Another American Vessel Fired Upon by a War Vessel.

STATEMENT OF CAPTAIN QUICK.

He Declares That Before He Could Comply with a Command to Come To Two Solid Shots Were Fired at the Schooper Carrie A. Lane.

BREAKWATER, Del., July 25 .- Captain Quick, of the American schooner Carrie A. Lane, upon his arrival here last night had a tale to tell about a thrilling encounter in Cuban waters with a Spanish gun-boat. Two shots were fired at the Lane by the man-of-war, and one of the schooner's crew narrowly escaped being killed by one of them. The vessel was made to heave to and give an account of herself before being allowed to proceed. The schooner was off Port Antonio, and making good time before a stiff breeze, when on the 14th inst, she sighted a steamer flying the Spanish flag following her. Captain Quick at first paid no at-tention to the stranger, but after an hour or so noticed that she was signalling him to stop. He then examined her more closely, but could only make out that she looked like a large tugboat, such as is usually to be found in the harbors about Philadelphia, New York and other American seaports. While he was making up his mind what course to pursue a puff of smoke curled up over the steamer's port bow and a round shot whistled uncomfortably close to the schooner's mainmast and plunged into the water on the other quarter.

Captain Quick gave the order to haul in sail and bring the vessel to, and while this was being done one of the crew ran out on the bowsprit to take in sall. As he stood there the gun on the Spanish warship boomed again, and another shot sped on its way toward the American craft this time coming so close to her that the sallor on the bowsprit swears he distinctly felt the wind caused by its rapid flight. The Lane soon came to a dead stop, and the gunboat drew up under her quarter. A boat was lowered, and four Spanish marines, under the command of a Heutenant in the Spanish navy, came aboard. They were fully armed, and their leader very civilly lifted his cap and domanded to know from what port the Lane had sailed and whither she was bound. Captain Quick gave the required information and produced his clearance papers in proof of his assertions. No further search was made, and the vessel was permitted to continue on her course without further molestation Captain Quick says that he could not get the name of the gunboat, although he tried to do so. He thinks that the Lane must have been mistaken for a fillbuster-ing craft, but insists that there is nothing in her appearance to justify this belief.

officials here have received no information in regard to the firing on the schooner Carrie A. Lane by a Spanish war vessel off Port Antonio. The general opinion of naval officers who read the report of the affair, as described by Captain Quick, is that the Spaniard did not exceed his authority in overhauling the schooner if the latter was in the territorial waters of Cuba. The Spanish government has a right to overhaul and learn the character of any vessels within the three mile limit that might be suspected of having on board those entertaining designs against the government or a cargo intended for the CHEVENNE, Wyo., July 35.-Governor Richards received a telegram last evening from the assistant secretary of the inte-rior, notifying him that Brigadier General Coppinger had been ordered to proceed at once to the scene of the Indian troubles, and orders such movement of troops as may be necessary to prevent a conflict be-tween the Indians and settlers. Later the governor was advised by General Coppin-ger that four troops of cavalry had been ordered from Fort Robinson, Nob., to pro-ceed to the Jackson Hole country to protext the southers As it will require at least two or three days to reach Jackson Hole with these troops, a battle between whites and Indians may be fought before Adjutant General Stitzer, of the state militia, wired resterday morning from Market Lake, Idaho, as follows. "I met an Indian captain of police in Teton Basin marketing and the state yesterday, with thirty five horses, hurry ing out with all possible speed. I saw him again at 11 o'clock tast night. He says he cannot control the Indians, who will fight at noon today.

There are in the fackson Hole settle-ment sixty five men capable of bearing arms, thirty-five women and forty chil-dren. All of these are gathered at the settlement of Marysvale, situated between Grosventre and Little Grosventre rivers. It is possible that reinforcements from sattlements cast, on the headwaters of Big Wind river, and from the Mormons to the south have reached them in response to couriers sant out during the last week asking for aid. It is estimated by the state authorities that no less than 200 Indians are surrounding the settlement. If the whites have sufficient ammunition it is confidently expected they can stand off the Indians until troops come to their pia.

Carlisle Don't Want the Presidency,

RICHMOND, Va., July 25 .- A newspaper man interviewed Secretary Carlisle yes-terday. The interviewer said to Mr. Carlisie that many Democrats regarded him as a strong man for president, as well as the only legitimate successor to Mr. Cleveland. "Well," responded the secretary, "notwithstanding the fact that the presidency is the greatest honor that can be bestowed, I do not want the office. I have seen too much of the hard work at-tached to it." He declared that Mr. Cleveland would not be a willing candidate in 1896.
