Fearful Collision Between Two Italian Passenger Steamers.

HUNDRED AND FIFTY-EIGHT LOST.

The Steamer Ortigia Crashes Into the Maria P. and the Latter Vessel Sank in Three Minutes - Only Twenty-eight Fersons Survived the Disaster.

GENOA, July 22 .- The Italian steamers Ortigin and Maria P. collided of Isla del Pinto, at the entrance of the Gulf of Go-The latter sank and 148 passe mgers were drowned The Maria P. was bound from Naples to La Plata. There was a crew of seventeen and the passengers numbered 178. She was calling here en route to her destina-tion. She was entering the Guif of Genoa at 1.30 o'clock yesterday morning, when she met the Ortigia, outward bound. They only noticed each other when a collision was inevitable. The blow of the Ortegia crashed into vivors. She rescued fourteen of the areow and twenty-eight of the passengers of the Maria P. Other steamers have been dis-patched to the scene of the disaster, and are now searching for further survivors. are now searching for further survivors. The Ortigin's bow was smashed for a space of twelve feet along the water line. There is some comment upon the fact brought to mind by the disaster that the Ortigia once collided on the same spot with the French steamer Uncle Joseph.

At the conclusion of the sitting of the chamber yesterday at Rome, the minister of marine announced the news of the disaster in the midst of a profound sensa-tion, adding that an officer, a seaman, a stoker and 144 passengers of the Maria P had perished.

The Ortegia had twenty-five passengers. on board. The Maria P.'s captain was named Ferrara. The chamber has ordered an inquiry into the disaster.

The sky was overcast at the time of the accident, and there was little son. Both captains were asleep, and the third officer. Revello, was on watch on the Ortigia, and Second Officer D'Angelo was on watch on the Maria P. The Ortigia was going at the rate of eleven miles an hour and the Ma-ria P. at the rate of eight miles. Both vessels saw the lights of the other and continued on their proper roads till the mistake was made, it is not established by whom, which brought the Maria P. broadside towards the Ortigia. Third Officer Revello, of the Ortigia, saw the danger and ordered the engines reversed, but the order came too late. All the boats of the Ortigia were lowered, and the crews rescued all they could of the survivors. The latter, for the most part, remain in such a state of terror since the rescue that they are unable to give a single detail of the disaster. Captain Forrara, who was saved, said that he was slooping in his cabin when he was awakened by cries and shouts and a great noise. He rushed upon deck and saw the Ortigia backing off, while his own 5 27, 11 15 p. m.

TERRIBLE BUTCHERY Brutal Morderer Kills Three and Fatally Wounds Four Others.

NEW OBLEASS, July 22 .- Last Friday night, on the Terre Haute plantation, in St. John's parish, a terrible butchery of human beings took place. While Resario Giordano and his family were seated at the supper table Joe Noska walked up to the door, and leveling a double barroled shot gun, fired. Mrs. Glordano fell to the floor a corpse, and the builets that did. not go through her went through both legs and the head of the 4-months old infant she held in her arms. Gioradano, fearing that the tender babe would be killed in the fall, sprang forward to clasp it, and the assasin then fired again. Thi buckshot entered the groin and leg of Giordano. The 10-year-old girl, on seeing her mother fall, ran forward and received a portion of the load of buckshot that struck her father. The shot entered her abdomen, literally tearing it to pieces. At the same time little Nicolina, 10 years old. fell to the floor, wounded through the head

The assussin did not move from the spot, but when he saw Beneditto Gior-dano, a nephew of the dead woman, and Charley Columbane coming toward him he cooly placed two fresh shells in his gun and waited until they got very close to him. Then he raised the gun and fired both barrels, the two men falling to the ground dead. The murderer, throwing his gun over his shoulder, made his es cape to the woods. Citizens are in pur-suit of the murderer,

TRAGEDIES AT A PICNIC

A Row Results in the Profable Death of Three Persons.

GALLATIN, Tenn., July 22 - One of the bloodlest tragedles ever witnessed in this county took place on Saturday at a picnic in the northern part of this county. Three persons lost their lives. West Dixon, of this place, took his wife, who is said to be a woman of bad character, to the picnic, and soon a fuss arose about her, which was quieted, and Dixon and his wife took a soat in a wagon. As William Davidson, a man some fo years of age, was passing by the wagon Dixon drew his pistol and without a moment's warning shot him through the head, killing him on the spot He and his wife broke to run, and a crowd of Davidson's friends started in pursuit, firing at them at every opportunity. Finally Dixon fell, mortally wounded. His wife was also shot twice, being fatally wounded. Dixon is a man of very bad character. having killed three men, one a deputy sheriff at Frankfort, Ky. Davidson was also a man with a record. He killed the sheriff of Robertson county several years

Brutal Mississippi Negroes,

PURVIS, Miss., July 22 - About 9 p. m. a terrible tragedy was enacted at the home of A. D. Hartfield, a highly respected and prosperous farmer who lives about ten miles east of this place. Mr. Hartfield being absent his two daughters, aged 14 and 16 years, went out the cowpen to turn out the calves. Mrs. Hartfield, who remained in the house, heard the girls scream and started to where they were, but she was shot down by a negro. She was not seri-ously hurt, however, and managed to give the alarm. Upon returning to the house the two girls were found lying in the cowpen unconscious. One of them recovered sufficiently to state that they were attacked by two negroes with a hatchet. One of the girls is hadly injured, and will Mrs. Hartfield was shut three times, dle. but will probably recover. Robbery is supposed to be the motive of the crime.
