A Missing School Teacher Found. FITCHBURG, Mass., Aug. 27.—Miss Lucretia Clark, the school teacher who mysteriously disappeared from the streets of Plainfield, N. J., on Friday, Aug. 9, has been found here, working as a housemaid in the house of ex-Mayor Charles S. Hay-den, under the name of Mary Burke. Her mind seems to be unbalanced, and she says her only remembrance is of going on a Fall River boat from New York to Bos-ton, where Mr. Hayden found her on Aug. 10 in an employment bureau. She started with relatives for her home in Syracuse in company with a detective.

Campos Threatens to Resign. HAVANA, Aug. 27 .- According to official advices an engagement between the Spanish troops and the insurgents, lasting an hour and a half, has been fought at Niguero, near Manzanillo, province of Santingo de Cuba. The insurgents are said to have lost fifty killed and wounded, and their leader, Reiter, is said to be seriously

A column of 300 Spanish troops, com-manded by Lieutenant Colonel Ternel, it is announced, recently attacked the in-surgent chiefs Stello and Angel, who have a following of about 150 men, near Doloritas, in the Remedios district, in the province of Tanta Clara. The so called "American company" of the column charged with the boyonet and captured three insurgent positions. The insurgents lost three killed and the troops captured twelve saddled horses and one prisoner, the father of Angel.

During the attack on the fort at Nigoera the Insurgent Houtenant, Magin Perez, was killed. The troops lost two men killed and three wounded.

According to the details received from official sources regarding the fight at Niguera Relter, the insurgent leader, was wounded in both arms. It is stated that the insurgent leader, Alonzo Rivero, with 700 men, has arrived in the neighborhood

A column commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Valle, numbering about 180 men, has had a skirmish with the insurgent band commanded by Nunez, and number ing, according to official advices, 370 men. The insurgents are said to have been compelied to abandon the positions which they occupied on Mount Caussito, leaving seven wounded on the field. The official reports say that only two soldiers were wounded during the engagement.

The Harnessing of Ningara. NIAGARA FALLS, Aug. 27.—At 7 o'clock yesterday morning the Niagara Falls Power company first turned on the electric power generated by their dynamos and turbines from the torrent of Niagara river, for commercial purposes. The current was transmitted to the works of the Pittsburg Reduction company, which a few moments later opened for business with a score of men. This morning forty men went to work. The official beginning of the commercial enterprise which has been led up to by a series of experimental stages occupying over three years was witnessed by the chief officials of the power company and affiliated concerns with great satisfaction. The amount of power supplied is not stated, but is presumed to be near 2,000 horse power. Everything went without a hitch.

Prince Colonua Settles for Cash. NAPLES, Aug. 27 -The matrimonial difficulties of Prince Colonna and his wife have finally been settled. The settlement gives the princess the custody of the children, she paying the prince the sum of 60,000 francs yearly. The Princess Colon-na is the daughter of Mrs. John W. Mackay by her former husband. Dr. Bryant. She was betrothed to Prince Colonna thir teen years ago, when she was 22 years old. This was at the outset of Mrs. Mackay's social career in Paris, and it was regarded at the time as a good match. The prince comes of an old Italian family. He is the son of Don Andrea Colonna and the nephew of Prince Marco Antonio, the chief of the Neapolitan branch of the house.
