THE local police force is adding laurels. to its many achievements. It has now made its fourth disorderly house raid and the soiled doves in limbo this time will not bother the respectable people of the localities they infested for some time. One excellent point in favor of the police force is that it conducts its raids with so wellguarded secrecy the movements never partake of a farcical aspect.

It is now charged that the shell game men who make their homes in this town work their thriving practices on the roads leading from the offices of the collicries on the days the miners receive their pays, The scoundrels who thus lay traps to deprive the wives and children of the benefit attending the meagre earnings the hushands and fathers squeeze out of hard toil in the mines cannot be too severely punished, and it is hoped the operators of the collieries will do all they can to clean out the robbers. It is true that the men who will dally with the fakirs and lose their hard-earned money are not deserving of sympathy, because repeated warnings have been given and the victims should know better than to try and win at the game, is true to a great extent, but there are hundreds of men who live in the patches who never heard of or saw the game, and it is to catch these that the unprincipled sharks have selected the vicinities of the colliery pay offices as their stamping grounds. It is pleasing to hear that the police of this town will pounce upon the shell game men at every opportunity and we trust they will make the town so hot for the worthless gang that it will cheerfully seek other fields. The shell game should be placed on a par with counterfitting, as an offense,

EVENING HERALD HOLMES, THE ARCH FIEND

He Is Suspected of Still Another Double Murder.

BRUTALITY WITHOUT PARALLEL

The Mysterious Disappearance of Mrs. I In Connor and Her Child, Together with Her Relations with Holmes, Leads to the Belief that He Killed Them.

CRICAGO, July 22 -A local paper says. To the long list of murders and other crimes directly traced to the arch flend. H. H. Holmes, must now be added the mysterious diappearance of Mrs. I. L. Connor and her 12-year old daughter, with a reasonable certainty that they may have been disposed of in the same manner in which the rest of his victims met their death. Mrs. Connor and her child were last seen in the company of Holmes in this city In 1893.

Since then all trace of them has been lost, and the shrewdest of detectives, at the instigation of the woman's family. who have been working on the case, at now of the opinion that the finding of their bodies is the only possible solution of the mystery. There are circumstances which, while at first seemingly susceptiexplanation, now point in the direction of another double murder at the hands of the greatest villian of modern

Mrs. Connor came originally from Davenport, Ia , where she was married to L L Connor, a jeweler, nearly fifteen years ago, probably in ISSC, when she was about 18, though the exact time is unknown. To them a child was born, and in 1889 Connor and his wife and girl, then 7 or 8 years of age, came to Chicago. Holmes at that was just beginning to frame the swindles for which he later became notorious, and had started a drug and jewelry store in Englewood. Connor went to work for Holmes, and moved his family into a flat over the store.

It was not long after this until Connor ame aware that the relations between his wife and Holmes were not of a nature consistent with the law of society. Before long Mrs. Connor and the child disappeared, and no trace of them has since seen found.

It is the intention of the Chicago police make every effort to have H. H. Holmes, the insurance swindler, brought here to er the charge of having murdered the Williams sisters. The local officers are convinced that the murder he Willliams girls was the first committed by flolmes, and they argue that in consequence he should be required to stand stand trial for it first. They also insist that they will be able to produce evidence that he did murder the sisters. The po-lice are by no means convinced that the analysis made by a doctor on Saturday that the substance found in the big stove in Holmes' old office was fire clay and not human bones. They say that fire clay would not become brittle in any kind of heat, whereas a portion of that found in the stove crumbled in the hands of Detec-

It developed yesterday that the substance on which the first report of the finding of the bones of Minnie Williams was hinged was in the hands of Detective Goyer, of Philadelphia. It was said that he visited Chicago a week ago, and when he left carried with him positive proof that a body had been burned in the big stove in Holmes' office. It was also learned that Detective Geyer would come to Chi cago after he completes his search for the remains of Howard Pitezel in Detroit, and will co-operate with the Chicogo afficers in whatever may be done hereafter.

In police circles it was said today that the only hope of convicting Holmes was in Chicago. It was said that the Phila-delphia authorities could convict him of swindling, and that the Canadian authorities would not go to the expense of extraditing and trying him. In the event that Detective Geyer falls to locate the body of Howard Pitezel in Detroit, everything will depend on the work of the Chicago

Defaulting Cashler Caught in Mexico. CHICAGO, July 22 - Chester W. Rowe the defaulting cashier of Poweshiel county, Iows, is under arrest in the City of Mexico, and a large part of the $20,000 which he made away with has been attached by Pinkerton detectives, and will likely be returned to this country, from which it was taken. Richard Rows. brother of the absconding cashier, is also under arrest as an accomplice. It is somewhat doubtful, however, whether either of the brothers can be taken back to Iowa for trial. Under the Mexican law a foreigner may go there, renounce all alle giance to the country from which he came, become a Mexican citizen and thus avoid extradition.

Childish Prank May Result Fatally. ALLENTOWN, Pa., July 22. — George Daner met with a peculiar but serious aceident in this city. He was lying in a hammock when a number of neighbors children thought it would be great fun to throw him out, which they accomplished by violently swinging the hammock. Polsoned the Mules' Oats.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., July 22. - Several mules owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, at Draper col-liery, have died within the past few days, and all the others in the stables have be sick. The oats was put in only a few days ago, and it is not known whether it was poisoned in the car or after it was placed in the stable.

Prosecuted for Stealing a Penny. PITTSBURG, July 22 .- One of the most insignificant court cases ever known here came before Judge White on Saturday. C. H. Weber, aged 9, was sued by the Presbyterian Sunday school, on the south side, on a charge of larceny. It was claimed he stole the contents of the contribution nox, and he was convicted. The amount he took was just one cent. The judge suspended sentence on payment of costs.

Married on His Deathbed.

WILMINGTON, Del., July 29.-Years ago Miss Katherine Kilpatrick loaned to John T. Walker a sum of money to go into the shoe business. Walker prospered on the money, and now, in his 63d year, is the proprietor of an establishment on East Third street, and is worth $40,000. Walker was not ungrateful to his benefactress, and as the years passed the friendship rip-ened into a warmer feeling, and Saturday night, as he lay on his deathbed, he was married to the girl whom he had fre quently named as his prospective heir. The relatives of Mr. Walker are said to be strongly opposed to the union.

Strangled as He Slept.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 22.-Adam Kaylor, who was a resident of Mount Joy, came to his death in a singular fashion. With his body stretched on a baggage truck in the Pennsylvania railroad station, but with his head hanging down, Kaylor slowly strangled. He had laid down on the railroad track near the station to sleep. He would have been cut to pieces by the cars had not several young men found him about midnight and carefully placed him on the baggage truck.

CINCINNATI'S SENSATION

The Remarkable Story Told by a Hospital Putient.

HER BODY FILLED WITH NEEDLES.

She Had Forced Them Into Her Lege and Feer While an Occupant of a Convent, as Punishment for Offenses Committed. Her Condition Critical.

CINCINSATI, July 22 .- A well dressed Indy applied at the Cincinnati Hospital for admission Saturday afternoon. She presented a letter from the mother supe rior of the emeent where the young buy had readed. The letter said the bearst, Miss Noille Thomas, had been employed at the convent for some time, and was suffering from swotten legs and tect. Nothing except the symptoms referred to in the letter was found on the preliminary examination but later it was decided to lance the feet, when it was found the limbs and feet were imbeded with pins and needles. Forty-one needles were extricated from her body, and she was not able till yesterday to endure further oper-tions, when ten more were extricated, and it is thought others will be found. The in, and that the case in any event may prove hopeless.

The girl protested till after the opera tions that she could not tell how her feet and limbs became imbedded with these needles, but finally she said that she had been at the Convent of the Good Shepherd for several years. She was an orphar and alone in the world. During her stay there she had done wrong—not once sione, but persistently. She had done that which she knew was not right, and for every sin she had committed she had done penance by thrusting a needle into one of her legs She explained that each operation had caused her agonizing pain, and that at times was almost unbearable, but she felt that she must bear the pain as a recom-pense for the sin committed.

This mode of doing penance, she said, had covered more than two years. For wrong doings had been of frequent occurrence, and she was unable to estimate th number of needles she had placed in her limbs. She said she and another girl in the convent had become unnaturally in-fatuated with each other. They had seted as lovers, and had together sinned against God and nature. She said she had con-fessed to a priest at the convent, who was greatly shocked at the confession she made. The sisters were greatly surprised at the statement made by the girl, and could not understand how such condi-tions could have existed in the institution without their knowledge. They made no attempt to deny the story, but were no doubt in ignorance of such relations existing between any persons.

Sister Superior Mary Malone stated that the outcome of the examination of Miss Thomas was a startling revelation to her. She had been aware of the condition of the patient's legs and feet for several months, but had no idea of the cause. On Saturday Miss Thomas' limbs were so swollen and her condition so serious that the mother superior insisted upon her going to the hospital. As to that portion of her story regarding Miss Thomas' infatuation and intimacy with another female in the convent, Sister Malone declared she knew nothing of it, and was surprised and shocked beyond measure.

Miss Nellie is able to talk, but is very weak and suffering intense pain.

many other allments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows scorse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the se of Mr. Silas Fariey of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:
