Misses Annie Sheehy, of town; Josephine Gantlin, of Philadelphia; Messrs. J. H. Quinn, of Girardville, and Thomas Sheehy, of town, spent yesterday at Glen Onoko. A Laughable Mistake. Two ladies entered a book-store recently and the younger asked the clerk for a book called "Favorite Prescription." The puzzled attendant was unable to comply with her request and she left the store disappointed. In reply she stated the fact that she had overheard a conversation between two literary ladies in which "Favorite Prescription" was mentioned with extravagant praise, and had jumped to the conclusion that it was a book. She now knows that Dr. King's Favorite Prescription is a sovereign cure for the ill and "weaknesses" peculiar to women, for she has been cured by its use. Send for a free pamphlet, or remit 10 cents in stamps for book (165 pages) on "Women and Her Diseases." Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

It is rumored that Supt. Bertolotto will resign his position under the Reading road, and that Trustmaster M. E. Blaine, of Reading, will succeed him. The trolley cars at Hazleton are carrying the mulls and the plan is giving satisfaction. The camp meeting at Zion Grove, under the auspices of the United Evangelical church, was well attended yesterday. Another Odd Fellow's Home. A meeting of lodges of Odd Fellows will be called to meet at Sunbury on August 27th, to effect a permanent organization for the purpose of establishing a home for the maintenance of the deceased Odd Fellows, indigent Odd Fellows, and the widows of Odd Fellows. The home is to be maintained and conducted on the same plan as the three homes now established in Philadelphia, Allegheny and Meadville. It is claimed that these homes have not sufficient capacity, and that a home in Central Pennsylvania would be greatly beneficial to the order. The Truck Repaired. The truck of the Rescue Hook & Ladder Company, which was damaged in the collision with a Schuykill Traction Company's car, was repaired on Saturday and is again ready for service. The only baby medicine—Luka's Syrup.

The Tobacco War. The present war existing between the big plug tobacco manufacturers is proving very interesting for the consumers, they being the only ones who are profiting by this war. The manufacturers are unquestionably losing a great deal of money, and, as far as we can see, the whole cause of the war is on account of a brand of plug tobacco called "Battle Ax," which appears to be as powerful a weapon as its name implies. The manufacturers of "Battle Ax" claim it to be the largest piece of high grade goods ever sold for the money. And the success of the brand, the enormous quantity which is being sold, clearly demonstrates that the consumers have not been slow in detecting the fact that they have a bargain. This has caused the demand for other heretofore popular brands to be greatly diminished. Hence the present great tobacco war.

Buy Keystone flour. Be sure that the name LASSIE & BAKER, Ashland, Pa., is printed on every sack. Seventeen Buildings Destroyed by Fire. KRISTON, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Yesterday morning a most destructive fire occurred in the village of Kriston, in this county, by which seventeen buildings were burned, and for a time the whole village was threatened with destruction. The fire is situated on the D. Lawrence and Hudson canal, the business portion consisting of a long street bounded on one side by the canal and on the other by the Hudson creek. The fire started in a barn and quickly spread to the houses on the street and then in all directions until about every building along the canal was destroyed. The damage is estimated at $75,000.

Loescher Assails His Innocence. DENVER, Aug. 25.—A special from Antonio, Colo., says that Elmer Loescher, the engineer of the Gunney hotel, who is under arrest there, claims that he was in no way responsible for the explosion. He says that three months ago a boiler inspector declared the boiler unsafe, and instructed Gunney to have it repaired. Loescher himself had to cut out some of the flues. The north boiler had not been inspected. Loescher claims that he is not a drinking man, and says he fled because he feared lynching.

Tunnel Under Prison Walls. DETROIT, Aug. 25.—A wholesale delivery of about all the prisoners confined in one of the wards of the county jail was frustrated last evening by the accidental discovery of the secret scheme through which the prisoners hoped to regain their liberty. Certain suspicious actions led to an investigation, and the discovery of a tunnel three feet long, and large enough to easily contain a man in a stooping posture. The tunnel leads to and under the outer wall of the jail. The tunnel was nearly completed.

Peenleir Break of Promise Suit. WERKSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 25.—A peculiar breach of promise suit has been brought by Miss Cora Fidler against Dr. W. S. Becher, both of this place. She was recently a proponent against Dr. W. S. Becher, on a charge of malpractice, but at the trial swore to the doctor's innocence. She asserts that, in consideration of dropping the case, the doctor promised to marry her, but instead was married to a woman of this city on the 25th of July last. She sues for $3,620 as a claim for her feelings.

Dobs Denounces the Administration. CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—As a large populist picnic here yesterday afternoon a leaflet was read from E. V. Dobs, the president of the American Railway union who is confined in the jail at Washburn, Ill. Dobs says that he is not a member of the old parties is better. "Both are controlled by the money power, and both are equally deluged by its influence." Dobs then refers to the present national administration as "probably the most infamous that ever cursed the country."

A Dog-faced Gambler's Suicide. VIENNA, Aug. 25.—A Hungarian named Theodor Jakobitz, who has been the victim of the highest number of years for many years, committed suicide with a revolver at Buda Pesth. Recent losses had ruined him, and a court of honor, including Count Androssy, had decided that he was disqualified from continuing to be a member of the National Casino, who demanded his expulsion on account of defaults amounting to 30,000 florins.

Shot by a Negro Empress. COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 25.—Charles Loyd, a noted negro desperado, met two white boys, W. E. Welsh and John H. Hays, both about 12 years old, near Hades' gold mine, Laurens county, and with the declaration that it was time for negroes to begin to kill white men, he opened fire upon the boys, who were unarmed. When Welsh begged the negro not to shoot the brute placed his pistol to Welsh's head and shot him dead. Loyd then fired at Hays, but succeeded only in hitting him once, breaking his right arm. The murderer then took to the mountains, but a company of white men are after him.

The New Jersey Forest Fires. CAPE MAY, Aug. 25.—The forest fires have broken out again near this place. Gangs of men from the West Jersey and South Jersey railroads have been fighting the fires all day in the neighborhood of Goshen. Fifty acres of land have been burned away. The fires have been sweeping towards East Vineland. The farmers at New Italy are alarmed and fear their entire crop will be lost. A fire brigade has been organized to fight the flames. Some of the finest timber land and cranberry bogs in the state have been destroyed.

An Alibi for Durant. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The attorneys for Durant have two witnesses, Marins Burnett and Edward McPherson, by whom they expect to prove that their client was on Market street at the moment when the prosecution insists that the Finnish murderer was mutilating the body of Minnie Lamont in the library of Emanuel church. Durant himself will trace his movements at that night when he claims to have taken the records and the money of the Christian Endeavor society down town.

That Objectable Inscription. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—General Graham has replied in rather tart terms to the resolutions recently adopted at a mass meeting, calling on him to remove the inscription "murdered by strikers" from the monument erected over the grave of the soldiers killed during the strike troubles. He thinks the soldiers were killed by strikers, and declares that the inscription shall stand. The members of the American Railway union say they will appeal to the secretary of war.

Ferocious Wild Beasts. One of the most ferocious beasts that ever lived in captivity, is "Queen Bee," owned by Mr. Leon Washburn, and she has always had the worst of dispositions, she once got her dander up and acted most savagely, but strange to say she has never since then shown the least temper or made a move that would harm a fly. To say that all the animals of the cat tribe are harmless in the veriest rot. Mr. Leon W. Washburn owns a magnificent pair of Asiatic Lions that no stranger would dare go into their den, and even if he did the chances are that he would lose his life. Among the harmless pets of the menagerie connected with Mr. Leon W. Washburn's Great Allied Shows, is "Ding Dong," the dwarf elephant, and he is so gentle that a small boy can lead him around the ring, but there are a great many wild beasts in the menagerie department that are particularly ferocious and it would be worth a man's life to attempt to enter their cages. In connection with the menagerie Mr. Washburn has a Monster Three Ring Circus, a Mammoth Museum and Roman Hippodrome Races which are particularly thrilling. This show will appear here Thursday, Aug. 29.
