ANOTHER RAID MADE

The Police Disregarded the Protests of Mrs. Yodkois.

Four Women and Three Men Taken ensuing. Into Custody at an Old Hannt and Marched Down to the County Jail.

Chief of Police Tosh made another effective disorderly house raid this morning and dragged quite a group into his net. The scene of operations was at the "oyster bay" at the southwest corner of Centre and Bowers streets.

At one o'clock this morning attention was attracted by cries of "Police!" Special place and found that the occupants were trying to eject one Anthony Koraitis, who was taken into custody, but subsequently released, as no one appeared against him. Meanwhile Chief Tosh, Policemen Lee, Kerwin, Hand and Walaitis and Constable Giblin joined Mullahey and it was decided watch the house. Giblin was armed with a warrant. At 5 o'clock a raid was nade. Mrs. Yodkois protested that nobody was in the place, but the officers did building after bursting open a door.

Albert Good and Robert Johnson, All were given a hearing before Justice Toomey and committed to Jail in default of $300 ball each. They were taken to the Pottsville jail.

This house was "pulled" only a few reeks ago, but has since been a source of great annoyace to the respectable residents f the vicinity,

Mrs. Yodkois has come forward with a claim that a large sum of money was stolen from her house, but the police say there is no truth in the assertion.
