

A Clean Collar

One that you can keep clean all the time—a collar that does not wilt when you get over-heated; that does not fray on the edge, or tear out at the buttonholes, and can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. These collars and cuffs are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with waterproof "celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. They are the only waterproof goods so made, and every piece is stamped as follows:

THE CELLULOID CO.,
427-29 Broadway,

VALKYRIE A SPEEDY SAILOR.

She Easily Defeats Allies in a Fair Racing Trial.

HUNTERS' QUAY, July 6.—In a five days match sailed yesterday Valkyrie III and Allies the former won by fifteen minutes. It was a dead heat to windward of seven miles and then a run before the wind of seven miles, both legs being sailed in a light breeze.

It was an ideal day for a trial of light weather sailing upon the part of Valkyrie. The course determined upon was from Hunter's Quay round the Skelmorie bell buoy and back. Valkyrie and Allies started at 2:30 p. m. Both yachts carrying their jib topsails. Also crossed the line a dozen lengths ahead of her opponent, and on the starboard tack. Off Wemyss Castle, four miles from the start, Valkyrie had weathered Allies. In tacking off she seemed to suddenly wake up, was perfectly sailed by the wind, and her weathered and head-roached Allies. Of Italian the cup challenger was a quarter of a mile dead to windward, and she afterwards slid away on the starboard tack in imitative style.

Off Skelmorie Valkyrie was four minutes ahead, and as she squared around the mark for the run home she set a big, low footed bowsprit spinnaker, the first time the kite was ever hoisted. It pulled her along famously. Her balloon spinnaker was hoisted shortly afterwards, and in spite of all this headweight she did not tip by the head, and ran larelike from Allies. The latter, assisted by a big jib topsail, was driven as hard as possible, but she could not reduce the gap between herself and Valkyrie, and the latter finished a mile and a half ahead. It was a fair racing trial, and Valkyrie upheld the reputation which she gained on Saturday in her maiden race, when she defeated Britannia on 1st Alley.

Omaha's Murder Mystery.

OMAHA, July 6.—The trunk murder mystery, which has disturbed all Omaha since last Tuesday, was cleared up last night when the frightfully mutilated body of the victim, John E. Selgan, was found in the river and the prisoners first arrested, Mate Milan and wife, Anton Beckwith, John Urban and John Drabnitz, were formally charged with murder. The body was found in an eddy a short distance below the scene. The throat was cut from ear to ear, the head was smashed as with an ax, and other parts of the body were frightfully lacerated. It is now believed the man was surrounded by the murderers, and resisting, was slowly hacked to pieces.

Organizing for a Lynching.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., July 6.—It is said here that an organized mob is being formed at Morgantown to lynch Sam Speyer and Alfred Belcher for the murder of Major A. H. Hamilton. The case has been in discussion since Wednesday, but up to this morning not a jurymen had been impaneled, notwithstanding over 250 have been examined, all of whom have been rejected. Judge Settle has ordered 200 men to be summoned from the adjoining counties, and hopes to get a jury out of that number. The excitement is at a high pitch, and the mob only needs a leader to take Belcher and Speyer out and hang them to a tree.

The Fashions.

In the make up of the summer wardrobe the bicycle gown, or rather the bicycle outfit, is such an important factor that the choice of material and style is a serious question. Mohair or alpaca is a favorite fabric and is equally desirable for street and traveling costume on account of its light weight. Linen, duck and holland in tailor form, with blazer or Eton jacket and dainty cotton or silk shirts are made up for mid-summer wear. For cooler days the Norfolk jacket increases in popularity. Mohair also appears in the new bathing costumes and is a serviceable fabric as it does not easily absorb water. The "Tribby" jackets, now so popular, are very pretty in mohair, lined with bright colors and trimmed with revers of velvet or silk. These jackets are made up in the same material of the skirt as well as of plique, embroidery and linen to be worn with wool skirts. Fancy waists are more abundant, more varied and more attractive than ever. The styles, fabrics and trimming with their Dresden and Watteau effects are ideal. In looking over the new Fashion Magazines at hand we find the "Paris Album of Fashion," "La Mode de Paris," "The French Dressmaker" and "La Mode," published by A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th street, New York city, unusually attractive this month.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store.
