CORBETT-FITZSIMMONS ROW

Their Childish Acts in a Philadelphia Barroom.

CORBETT PULLED FITZ'S NOSE!

After Which the Champion Pugilist Deliberately Spat in His Antagonist's Face, Subsequently Fitz Threw a Water Bottle at Joe Corbett.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Pugilist Fitzsimmons left for New York yesterday forenoon and Pugilist Corbett went to Scranton last night. During the six hours which elapsed between their meeting at Green's hotel, on Saturday night, and Fitzsimmons' departure they kept out of the way of each other, and there was no more trouble. It is generally agreed that the whole affair was an exhibition of childishness on the part of both men far more worthy of a pair of school-boys than of men who are claimants for the leadership in the "manly art of self-defense." In the excitement, immediately following Saturday night's affair, it was difficult in the extreme to get an authentic account of it, as there were but few who saw the fight from beginning to end, and of those who did there were not many who were inclined to tell of it.

Mr. H. F. Foote, Jr., an employe of the Reading Railroad company in this city, was one of those who saw it from start to finish, however, and from him a reporter for the Associated Press secured the following account:

"Joe Corbett and I," said Mr. Foote, "were standing at the oyster counter in Green's about midnight when we noticed Fitzsimmons, Forrest and another man at the bar. Presently Fitzsimmons walked over to the hotel desk and leaned on the counter as if to register. Just then the door opened and Brady, McVey and some others came in from the cigar store. I saw Jim Corbett outside, and Joe, catching sight of him at the same time, ran out to meet him. What he said I do not know, but in a few seconds Jim came in and walked straight over to where Fitzsimmons still stood at the desk. Leaning on one elbow, Corbett put his face close to that of Fitzsimmons and said: 'Well, you are up to your old tricks again, I see. Been saying you would pull my nose, and all that sort of thing, I hear?'

"I don't know that I have," replied Fitzsimmons, 'but what of it, anyway?'" "Why, that's what of it," retorted Corbett, as he reached over and caught Fitzsimmons by the nose. The latter jerked away, giving Corbett a slight push with his left arm as he did so. Then Corbett deliberately leaned over and spat squarely in Fitzsimmons' face. Fitzsimmons backed away, and for an instant stood looking at Corbett. Then he said in a low, sneering tone, with a strong accent on the first word:

"Gentleman Jim! Gentleman Jim! Oh, yes, Gentleman Jim, I don't think. This shows how much of a gentleman you are."

"Just at this point," continued Mr. Foote, "Brady came running up, and Fitzsimmons sneered:

"There's that snicker of a manager of yours. I guess you have your whole gang here."

"Nothing more was said by either man," added Mr. Foote, "and I think that would have been the end of it, but Forrest ran over and Joe Corbett rushed up to take a hand. Then there was a general scrimmage, in which all hands, except Jim Corbett, took part. He stood as cool as a cucumber until the others had quieted down, still leaning against the desk. Finally Fitzsimmons' friends got him over to a table, and he sat down, while Joe Corbett took up his position at the oyster counter near by.

"I can lick you myself, you red headed chump!" shouted Joe Corbett, after a minute or two, at the same time shaking his fist at Fitzsimmons.

"The latter jumped to his feet, and picking up a carafe that stood beside him fired it straight at Joe Corbett's head. Brady happened to pass just at this time, and the bottle struck him square in the chest, almost knocking him down. Fitzsimmons roared for another bottle, but Forrest caught him and held his hand. All this time Jim Corbett stood leaning against the desk, laughing with all his might.

"Look at the duffer," he said, "he is as white as a ghost. He's scared to death. See that look of fear on his face. I wouldn't be that scared, and show it for a million dollars," and he laughed and jeered again until Fitzsimmons looked as if he was about to throw something at the older brother, too. He didn't, however, contenting himself with sneeringly remarking as he glared at the champion:

"You fat head."

"You red head," was Corbett's response.

"Puddin' head," sneered Fitz, again.

"Sap head," retorted Corbett. And thus the two men stood calling each other names and exchanging childish epithets until they got tired of it, and both went out."

Fitzsimmons, in an interview after the fight, denied that Corbett had tweaked his nose, but admitted that he had tried to do so, and the champion had actually spat in his face. He and his friends explain his failure to resent the insult with a blow by saying that Fitzsimmons could not afford to jeopardize his chances in the coming fight in that way, as nearly all the men in the place at the time were friends of Corbett, and that Fitzsimmons would have stood no show whatever. Corbett's party, on the other hand, contended that Fitzsimmons clearly showed the white feather, and say his actions in the matter show that he has "a streak of yellow" in his make-up.

Special to Private Families.—The Columbia Brewing Company has introduced a family bottling system and will be prepared to serve the beverage to private families at a moment's notice. The beer is superior to any put in the market and is well recommended.

BIG FIRE IN PHILADELPHIA!

Many Buildings Destroyed and a Whole Square is Threatened.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 2 p. m.—A big fire is raging here and the entire fire department has been called out for service.

Thus far seven dwellings and Brown's box factory on Franklin street have been totally destroyed.

All dwellings and business houses fronting on Eighth street are now burning and it is believed that the entire block bounded by Franklin, Willow, Eighth and Callowhill streets will be totally destroyed before the fire department gets control.

It is reported that three employes of Brown's box factory were lost in the fire.

Green's Cafe Free Lunch.
Everybody is invited to partake of a delicious dish of mock turtle soup to-night. Change of hot lunches every night.

A Musical Treat.

Those who were in attendance at the services in the Lutheran church, Girardville, last evening, were favored with a rare musical treat. Misses Anna J. and Emma F. Moyer, the former teacher of piano and voice at the Allentown College for Women, upon the solicitation of Rev. E. O. Leopold, the pastor, favored the audience with two selections, the first being "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and the second, "Thine Forever, God of Love." The renditions were the finest heard in the church, and together with the excellent sermon delivered by the pastor made a most pleasant service. These two young ladies are holding responsible positions at the above college, and are traveling in the interest of that institution.

Building Contracts Awarded.

Jesse B. Davis, of Freeland, has secured the contract for the erection of the new building for Martin V. Heisenberger, at the northwest corner of Centre and White streets. Work will commence on Thursday morning. The building will have a frontage of 90 feet, with two store rooms and a saloon, on Centre street and run 32 feet on White street. Mr. Davis has also secured a contract for the erection of a cottage at the southeast corner of Lloyd and Market streets for Michael O'Hara. The cottage will be two stories high, 10 feet wide and 30 feet deep.

Their First Ride.

It seems a most incredible that there should be residents within five miles of this town who never enjoyed a ride over a steam railroad, but such was the case up to Saturday last, and there may be others. Two young women from Kingtown boarded a train at the Lehigh Valley depot on Saturday for Pottsville and the trip they made was their first over any steam railroad. They took seats in the smoking car, but upon discovering that all the rest of the seats were occupied by men they picked up their grips and sought seats in the rear car.

Delicious mock turtle soup for lunch at Breen's to-night.

Sheriff's Sale.

The stock of Jacob Smigelsky, the East Centre street dry goods dealer, was sold at Sheriff's sale on Saturday and bought in by the trustees, Israel Lieberman, of Pottsville, and Isadore Lauterstein, of town, for $421. Just as the sale was about to proceed an attachment in an action for fraud issued through District Attorney Ryan on complaint of Sage & Company, of Boston, was served, but the claim was immediately settled and the sale proceeded.

When you want good roofing, plumbing, gas fitting, or general tin-smithing done call on E. F. Gallagher, 18 West Centre street. Dealer in stoves. 8-14'

Failed to Return.

A Polish young man whose name and residence are unknown yesterday hired a horse and carriage from Liveryman Owen Brennan to drive to Ringtown and back and neither the young man nor horse and carriage have been seen here since. Mr. Brennan has instituted a search for them.

A Miner Burned.

Peter Bernice, a resident of Peach alley, was severely burned about the head, face, neck and hands by an explosion of gas in the Ellengowan colliery this morning. He had just entered a chute to begin work, when his lamp ignited the gas. He was taken to the Miners' hospital.

Will Be Sold Cheap.

A Webster piano, only been in use one month, will be sold cheap. Must be disposed of within ten days. This is a bargain.

THE PUBLIC WATER WORKS

Hitch in the Connections For the Furnace Colliery.

THE SUPPLY ORDERED SHUT OFF

Councilmen Claim an Attempt Has Been Made to Use the Water for Washery Purposes at the Breaker—The Progress of Town Connections.

A breeze has been stirred among the Councilmen by a report that the right granted to the operators of the Furnace colliery to use water supplied by the public water works has been abused. Recently the operators applied to Council for permission to connect the colliery with the pipe of the public works laid to Turkey Run and after some discussion the right was granted and the establishment of terms was left in the hands of the water committee, which took the matter up and decided that the operators should pay five dollars per month for each of the three boilers and each boiler of mules. Pending the preparation and signing of the agreement the operators proceeded to make the connection and to that end laid about seven hundred yards of pipe. Yesterday Councilmen Gable and Kane, who are members of the water committee, went over to the colliery to see what had been done. In the survey of the field they accidentally discovered a pipe connecting the tank erected to receive the borough water with one which takes surplus water for use in the washery operated at the mine. The pipe was a short one and covered by a man's coat. The Councilmen concluded that an advantage was being taken of the grant and ordered that the water be shut off until the operators and Council arrive at some conclusion as to the connection discovered yesterday.

The work of making the connections in town is progressing very favorably. Contractors Gallagher and Lamb on Saturday commenced work at the west end of Oak street and this morning had made connections as far as West street. They expect to complete the work on Oak street as far as Main street by this evening and will then begin at the west end of Lloyd street. They expect to finish that street as far as Main and West Coal street this week, but this will depend altogether on the furnishing of the corporation stops, which the manufacturers are slow in delivering. It is said that the supply of stops the manufacturers had on hand had run out before the demand caused by the local contractors and they are now being shipped right from the work shop as fast as they can be turned out, and the supply, of course, cannot keep up with the demand.

Schultz House.

Oyster soup for lunch to-night.
Clams.
Oysters.
Hard and soft shelled crabs.
Deviled crabs.
Fish cakes.

Colored Musicians.

High Point park will be an attractive point this week. Prof. Allen and wife, colored musicians from California, who have been pleasing large audiences at Tumbling Run, will give sacred concerts every afternoon and evening and will be assisted by Prof. Wright, of Mahanoy City. Mr. Allen is known as the one-man band, playing eight different instruments at the one time, and sings in the German and English dialect. Mrs. Allen is also recognized as an artist of much ability, and her singing has been favorably commented upon by musical critics. High Point park is on the line of the Lakeside Electric Railway.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.

Sour kroust to-night. First of the season. Vegetable soup to-morrow morning.

Attended Camp Meeting.

Many residents of town attended the camp meeting at Mountain Grove yesterday, among them being Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dech, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Master, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Shollenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis, the Misses Davis, Misses Mattie Price and Mary Griffiths, Edward Sherman, Robert M. Dengler, Dr. Robbins, Matthew Perkins, Benjamin Daddow and William H. Andrews.

Nobody Hurt.

The report that a stabbing affray between Italians occurred at Lakeside Saturday night proves to have been a mixing up of facts. Some young men of Mahanoy City quarreled, during which a revolver was discharged, but nobody was hit.

New Store! New Goods!

I beg to state that I have opened a first class grocery store at 226 West Centre street, with an entire fresh stock of groceries to be sold at lowest possible prices. Give me a call and be convinced.

Buried at Middleport.

James Goodhead, of West Oak street, today buried an infant child at Middleport.

The only baby medicine—Luk's Syrup.

Paid Us Visits.

Among the people who made pleasant calls at the HERALD sanctorium to-day were William Smal, Joseph Mandour, James Mullahay, Hippolyte Czynzowski.

Sprung Any Leaks Lately?

We can't stop the leaks from the clouds but Bell, the plumber, corner Main and Centre streets, can stop all your leaks in water and gas mains with satisfaction.

THE BUSY STORE

116 and 118 North Main Street.

We are still on the close out of Summer Goods. The remarkable low price moves them. We are selling our 12 1-2c Summer Goods at 9 1-2c. This includes Demities, Percaloes, Lawns, White Goods, &c., &c.

Our seamless 10c hose is equaled by none in the market. Sizes 5 to 7 1/2, now at 10c.

A lot of Laces have just come in. Just what you want, any width. Narrow or wide we let you have at 5c a yard. At this price we could not continue to sell always. We would not like to lose money all the time.

BED SPREADS at a bargain. A small lot, what there is of them you may have at 55c. You must not think you get a $5.00 spread. We mean you get more than your money's worth.

A lot of damaged Baby Robes reduced to about one half of real value. Not much wrong with them, except wrinkled.

MAX SCHMIDT.

PITHY POINTS.

From "Greenland's Ice Mountains" was an appropriate hymn to sing yesterday.

What is the name to-day of that flying aggregation of base ballists formerly of Pottsville?

Our devil rises to remark that if the other one's kingdom is any hotter than this he will turn over a new leaf at once.

Friday, August 23rd, will be the P. & R. R. R. pay-day from Crosson to Tamaqua via Gordon and Mahanoy Place.

Anthony Berlanusky, a Pole, who was injured at one of the P. & R. R. collieries here, died from his injuries at the Miners' hospital.

The Pottsville endets have had a good time in camp at Lakeside. Friday was inspection day and in the evening a ball was given in the pavilion.

Mrs. Christian, of Selwynkill Haven, wife of C. J. Christian, P. & R. R. weighmaster at Crosson, died on Saturday last and will be interred to-morrow.

Prof. Gardner goes back to the Gaboon country shortly to study the monkey language. We hope he will be able to give the monkey's account of that encounter with the parrot when he returns.

Another young woman fell off a swing at Lakeside. This time it was Annie Eckert, of Mahanoy City, who fell from a dizzy height on Friday and sustained injuries that may result fatally. The swings should come down, as they have done too much damage already.

Breen's cafe for your mock turtle soup to-night.

A Business Change.

It is stated that Mr. Harry A. Acker, who has been manager of the Grand Union Tea Company with headquarters in this town for the past twelve years, is about to be transferred to Reading. Mr. Acker's district covers all towns in which his company has stores from Mauch Chunk to Pittsburg and also takes in the Reading district. The change will not alter the district, only make Reading Mr. Acker's headquarters for general management. Should the change take place Mr. Robert M. Dengler will assume the management of the local store, of which he has been bookkeeper and assistant manager for the past three years.

The only baby medicine—Luk's Syrup.

Robbed a Stand.

While Max Levit, the East Centre street dealer in hats and gents' furnishing goods, was busy in his store Saturday evening a bundle of overalls and a number of shirts were stolen from a stand in front of the store.

No need to suffer with neuralgia, lumbago, neuralgia, cramps or colic. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil cures all such troubles, and does it quickly.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK.

In fishing around the market we found a couple barrels of extra fine Norway mackerel cheap. Very fat and white. Not large. Weight about 3-4 of a pound. 14 cents a pound. We have the big ones, too; weigh 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 pounds, for little more money. These are the finest fish caught, and we can not always buy the small ones.
