

DO not be deceived.
 This brand of White Lead is still made by the "Old Dutch" process of slow corrosion. It is a standard brand of Strictly Pure White Lead. The recommendation of "John T. Lewis & Bros." to you by your merchant is an evidence of his reliability, as he can sell you cheap ready-mixed paints and bogus White Lead and make a larger profit. Many short-sighted dealers do so.

FOR COLORS.—National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors, a one-pound can to a pound of lead and mix your own paints. Saves time and annoyance in matching shades, and insures the best paint that is possible to get on wood.

Send us a postal card and get our book on paints and color-card, free; it will probably save you a good many dollars.

THE YOUNG CHRISTIANS.

Opening of the Fourteenth Endeavor Convention at Boston.

A FLATTERING OFFER REFUSED.

The Trustees Courteously Decline the Invitation of a Chicago Publisher to Change the Headquarters to That City—Rivalry for the Next Meeting Place.

BOSTON, July 11.—The most important proceedings in connection with the fourteenth annual convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, which formally opened at 9:30 this forenoon, was the meeting of the trustees of the organization yesterday. The session lasted all the afternoon, with a brief intermission for lunch.

The chief business to be considered was the offer of H. H. Kohlisaat, of the Chicago Times-Herald, who had agreed to pay $5,000 a year for three years toward the maintenance of the society's headquarters on condition that they be removed from Boston to Chicago. After a committee had passed adversely upon the subject, and reported, the report of the committee was unanimously accepted, and the headquarters will not be removed from Boston at present.

Mr. Kohlisaat's offer was presented to the trustees by Rev. John Henry Barrows, of Chicago. The committee appointed to consider the matter consisted of Messrs. Barrows, James L. Hill, D. D., of Salem, Mass., and Nehemiah Boynton, D. D., of Boston. The committee reported their appreciation of the generosity of Mr. Kohlisaat's offer, which they were pleased to note, indicated that the work of the society was thereby recognized as being of a national and international character.

The work, however, is wholly one of influence. It is not necessary that the society should have large buildings or institutions. The work is successfully carried on at a small expense, and the principles of the organization forbid the headquarters being more than a bureau of information, leaving no taxes and seeking no authority. Therefore they concluded it to be inexpedient to accept the kind offer.

Besides the routine business, and the consideration of the question of removal to Chicago, the only matter of general interest was the presentation of the claims of Los Angeles, Cal., for the convention of 1897. The delegates from lower California, which presented the claims of Los Angeles, included Leonard Merrill, state secretary of the society, Rev. A. W. Hyder and Herbert Wylie, all of Los Angeles. Mr. Merrill made the argument and urged as chief among his reasons the facts that the city was the only one on the Pacific slope or coast that had three railroads running into it, that its climate at this time of the year was superb and unchanging; that the endeavorers there had already raised considerable money in anticipation of getting the convention, and that the business men of the place had guaranteed to subscribe enough to cover the expenses of a convention.

Today the claims of Portland, Ore., San Francisco and Seattle, were presented, and the matter was taken under advisement. The trustees then accepted an invitation from Mayor Curtis, of Boston, to go, with other guests, on a trip down the harbor on the city's boat, and to visit the public institutions of Boston.

The trustees will today decide the matter of the '97 convention, and also take action looking toward the expansion of the society into a world's organization.

Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., president and originator of the society, presided at yesterday's meeting of the board of trustees. Among the absentees were: Hon. John W. Amos, of Philadelphia; Rev. C. A. Dickerson of Boston; Rev. R. W. Brockway, Rev. P. S. Henson and William B. Harper, Ph. D., all of Chicago. The session was held at noon, an adjournment being taken soon afterwards, after which the trustees again assembled, and adjourned at 5 p. m.

The Franco-Brazilian Dispute.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Gold, according to a theory put forth by the Brazilian newspapers, is at the bottom of the threatening dispute between Brazil and France relative to the boundary between French Guiana and Brazil, which has already led to bloodshed. Brazilian newspapers say that important discoveries of the precious metal have been made in the disputed territory, and assert that that accounts for the sudden urging of the French claims.

Trying to Save Mrs. Maybrick.

LONDON, July 11.—The friends of Mrs. Florence Maybrick are once more renewing their efforts to obtain her release from prison. Mrs. Maybrick, it will be remembered, is the American woman who was convicted of poisoning her husband, and sentenced to death on Aug. 7, 1889, which sentence was afterwards commuted to penal servitude for life.

Sagnata and the Mora Claim.

MADRID, July 11.—Senator Sagnata, the ex-premier, during the course of an interview yesterday, declared that the Liberals would agree to pay the Mora indemnity provided the United States grants indemnities for damages sustained by Spaniards during the war of secession, and provided the cortes agrees to vote the credit necessary.

Bolivia's Ultimatum to Peru.

LIMA, Peru, July 11.—Bolivia has sent an ultimatum to Peru, demanding an answer within twenty-four hours as to whether Peru will give satisfaction for the alleged offenses committed against Bolivia during the civil war.

Ill Health and Suicide.

WELLSBORO, Pa., July 10.—Edward Briggs, of Middlebury, Toga county, a well-to-do farmer, committed suicide by taking a dose of carbolic acid. He had been in poor health for some time.

Stabbed in a Barroom Brawl.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., July 11.—Oliver Cromwell stabbed George Henry three times about the head in a Mt. Carmel barroom. Henry is in a precarious condition. Cromwell was arrested.

The Weather.

HIS BIGGEST CONTRACT

Contractor Dakin of Syracuse Tells of the Final Success of a Big Undertaking.

(From the Syracuse [N. Y.] Post.)

Mr. George Dakin is a well-known contractor and resident of Syracuse, and a representative business man of that city. Our representative found him overseeing the sewer work at the Arsenal, and in the following interview he describes how he has finally completed the biggest contract he has ever undertaken.

"Mr. Dakin, doesn't your business expose you to many unhealthy conditions?"

"Yes, I am continually catching cold."

"Does it affect your general health?"

"It has brought on kidney disorders."

"Have you been troubled from that source any length of time?"

"I think it started during the war, in which I took an active part, and every cold I catch has aggravated it."

"What were the symptoms?"

"Lame back and trouble with the kidney organism. I have doctored for years and used all kinds of remedies I heard of, without relief. My case is as follows:"

"Some little time ago I was in a very bad condition, hardly able to hobble around; I had been in Madison County looking after a contract there for the State; I got very wet, and, as usual, was laid up. I was simply twisted way around and doubled up on one side; when I attempted to stand up it seemed as though I would tear out one of my kidneys; while in this condition I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised. Being almost desperate, I was willing to try anything for relief. I began using them, and the result was truly wonderful. I feel as young as a boy, and it is the first time in many years that I have been perfectly free from pain in the small of my back. All urinary troubles gone. I am perfectly well, and no traces of my former trouble remain. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

ALEXANDER'S KINDLY OFFER.

Russia's Offer Offered the President an Unlimited Loan Without Security.

CHICAGO, July 11.—A special from Washington to The Post says: Discussion of the gold reserve in the treasury and the action past and probable of the Morgan-Rothschild syndicate has brought to light the fact that Czar Alexander III of Russia offered to loan the United States all the gold necessary to maintain the reserve at the figure desired. The friendly tender was declined by President Cleveland, because after several weeks of consideration and deliberation and telegraphic correspondence back and forth between Washington and St. Petersburg it was decided that the president had not the authority to issue bonds or otherwise incur indebtedness in behalf of the government.

It was some time in May, 1893, that the state department received the offer through Andrew D. White, the American minister at St. Petersburg. The czar's offer of assistance was direct, but simple. Mr. White said in his official communication to the state department that he had been called upon by M. De Giers, who said that the czar had instructed him to confer with the representative at the court of St. Petersburg, and to inform him that the czar stood ready to make a personal loan to the president of the United States of gold to the amount of $50,000,000, or as much more as might be desired, at a nominal rate of interest and for an indefinite period of time. The interest indicated was a fraction more than 3 per cent. Nothing was said about security, and it was evident that Alexander III believed that the president could take this money and apply it to the needs of the United States treasury with but little formality, and that he had the power to do so.

The fact that Alexander was able to make a proposition of this kind is not surprising. The exchequer of the empire is absolutely under his control. Then, too, all of the gold mines in the Russian territory belong to the crown, and the product is the property of the royal family.

Fatal Playfulness.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., July 11.—Rev. S. H. Phillips, of Durham, one of the best known Reformed clergymen in Pennsylvania, died yesterday of blood poisoning at St. Luke's hospital, aged 31 years. When visiting a neighbor's house six weeks ago, he remained for dinner. He was seated on the porch, chatting with several young ladies, when the call for dinner came. He was slow in responding and one of the ladies, Miss Cope, took a stickpin from her dress, intending to prick him in the leg with it slightly. As she struck at him he raised his leg and the pin went through the flesh to the bone. After a dangerous illness of two weeks he had his leg amputated in the hope of saving his life. This was on July 6, but since then he has grown gradually worse, death resulting from shock.

The Reunited Elks.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 11.—Grand Exalted Ruler Hay, in speaking of the settlement of the differences between the Buffalo and Atlantic City factions of the Elks, said: "This is the best moment of my life. It is the result of my prayers and endeavors for years, and in welcoming Mr. DeWolfe we welcome all the Elks in the country." The terms upon which the order was adopted at Atlantic City last year were submitted to the subordinate lodge, and if not ratified by a majority then the constitution of Detroit will be in effect; that the nine lodges admitted by the Jamestown faction be considered legal and given new members. The two lodges at Punxsutawney, Pa., are ordered to consolidate. Yesterday afternoon the annual parade was held. There were 5,000 Elks in line.

Tramps Hold Up a Train.

BALTIMORE, July 11.—A gang of fifty tramps held up a Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore freight train at Bay View Junction, a few miles from Baltimore, and attempted to board the cars. The train crew tried to drive them off, and a lively fight ensued, during which the attacking party fired a fusillade of shots from revolvers. A dozen boarded the engine and attacked William Lyons, the engineer, and the fireman. The train crew fought their way to Connetquot and hurried with the engine to Canton. The chief of police headed a posse and captured sixteen of the gang.

The Deadly Mine Gas Again.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., July 11.—In an explosion of gas at the Nelson colliery Nicholas Gehrlsch, Henry Osman, Jean Francois, Joseph Ballech and William Duffy were severely injured. Gehrlsch will probably die. The explosion was caused by the firing of a shot that ignited the sulphur, sending a wave of flame through the breast in which the blast occurred and an adjoining gangway. The blast damp that set in immediately after the flames had subsided nearly smothered the injured men, who were removed from the mine with difficulty.

Off to Peary's Relief.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., July 11.—The Peary relief expedition sailed this morning. Captain John Bartlett commands, with Patrick Dunphy as mate, who is well known for his Arctic work already. The ship is amply provided with coal and provisions, and will probably make good time northward. The expedition expects to reach Peary's headquarters about Aug. 10, and to be back here by the middle of September.

No Case Against Carpenter.

BELVIDERE, N. J., July 11.—Samuel C. Carpenter, of Easton, Pa., who was arrested charged with the malicious murder of Mrs. Ray Blackwell at Phillipsburg, N. J., April 30 last, was yesterday discharged from custody by Judge Morrow, after a lengthy preliminary examination. Judge Morrow held that Mrs. Blackwell undoubtedly committed suicide.

Youthful Bather Drowned.

EASTON, Pa., July 11.—Edward Lowe, 13 years old, was drowned yesterday in Bushkill creek, near this city, while bathing. His companion, Edward Siegfried, made an unsuccessful attempt to rescue him, and came near losing his own life.

Pierola Elected President of Peru.

LIMA, Peru, July 11.—Nicolas Pierola, leader of the Revolutionary party, has been elected president and Mr. Billinghurst vice president. Reports from all parts of the republic show that the election was quiet.

Earthquakes in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 11.—Severe earthquake shocks have been experienced in the Caspian and Ural districts. Many houses have been destroyed at Usnada, Astrachan and Brasnovodsk.
