A TRIBUTE TO QUAY!

Important Meeting of the Hastings Club Last Night.

THE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Governor Hastings and His Administration and Candidacy Endorsed. But a Line Drawn on the Fight Against Quay.

The Shenandoah Republicans got into line last night and placed themselves on record as to the fight that is now going on for state superiority within the party lines. The call published in the HERALD for a meeting of the Gen. Daniel H. Hastings Club last night met with a hearty response and a glance at the list of some of the people present shows there was a grand union of Republicans who have in past years been identified with various factions. There was a grand rally to protest against the attempt to depose Hon. M. S. Quay, the leader who has so frequently jumped into the breach to lead the Republican party to victory.

The resolutions adopted are of clean cut and ringing character. The club declares in unmistakable language that, while it endorses Governor Hastings and his administration, it does not approve of the attempt to supplant Senator Quay with Gilkeson as the state leader of the party, and denounces it as unadvisable and suicidal to the party's interests.

The meeting was held in one of the new and elegantly furnished rooms in the Titman building on East Centre street and the apartment was crowded. The proceedings were conducted in a perfectly harmonious and unanimous spirit and not a dissenting voice was raised against the sentiments of the resolutions.

President William Neiswender, at whose instance the meeting was called, was unable to be on hand at the early part of the meeting on account of a pressure of personal business, and after waiting some time the club elected ex-Councilman A. B. Lamb chairman and Town Clerk W. J. Watkins as secretary.

Chairman Lamb stated that the object of the meeting was to have the club express its sentiments on the issue in the Republican ranks as to the chairmanship of the next state convention and the chairmanship of the state committee. Leading organizations in all parts of the Commonwealth had already asserted themselves and the Gen. Daniel H. Hastings Club of the largest town in Schuylkill county should delay no longer in placing itself on record.

The remarks of the chairman were immediately followed by a motion of Borough Treasurer T. J. Davies, that a committee on resolutions be appointed, whereupon the chairman appointed Councilmen T. J. James and James McElhenry and ex-Deputy Clerk of the Courts B. J. Yost.

Following the appointment a recess was declared and the committee retired to prepare resolutions. Upon its return it submitted the following report, which was unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, A struggle for the control of the Republican organization in this state is now being waged between the supporters of Governor Hastings on the one hand and Senator M. S. Quay on the other, and

WHEREAS, All conflicts of this character have a tendency to weaken and disorganize the party, therefore be it

Resolved, That while we, the members of the Hastings Club of Shenandoah, appreciate all movements that have a tendency to disrupt or disorganize the party, we deem it our duty to the organization and to Governor Hastings to endorse his candidacy for the coming State Convention. And be it further

Resolved, That recognizing as we do the valuable services rendered to the Republican party and the principles which it represents by Senator Quay, we deem it inadvisable, not to say suicidal, to attempt to depose him from the leadership of the party on the eve of perhaps the most important Presidential contest the party has ever engaged. We, therefore, most earnestly and unreservedly endorse the candidacy of Senator Quay for the chairmanship of the state committee, and urgently request the delegates from this district to the State Convention to give him their support for that position.

JAMES McELHENRY, B. J. YOST, T. J. JAMES, Committee.

Among the prominent and active workers in the Republican ranks in attendance were: ex-Councilman A. B. Lamb, ex-Councilman Daniel Neiswender, Councilmen T. J. James, James McElhenry and C. T. Straughn, ex-Deputy Clerk of the Courts B. J. Yost, Borough Treasurer T. J. Davies, Town Clerk W. J. Watkins, School Director T. R. Edwards, ex-Borough Treasurer M. H. Kehler, ex-Chief of Police John Blaker, O. A. Keim, H. H. Zulick, Daniel Sterner, William Jefferson, Milton Troutman, Harry Richards, ex-Supervisor D. H. Llewellyn and Charles T. Gibson.

A PEDDLER RETURNS FIRE

He Makes Charges Against Men Who Cause His Arrest for Peddling and One Skips to Avoid Arrest.

Detective Amour yesterday arrested Jacob Helwinski at Lost Creek for peddling without a license. Helwinski was taken before Justice Williams and entered $100 bail for his appearance at court. He then swore out a warrant for the arrest of George Wisgeva, a saloonkeeper at Lost Creek, and Simon Drugallus, a saloonkeeper of Mahanoy City. Helwinski charged that when he went into the former's saloon to sell goods Wisgeva and Drugallus took his pack from him and kicked him out of the place.

Detective Amour arrested Wisgeva at Lost Creek and he waived a hearing and entered $500 bail before Justice Shoemaker. Amour then went to Mahanoy City to arrest Simon Drugallus, but found that he had closed his saloon and left for parts unknown.

Held for Assault.

Thomas Bedford, of Lost Creek, was before Justice Williams last night, charged with assault and battery by Samuel Hinks, of town. The facts of the case as developed at the hearing are that Hinks called at the Lost Creek store yesterday and asked Bedford for money. Bedford, it is claimed, said Hinks would have to go to a higher authority. Hinks then went to Bedford's house and was ordered away. He left, but returned again and Bedford knocked him down, cutting a gash in his forehead. Bedford entered $500 bail for a trial of the case at the Pottsville court.

IF YOU HAD A LOAD OF WOOD TO SELL And told every man you met that you had a load of wood to sell, and every man you met would in turn tell every man he met that you had a load of wood to sell, it would in course of time become pretty well known that you had a load of wood to sell, and you would not have any load of wood to sell. We have not got a load of wood to sell, but we have loads of groceries to sell, and we are going to tell it to everybody who reads this paper, and when these are gone we will get more.
