Evening Herald.

TUESDAY, JULY 23 1883.

THE most remarkable thing in connection with the runaways of horses in this town is that in all their frequency during the past few months no one has been killed.

IS a little over two weeks the Hastings-Quay question will soon be settled so far as this country is concerned, and there is little doubt that Quay will be on top.

THE school teachers and scholars have one month more of leisure. The vacation this year is shorter than usual, but none the less enjoyable, judging from the numerous pleasure trips made by many.

THERE is a mint in store for the man who can provide the people north of the Broad Mountain with a pleasure resort on a scale similar to what the people south of the mountain have in Tumbling Run.

NOW that the time has been fixed for the district conventions for the election of delegates to the Republican state convention, the candidates and their friends will display renewed activity and the button-hole work will become more brisk.

THE suggestion that the members of the G. A. R. north of the mountain dispense with traveling a distance to celebrate Grand Army Day and substitute a home observance is a good one. There are few who could afford to go to the place of general observance, but if a grand home reunion could be arranged nearly all could attend and give the day appropriate observance.

Stop, Lady, Stop!

Leau and hank, He's such a crank, My stars! I think I'm not his wife! He'd make my life A scene of strife. Stop, lady, stop! His liver is out of order. "He's just too nice for anything," his wife says, "when he is well." Every wife's husband should, if sick, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts the liver and kidneys in good working order, purifies the blood, cleanses the system from all impurities, from whatever cause arising, and tones up the functions generally. Once used, it is always in favor. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets permanently cure constipation, sick headache, indigestion and kindred derangements.

Dilated nitre applied with a feather will remove stains from mahogany, rosewood or walnut.

Thousands are suffering excruciating misery from that plague of the night, Itching Piles, and say nothing about it, through a sense of delicacy. Instant relief in Doan's Ointment. It never fails.

Blankets and furs sprinkled with borax and done up air-tight will keep free from moths.

From LaGrippe.

How Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored One of Kentucky's Business Men to Health.

No DISEASE has ever presented so many peculiarities as LaGrippe. No disease leaves its victims so debilitated, useless, sleepless, nervous, as LaGrippe. Mr. D. W. Hilton, state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Kentucky, says: "In 1879 and '80 I had two severe attacks of LaGrippe, the last one attacking my nervous system with such severity that my life was despaired of. I had not slept for more than two months except by the use of narcotics that stupified me, but gave me no rest. I was only conscious of intense mental weakness, agonizing bodily pain and the fact that I was hourly growing weaker. When in this condition, I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In two days I began to improve and in one month's time I was cured, much to the surprise of all who knew of my condition. I have been in excellent health since and have recommended your remedies to many of my friends." Louisville, Jan. 22, 1886. D. W. HILTON, Dr. Miles' Nervine Restorer Health.

HORR-HARVEY DEBATE.

Continuation of the Contest Between Oratorical Gladiators.

HARVEY QUOTES MINT REPORTS.

To Show That Silver Dollars Have Been Coined Nearly Every Year—Mr. Horr Declares That the World Has Declared Against Silver.

CHICAGO, July 23.—The Horr-Harvey debate on silver was resumed at the Illinois club rooms yesterday afternoon. There was a fair attendance.

Mr. Horr opened the dispute with a written argument touching the impossibility of maintaining a fixed ratio between gold and silver. As the result of experience all of the civilized nations of the globe had discarded silver as a standard money. It was useless to exploit long tables of ratios to show whether a double standard could be maintained. The world had pronounced against silver.

Mr. Harvey, taking up Mr. Horr's enigma of Senator Morrill, delivered on Saturday, charged that Senator Morrill erred in saying that no silver dollars had been coined for forty years. Prior to 1873, Mr. Harvey read from the report of the director of the mint showing that silver dollars in greater or less amounts had been coined nearly every year. The fact was that Mr. Morrill had mistaken the value of a bank stockholder's stock, with a bank stockholder's prejudice. He called on Mr. Horr to explain.

Mr. Horr said that Mr. Morrill had not meant to say that no dollar had been coined, but that none to speak of had. At most it would be said that Mr. Morrill had made a mistake. Mr. Harvey in his book had made a mistake, and had one, in stating the amount of silver which had been coined during the life of the government.

The greatest interest centered in Mr. Harvey's effort to demonstrate that the full redemption of silver by the United States would double the value of everything in the country except debts. Mr. Horr pronounced this proposition absurd. "We might as well say that if we cut our yard sticks in two," said he, "we would double the amount of clothing in the country. If half the gold in the world were destroyed would not the value of the gold dollar be doubled?"

The remaining debate centered about this point, advocates of each side giving generous applause to the advantage gained by their favorites.

Philadelphia's Striking Weavers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—The strike of the ingrain carpet weavers remains unchanged. The manufacturers carried out their announcement by throwing open the mills for such as chose to return to work at the old scale until Dec. 1, when the increase demanded would be granted. Only fourteen strikers returned to their looms, however, and this slight break in the ranks is not regarded as serious to the cause of the striking weavers. On the other hand, one mill, that of Archibald Holmes, employing twenty-four weavers, capitulated and signed the new schedule, all of their employes returning to work, but the determined manufacturers do not believe that this will affect the ultimate issue.

Murdered by a Tramp.

BALTIMORE, July 23.—Walter Emilly, of Washington, was murdered last night on the Philadelphia road, near Orangeville, by William Wiley, a tramp. Emilly is a stationary engineer. He lost his place on Saturday, and with Harry Dickinson, of Washington, came to this city. They fell in with Wiley on Sunday. Going out the Philadelphia road, Dickinson gave Wiley ten cents to buy beer for the party. Wiley did not get the beer, and Dickinson demanded the return of the ten cents. Wiley refused, and a fight followed. Later Emilly approached Wiley for keeping the ten cents, and the latter stabbed Emilly five times. He died in the hospital. Wiley and Dickinson were arrested.

Watching the Bannock Indians.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 23.—Governor Richards has received advice that some forty young Bannock bucks are in the vicinity of Hall's Fork, a station on the Oregon Short Line, in Uintah county. The Indians have a big horse herd with them, and are inducing the Utes to visit them ostensibly to trade horses. There are no squaws with their band, and it is believed that their real object is to have a sun dance if the Utes join them. Their movements will be closely watched, and they will not be permitted to commit depredations.

Colonel Van Cleaf's Trial Postponed.

THESTON, July 23.—The trial of Colonel John T. Van Cleaf, late of secretary of the state board of assessors, who was indicted in connection with the state funds for obtaining money under false pretenses, was postponed again yesterday, this time to Aug. 5 next. The postponement was applied for by Prosecutor Stockton on the ground that the state had been unable thus far to subpoena all the needed witnesses.

Thieves at Bellefonte.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., July 23.—Bellefonte was visited by a gang of thieves who worked the town for all it was worth, but secured little plunder. The houses of Colonel W. Frank Reynolds, Howard Lingle, Mrs. D. G. Baab and Frank Warfield were entered, but the robbers were frightened away. The mercantile store of W. R. Miles, at Millsburg, was broken into and the contents of the money drawer taken.

Princeton Students Unharmed.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 23.—Governor Richards has received a number of anxious inquiries from eastern friends of the members of the nineteenth annual geological survey from Princeton college, now making a trip in northwestern Wyoming, who have been reported captured by Bannocks and massacred. Governor Richards is certain that no harm has befallen the students.

His Skull Cracked with a Flatiron.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., July 23.—Flatirons, crockery and clubs were the weapons used in an altercation between Stanislas Riegel and John Zerhine, at Springfield, and the former is lying at the point of death as the result of a cracked head. Zerhine is under arrest.

Ventured Too Far and Was Drowned.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 23.—While Harvey, the 18-year-old son of the Rev. J. K. Newcomer, of Mountville, was bathing in the Susquehanna river at Wrightsville, he ventured in over his depth and was drowned. The body was soon recovered.

HEAVY FLOOD AT DUNBAR.

Bridges and Houses Washed Away and One Life Reported Lost.

DUNBAR, Pa., July 23.—The heaviest rain storm and flood that has visited this place for many years occurred last night. Rain began to fall about 6:30, and continued in torrents for over three hours. The bridges between Dunbar and Uniontown are all washed away, and the tracks in many places are also washed out. The local streams are swollen higher than at any time since the flood of 1888.

People along the banks of Dunbar creek were obliged to flee for their lives and buildings were carried away in the torrent. The bridge crossing the creek which runs through town was swept away. The Dunbar Furnace company and Dunbar Fire Brick company's plants are all flooded. The loss will amount to thousands of dollars. Lightning and hail accompanied the storm and played havoc at many places. It is reported that Samuel Washbaugh, pumper at the Cambria Iron company works, has been drowned.

Murderously Assaulted by a Robber.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—The store of Henry C. Ewing, dealer in wall paper and interior decorations, No. 1205 Chestnut street, was the scene of a murderous assault yesterday, followed by an attempted safe robbery. The victim of the assault was Oliver S. Humes, a salesman, and his assailant and the would be safe robber was a negro boy known as "Tim," who has been in Mr. Ewing's employ about three months. He succeeded in making his escape. When found Mr. Humes was unconscious, having been repeatedly struck with a shovel during a terrible struggle. After having subdued Humes the negro took the key of the safe from his pocket, but broke it off in the door. Then he quickly made his escape.

Willimantic's Buried Bank.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., July 23.—"Bank closed for examination" are the words placed on the door of the Dime Savings bank, while among the citizens here keen interest in all the details of all the bank's affairs is manifested. State Attorney Hunter applied for a receiver today, and George O. Silex is mentioned for the appointment. A bond of $10,000, Walden's security, was unceremoniously today, but it is thought to be worthless, as the maker of it is William Wild, of New York, brother of the missing man, is said to own no real estate.

Killed by a Desperate Negro.

CALLAHAN, Fla., July 23.—Jasper N. Higginbotham, one of the best known men in this county, was killed here yesterday at Dyal's Station by George Seymour, a notorious negro character. Seymour was wanted for some offense. The sheriff sent Higginbotham and Jim Dyal to make the arrest. The negro began shooting when the men approached him. Higginbotham fell, but until he shot the negro. Higginbotham died and Seymour is not expected to live.

Heaviest Rain in Ten Years.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 23.—It has been raining for twenty-four hours north and west of this city, and it is still pouring down here. On the east of the Galisteo river, a small mountain stream, four Santa Fe passenger trains, south and westbound, are tied up. Four cents of the Galisteo bridge have gone down, the raging stream. All trains from the west are delayed. New Mexico has had more rain in the past two weeks than in ten years before.

Accused Bank Directors Arrested.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., July 23.—Yesterday the directors of the Union bank were arrested, but were at once admitted to bail. The bail fixed in the case of Directors Sir Robert Throburn, Hon. A. W. Harvey and Messrs. Grievie and Connelly were two sureties in $18,000 each and the principal in $90,000. Manager Pinesent was bailed on his own bond of $18,000 and two sureties of $90,000 each.

A Brave Boy's Life Sacrifice.

BALTIMORE, July 23.—George Miles made a heroic effort yesterday to rescue James Hickey, aged 6, from drowning at Gwyn's Falls. The brave lad had almost reached his younger companion when the latter sank for the last time. Miles made two unsuccessful dives, and became too exhausted to reach shore. Both bodies were recovered.

Stambulloff's Grave Guarded.

SOPIA, July 23.—The grave of Stambulloff is guarded by police, owing to threats which have been made to disinter the remains. The feeling here and in the large towns is one of disgust and dejection at the crime. Four persons, including Stambulloff's coachman, are in prison charged with the murder.

Killed by Lightning.

THE HOLMES MURDERS.

Mrs. Pitezel Will Tell All She Knows About the Monster.

STILL SEARCHING HOLMES' HOUSE.

Further Finds Which the Police Believe Will Fasten the Murder of Minnie Williams—A Home Hunt for the Purpose of Deliberate Slaughter.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Mrs. R. F. Pitezel is back in Chicago after her trip to Toronto for the identification of the bodies of her children. She is now ready to tell all that she knows regarding the operations of Holmes as an insurance agent. He made important statements regarding the swindles and attempts to carry them out. It is said that she was kept in ignorance that any of them snatched murder.

Some articles of clothing were turned up in Holmes' house yesterday. Some of them were from the butcher shop, but others of the bones resembled those of a human body. In a chest holding secret belongings of Holmes, the police found a vest identified as one long worn by Holmes, and bearing dark stains resembling blood. Other articles of underwear, etc. were found. A shirt had the initials "G. B. D." worked in red letters. The box was found under the floor, and was covered over with a layer of fire brick. In the cellar, near where the bones were found, a woman's shoe was turned up with evidence of fire on the bottom of the sole.

As the earth when these articles were found was not removed in lying the foundation of the house, no reason for their burial can be assigned by the police, except to hide murder. Close by is the bottom of the shaft which made quick connection between the top of the house and the basement, while just over the spot is the tiled stairway, which leads into the third floor by the trap door placed under the stationary bath tub.

A meeting of the detectives engaged on the examination of the house was held last night, and they announced that in their opinion the bones had been constructed for the purpose of deliberate slaughter. More care than ever will now be exercised in searching the premises.

Holmes was formally charged with the crime of murder today. A warrant for his arrest on that charge was sworn out by A. Minier, nephew of Julia L. Connor, of Muscatine, Ia. Holmes is charged in the warrant with having murdered Mrs. Connor some time between Aug. 1 and Nov. 1, 1892. The warrant was placed in the hands of the police, and while it cannot be served at the present it will be acted on the instant Holmes is freed from the charges pending against him in Philadelphia.

Fatal Ride to a Deathbed. DECATUR, Ind., July 23.—Late Sunday night word was received here from Monroe that Miss Mary Elzey was dying. William and Thomas Elzey started in separate buggies, with their wives, to see their dying sister. A few miles from this city a young man and lady who were out riding attempted to pass both the Elzeys. William Elzey's horse ran away, and in an instant the three rigs crashed together. The wounded and dying are: Mrs. Will Elzey, head and shoulders crushed, dying; Mrs. Thomas Elzey, shoulders, arms and back broken, will die; Miss Myers, legs and back broken, cannot recover; William Elzey, arms broken and internally injured, recovery doubtful. Dying sister is calling for them, but kept in ignorance of their double sorrow.
