Evening Herald.

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1895.

Is there is a movement in town to harras. the police force in its work of breaking up dives there is just cause for the law abiding citizens to make themselves heard. A dive is no good to any community under the best of circumstances, and a police force that has the energy to clean out such places should receive every encouragement. There are some people who make use of the "necessary evil" argument, but many of them have gone so far as to use it as a cover while protecting or assisting to protect the proprietors and occupants of the dives. No doubt this has given enccuragement to others to annoy the police force. One thing is certain, not one of the dives which the present police force has pulled was in any way a necessity; on the contrary, the dives were conducted and to a great extent patronized by people of low and vicious classes, and at least one was a resort for men who prey upon honest toilers with the shell, film-flam and other thieving schemes. The man who can stand up and declare that a raid upon such people is unjust condemns himself as a confessed abettor of law-breakers. It has been claimed at times that, under the law, the police have no right to force entrances into houses as they have been doing in connection with the raids. Assuming that the claim is a correct one, in what respect is there occasion for law-abiding, or presumed law-abiding people to raise their hand in horror and say the police force has been turned into housebreakers? From accounts at hand, it appears quite satisfactorily that each time the police made a raid they went to the houses armed with warrants charging the occupants with offenses against the law, and upon arriving at the places they have resorted to such measures as they are expected to enforce when offenders try to escape service of a process. If in so doing the officers themselves transgress the law the injured peo ple have a remedy and every opportunity to get it without an indignation meeting on the part of any of the citizens, either vol untary or solicited. The HERALD is disposed to give encouragement to every official of the borough who evinces a disposition to do his duty, and every law-abiding citizen of the town should do likewise.

One point in connection with this affair seems to be overlooked by some people. Every raid thus far made has been instigated by the complaint of respectable pecple who are obliged to reside in the vicinity of these dives and are opposed to exposing their families to the dangerous Influences of such places. It is a question whether prostitutes are to be permitted to settle wherever they see fit and drive respectable families from pillar to post in search of comfort and safety. No save person will say that the latter proposition should be upheld, unless they be champions of prostitutes, but will give all possible encouragement to the police to raid every dive complained of, and if necessary and feasible acrest the landlord of the property as well as the proprietors and occupants.

IMPORTANT LETTERS DISCOVERED.

Holmes Wrote Letters to the Dead Woman's Relatives to Deceive Them as to Her Whereabouts-The Prisoner Will be Tried for Murder in Philadelphia.

CHICAGO, July 28.—More proof was found yesterday that Julia L. Confer is dead, and that she was made way with by H. H. Holmes. It was determined that she disappeared before June 9, 1809—an important factor in the search for her. As late as November, 1892, Holmes, as shown by the letters which have been found, was writing her parents as to her whereabouts, and stating that she had gone to St. Louis. But on June 5, 1892, he wrote to her brother in law, Ira Yantis, of Waukesha, Wis., giving him a fictitious address as to her whereabouts in St. Louis. Yantis wrote back to Holmes on June 9. and this letter was found on Wednesday

At that time Yantis had no suspicion that Holmes had made away with his sister-in-law, and supposed him to be her friend. This letter was written three weeks before the one in which L. L. Con ner accused Holmes of breaking faith with The later letter refers to his daughter Pearl. From this it would appear that Mrs. Conner was killed first and the child

1. L. Conner, the husband of Julia L. onner and the father of Pearl Conner, both of whom are thought to have been murdered by Holmes, was in Chicago yesterday, and The Inter-Ocean today publishes a long interview with him. He has no positive proof that Holmes killed his wife and child, but says he believes such to be the case. He does not know when the crime was committed, but thinks it was done in this city. Conner's story contains practically nothing but what has

Last evening two well dressed women called on Chief Radenoch and told him a 16-year-old girl, a daughter of wealthy and respectable parents, had beome acquainted with Holmes during the fall of 1803, and afterwards disappeared. Now,that Holmes' crimes have been exposed her parents believe that their daughter was one of his victims. Chief Radenoch will investigate their story. Until he has fully corroborated it, however, he says he will not disclose the girl's name.

Holmes to be Tried in Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, July 20.-District Attorney Graham decisively announced this morning that H. H. Holmes will be tried in this city for the murder of Benjamin F. Pitezel in the Callowhill street house. In view of the fact that the district attorney has said that Holmes would be tried wherever the strongest case could be made out against him, it is believed that the authorities here have recently learned more important details of the crime, which insure the accused man's conviction. formation as to whether or not this sup-position is correct was refused.

THE SILVER DISCUSSION.

Mr. Harvey Declares There Is Too Much Credit Money.

Chicaso, July 28.—The Horr-Harvey silver dispute was continued yesterday afternoon. Mr. Horr opened the discussion and Mr. Harvey then resumed the discussion of the question of primary and credit money. The amount of gold in the United States he estimated at $400,000,000 to $600,-000,000, and of our credit money about $1,000,000,000. This was too much credit money, he said, and accounted for the country's financial derangement.

Mr. Horr continued by saying that up to the present Mr. Harvey had not said a single word in proof of the actual subject of disputs. Mr. Horr declared that Mr. Harvey's subject was not so much to build up silver as to pull down gold. The normal amount of money necessary for the transaction of the business of the country. said Mr. Harvey, was $4,800,000,000. As matters now stand he said that the banks were lending and getting interest on two dollars for every dollar in circulation.

Mr. Horr said that the question whether the banks were a curse to the country would be discussed in its proper place, and Mr. Harvey would probably be disgusted with himself, when it was done, for hav-ing brought the matter up.

The debate finally adjourned at Mr.

Horr's request until Saturday.

Abuses at Haverhill's Almshouse.

HAVERHILL, Mass., July 26.-Rumors which for the past week have been rife about mismanagement of the city's alms-house reached a climax last night, when, at a special joint meeting of both branches of the city government, an investigation into the management of the institution was ordered, upon motion of Alderman Allen. Mr. Allen stated that a delega-tion visited the almshouse. Among other things they found a semi-paralytic inmate named Daughton lying on a filthy bad under a tree. They asked Superintendent Savage to loosen the man's shirt. This was done and frightful sores were disclosed. A closer examination brought to light the fact that portions of the man's body were actually honeycombed with vermin.

Arrival of Two Americans Who Were Released

ON CONSUL WILLIAMS' DEMAND

One of the Men Admits That He Was a Cuma Revolutionist, but the Other, Whose Property Was Conflicated, Asserts That He Was Innocent of Compiletty.

New York, July 20.—Antonio Raiz Per-omo and Manuel Vargas, the two Ain vi-in citizens who have been imprisoned in ules by the Spanish authorities, and who rough the intervention of Cousul Gon rat Williams, were retuned and demonstron the country on the steamship Habena, were landed in this city yesterian they had been detained at Hoffman stand over night, as they had no certificate cates of acclimation to the men praised Consul General Williams, who accured their release. Perdomo told a most re-markable story, admitting fraulty that "I was the captain of a company of twenty-six men, handed together as revo-lutionists. We took an active part in the engagement in which General Salcedo, the Spanish commander, was killed and General Campos wounded. On April: my company was lying in ambush in some woods near Santa Clara, when a regiment of 110 men, under Lieutenant Nico Ruis-came up and attacked us. We killed six of their men and escaped with not a man injured on our side. We were armed with Winchester and Mansseur rifles supplied to us by Collins & Co., of Front street. New York. Three days after the fight was sleeping in a hammock some little distance from my company when a body ( 115 men rode up, and with bullets flying ill around me for some unknown and unessary reason I was placed under ar rest and lodged in the jail at Remidios There I was treated fairly well, and de cent food was offered me. I preferred to pay and get better food from the outside. "On July 3 I was transferred to More Castle prison. I immediately communicated with Consul General Williams, and the government agreed to release me pro vided they could instantly deport me from the country. Accordingly I sailed for New York by the first steamer arriving here. My property in Cuba, worth about $500, was confiscated. My wife and two children I had to leave in Cuba, but they are coming up by the next steamer. My profession is civil engineering, and my home address is Concord and Adams streets, Brooklyn. The revolutionary movement in Cuba is spreading, and if they can hold out until October the revolutionists will come out the victors without a doubt. Regarding Campos, it is generally understood in official and military circles that he is a prisoner of the

Manuel Vargas told a similar story. He

"On July 3 I was arrested in the streets of Remidios and taken to Moro Castle prison, where I was confined fifteen days. For what reason I do not know. No charge was made against me. I never expressed sympathy even with the revolutionary party. I kept a coffee house and did some other work for Andrew Fisher, an American dentist, who I understand is to be deported from the country today on a Ward line steamer. I have no family. My coffee house, worth $1,300, was seized by the government officials. When I was jailed I wrote to Consul General Williams, who immediately investigated my case and demanded my release. The gov-ernment officials put me aboard the steamer Habana, bound for New York, paying my passage as a third class passenger. I paid $0 extra, and came second
