teachers.

There were two janitors to be elected and eighteen names were presented, viz: Samuel Thomas, John Beyrand, William Greener, Edward Dowling, John Fallon, John D. Hughes, E. D. Beddall, Thomas Clifford, John Reese, John B. Davis, Stephen Tregambo, Jabez Powell, Benjamin Woerner, George Walters, Edward Davis, David Brown, William and Robert Fishburn. Messrs. Thomas and Beyrand were elected, receiving nine votes each. William Greener received 5 votes, Edward Dowling 4, John Fallon 2 and John D. Hughes 1.

One janitress was to be elected and there were the following applicants: Mrs. John Reeves, Mrs. Henry Bowman, Mrs.

Superintendent Whitaker has issued the following announcement to the school teachers:

All the old teachers who have been re-elected will continue in the positions which they held last year with the following exceptions: Miss Annie E. Mansell will have charge of the new second grade grammar school; Miss Hattie I. Hess will have charge of the first grade grammar school left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Schenling; Miss Mary E. Fox will take charge of the fourth grade school left vacant by the promotion of Miss Mansell; Miss Nellie Baird will take charge of the third grade school left vacant by the resignation of Miss Lehe; Miss Hannah B. Morrison will take charge of the third grade school left vacant by the promotion of Miss Hess; Miss Katie Cunningham will take charge of the second grade school left vacant by the promotion of Miss Fox; Miss Nellie L. O'Hara will have charge of the second grade school left vacant by the promotion of Miss Morrison.

The newly elected teachers will take positions as follows: Miss Sallie Daniel, the second grade school left vacant by the promotion of Miss Baird; Miss Annie Williams, the first grade school left vacant by the promotion of Miss Cunningham; Mr. William James, the first grade school left vacant by the promotion of Miss O'Hara; Miss Mary Rossier, the first grade school left vacant by the resignation of Miss Gunter.

All the teachers are expected to meet the Superintendent at his office in the High School building, at 2 p. m., on August 21st, 1895, the day before the school term opens.
