THE ZEIGLER-ABBOTT FIGHT.

The Philadelphia Pugilist Defeats the Englishman.

IN TWENTY WELL FOUGHT ROUNDS

From the Beginning to the End of the Contest the American Showed His Superiority—Zeigler Will Now be Matched to Fight Young Griffo.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 20.—The international bout between Stanton Abbott, champion lightweight of England, and Owen Zeigler, of Philadelphia, who fought Jack McAuliffe to a draw, occurred last night at the Eureka Athletic club pavilion in the presence of 1,500 spectators. Abbott weighed 132, while Zeigler was 137½. Abbott looked a trifle thin and overtrained, while Zeigler's muscles stood out in bunches, and he looked to be in the best of condition. Jake Kilrain and Frank Farley were in the Englishman's corner, and Turkey Smith and D. L. Bailey assisted Zeigler. George Maatz, of Baltimore, acted as referee.

In the first round Zeigler landed on the face and then on the breast. The Englishman got in a face blow. He was very cool while Zeigler danced around the ring and lunged viciously.

Second Round—Zeigler got in two light face blows and a rib roaster, and the Englishman fell to his knees. As he rose Zeigler gave him a terrific right hand on the left eye, nearly closing that optic.

Third Round—Zeigler forced the fighting, and after getting in a strong face blow Abbott slipped and fell against the ropes.

In the fourth and fifth rounds Zeigler pounded at Abbott's stomach. Abbott responded with light blows, but his reach was short.

The Englishman came to the front in the sixth round and got two strong blows in Zeigler's face. Abbott ducked cleverly and kept Zeigler working hard. The fighting was sharp, but uneventful until the end of the eighth round, when the American was fought to the ropes.

The Englishman seemed to freshen as the fight progressed. He was slow, however, and as the eleventh round opened the American delivered what was nearly a knock out blow before Abbott got his hands up.

Thirteenth Round—Zeigler landed savagely on the nose and on the damaged left eye in quick succession, and followed it up with heavy body blows. The Englishman again looked distressed as he went to his corner.

Fourteenth Round—The American played on Abbott's wind bag and got a stunner on the neck. Abbott was game and cool, but his blows were feeble.

In the fifteenth Zeigler continued playing on Abbott's stomach. The sixteenth was a hot round, and in the American's favor. It closed with the Englishman against the ropes amid a shower of blows.

Abbott aimed some savage blows in the eighteenth, but fell short. Zeigler delivered another stunner on the neck, and the next moment gave the Briton a terrific face blow. The American also had the best of the nineteenth.

The twentieth and last round was a savage one, give and take, the Englishman being stormed with face, neck and body blows until he was against the ropes. As the round ended the referee declared Zeigler the winner. He will be matched against Young Griffo.

SIX MEN KILLED.

An Explosion Occurs at Carnegie's Steel Works This Morning.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 20.—A fearful explosion, carrying in its wake destruction of property and the loss of human lives, occurred at the Carnegie Steel Works, at Braddock, this morning at 5:00 o'clock. The report was heard for many miles around, and caused much consternation.

Six men were killed instantly and three were fatally injured. Many were burned to such an extent that their recovery is extremely doubtful, the latter "unfortunates" numbering fifteen.

All of the killed are Poles and Hungarians. Much valuable property was destroyed, and it is estimated that the company will lose over thirty thousand dollars by the explosion. A. P. A.

An Unusual Operation.
An operation was performed upon Anthony Houser yesterday that has attracted the attention of the medical profession. The patient resides on South White street, and the operation was performed by Dr. M. S. Kistler. Sometime ago a fly lodged in Mr. Houser's ear, the kind of fly or when it lodged there he does not know. On Thursday the ear began to give him considerable trouble from severe pains, and he consulted the doctor. Yesterday the operation was performed successfully, and twenty five worms were taken from his ear. The supposition is that the fly laid the eggs which produced the worms and caused the pains. The patient has been greatly relieved since, and no other trouble is anticipated.

BOARD ELECTS TEACHERS!

An Adjourned Meeting Held Last Evening by the Directors.

MISS WASLEY TEACHER OF MUSIC.

Miss Tittle Kase Appointed to Fill the Vacancy Occasioned by Miss Wasley's Promotion—Evening School Teachers.

The School Board held an adjourned meeting last night, for the election of a music teacher to succeed Miss Jeanette Ramage, resigned, and to fill vacancies and the appointment of night school teachers and general business.

The meeting was called for 7:30, but it was eight o'clock before President Ogden sounded the gavel. The committee on teachers and salaries were in session, and it was not until the latter hour that they were through with their deliberations.

The members present were: Messrs. Conry, Stanton, Hanna, Baugh, Price, Trozise, Hooks, Edwards, Manley, Morgan, Connors, Devitt, Lee, James and President Ogden. Superintendent Whitaker was also in attendance.

The committee on teachers and salaries, composed of J. J. Price, chairman, Devitt, Edwards, Stanton and Baugh, submitted a report as follows:

The committee held a meeting, with Superintendent Whitaker present. The chairman stated the meeting of the committee was called to consider diplomas or proofs of qualifications of the applicants for music teacher up to the last meeting on August 14th. The following certificates were presented and considered by the committee: Miss Mary Wasley, intermediate certificate tonic-sol-fa, reading music at first sight and writing it from ear, and eligible for an advanced choir, issued by Prof. Daniel Batschelor. Miss Maggie Cavanaugh, presented a similar certificate. Miss Anna M. Deugler presented a matriculation certificate signed by Prof. Daniel Batschelor. Miss Gooagan's certificate was similar to that of Miss Deugler's, as was also Miss Jean Glover's. Miss Edith Morgan presented a letter from Prof. Batschelor stating that he examined her, but could not secure blank diploma in time to properly fill out the certificate. The committee recommended Miss Wasley, Cavanaugh, Gooagan and Deugler as the only competent ones to teach music in our schools. Superintendent Whitaker stated that he could not recommend Miss Morgan as a suitable person to teach in our schools on account of lack of experience and not having a proper diploma as the other teachers had.

On motion of Mr. Hanna and seconded by Manley the report of the committee was received, and the Board went into an election of teacher of music.

The result of the vote on the first ballot showed 10 votes for Miss Wasley and 5 for Miss Morgan, Messrs. Conry, Stanton, Hanna, Trozise, Edwards, Manley, Morgan, Connors, Devitt and Lee voting for Miss Wasley, and Ogden, Baugh, Price, Hooks and James for Miss Morgan.

The election of Miss Wasley created a vacancy in the corps of teachers, and on motion of Hanna the Board went into an election to fill the same. On the first and second ballots there was no election, Messrs. Conry, Stanton, Hanna, Manley, Morgan, Connors and Devitt voting for Miss Mary A. Connors, 7 votes; Baugh, Price, Trozise, Lee, Edwards and James for Miss Tittle Kase, 6 votes; Ogden for Miss Cora Sterner, and Hooks for Miss Fannie Grubler.

The result on the second ballot was the same. On the third ballot Ogden and Hooks changed their votes from Misses Grubler and Sterner to Miss Kase, thus giving her a legal majority and the election.

Mr. Hanna moved that the election of evening school teachers be postponed until the regular meeting in September. The motion was amended by Mr. Lee that the Board proceed to elect at once. The motion as amended was carried.

The election of evening school teachers resulted as follows: Katie Brogan received 5 votes; M. Jessie Glover, 10; Bernard J. Durkin, 3; Ida C. Lewis, 11; John McGowan, 4; Katie C. Dougherty, 5; Lydia Eisenhower, 11; Anna B. Bierman, 9; Bridget McGuire, 15; P. F. O'Donnell, 12; Lizzie F. North, 2; Sallie Roche, 5; Maggie Campbell, 11; Anna E. McNelis, 13; Cora Sterner, 9; Mary A. Connors, 7; Sadie Baugh, 14; Annie T. Flaherty, 3; Mary E. Mulhearn, 1. The other applicants were Misses Martha Shields, Marry D. Griffith, Fannie Grubler, Hattie Jones, Louise A. Cather, and Guy C. Keiper.

There were ten teachers to be elected and the successful ones were Misses M. Jessie Glover, Ida C. Lewis, Lydia Eisenhower, Annie B. Bierman, P. F. O'Donnell, Maggie Campbell, Anna E. McNelis, Cora Sterner and Sadie Baugh.

On motion of Mr. Hooks it was decided to allow the salaries to remain as heretofore, with the exception of Turkey Run, which is to be raised to that of the other teachers, namely, $25.00 per month.

On motion of Mr. Hanna the superintendent is to prepare his list of substitute teachers from among the list of fifteen teachers who failed to secure election as teachers. The salaries of these teachers were fixed at $2.00 per day, and to receive the same from the secretary of the Board.

Superintendent Whitaker stated that the Board should take some action regarding the admission of children to the schools who are not vaccinated, and in the absence of instructions he would refuse to admit them. On motion of Mr. Baugh it was decided to admit all children until the end of October without vaccination, as it is expected by that time the weather will be sufficiently cool enough for the children to be vaccinated.

William Cooper asked to be exonerated from taxes, through Director Baugh.

The Board adjourned at 9:00 o'clock, having been in session but one hour.

Lowest Rate of the Season
To Ocean Grove, via Pennsylvania Railroad, Thursday, August 22d. Train leaves Shenandoah at 6:08 a. m. Round trip tickets good for return passage until August 29th, $4.00.

SHOOTS HIS WIFE.

George Chisnell Commits the Act While Under Influence of Drink.

George Chisnell, at one time a well-known sprinter of this county, shot his wife yesterday at their home in Hazleton.

Chisnell, it seems, has harbored ill-feeling toward his step-son, Nicholas Fichter, and on returning home yesterday pulled out a revolver and, with the remark, "Now, Nicholas, you and I for it," fired his gun. Mrs. Chisnell ran in from the kitchen and a second shot struck her in the hip and she fell to the floor. Her injuries are pronounced not fatal by the attending physician.

Chisnell surrendered to the authorities last evening and said the shooting was entirely due to family troubles. He has been on a spree for several days.

Mrs. Chisnell is the mother of six children, and was a steady and thrifty housewife.

"Gold Medal Flour."

To the Housewives of this city:—Our representative will call on you shortly soliciting your order for a trial bag of this flour, which will be delivered by your regular grocer. This flour will produce thirty loaves of bread more per barrel than any other flour on the market, and is therefore the cheapest. You can buy 100 lbs. for $2.50. Give him your order when he calls.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK.

In fishing around the market we found a couple barrels of extra fine Norway mackerel cheap. Very fat and white. Not large. Weight about 3-4 of a pound. 14 cents a pound. We have the big ones, too; weigh 1¼ to 1½ pounds, for little more money. These are the finest fish caught, and we can not always buy the small ones.
