QUADRUPLE LYNCHING

Prisoners Taken from a California Jail by an Armed Mob.

ONE A BOY OF NINETEEN YEARS.

His Last Words Were: "Tell My Old Mother I Am Innocent of the Crime." The Lynchers Gained Access to the Jail by Subterfuges.

YREKA, Cal., Aug. 27.—Four murderers were taken from the county jail by a mob of 250 men at 1 o'clock in the morning and lynched. A band of citizens, fearing that the law would not be carried out, and angered over the atrocity of recent crimes, determined to take matters into their own hands. The lynching was the ghastly climax to the reign of lawlessness which has prevailed in Siskiyou county for some months past. One of the victims was Lawrence Johnson, who on the evening of July 28, stabbed his wife to death in the town of Etna. Another was William Null, who shot Henry Hoytar in the back with a rifle near Callahan's on April 21. Louis Morne and Garland Seemler, who are supposed to have killed George Sears and Casper Miererhans, at Bailey Hill on Aug. 8, were also hanged.

At 11 o'clock farmers from all over the surrounding country began to drive into town, and by midnight the mob was ready to march to the county jail. Before proceeding, however, every precaution was taken to prevent the plans of the lynchers from being frustrated by the officers of the law. The sheriff and one of his deputies were decoyed to another part of the town by two members of the mob, who were engaged in a sham fight, and the fire bell was muffled to prevent an alarm being given in that way. When the jail was reached a number of the men, all of whom were masked, awakened Under Sheriff Radford, and demanded the keys from him. He positively refused to open the door or to give up the keys, telling them that if they broke in the door he would blow their brains out. Finding that Radford was determined not to give them the keys they got on top of a stone wall which surrounds the jail.

Deputy Sheriff Henry Brahtlacht, who has been sleeping in the jail since the commitment of so many murderers, thinking some one was escaping from the jail, fired two shots out of the window to alarm City Marshal Parks and Deputy Sheriff Radford. He then opened the doors, and was immediately held up by the mob, who took the keys from him and entered the jail. Having no keys to the different cells, they were compelled to burst the locks with a sledge hammer.

Lawrence H. Johnson was the first to receive the attention of the mob. They broke the lock from the door of his cell, and placing a rope around his neck, led him out of the jail and across the street to where an iron rail was laid between the forks of two locust trees. Johnson pleaded for mercy, but the silent gathering gave no heed to his appeals, and he was quickly strung up, dying from strangulation in a few minutes.

The mob returned to the jail and then broke into the cell of William Null. Null desired to make a statement, but time was too valuable to permit any such preliminaries, and he was soon hanging alongside of Johnson. Louis Morene was soon swinging with Johnson and Null.

The last and youngest of the four murderers to pay the penalty of his crime was Garland Seemler, aged about 19. A rope was placed around Seemler's neck, and he was led from the jail in his bare feet. Seemler begged for mercy, and his last words were: "Tell my dear old mother I am innocent of the crime."

About this time Sheriff Hobbs, having been notified, arrived on the scene, and starting for the jail door, was commanded to halt, the command being emphasized by the display of several revolvers. He was told that the "job had been done." By this time the greater part of the mob had dispersed, leaving only thirty or forty men on guard, who left soon after the sheriff arrived.

Yreka is a little mining town, and years ago was frequently the scene of mob violence. The summary manner in which justice was meted out to the four murderers reminded the pioneers of similar scenes during the gold excitement forty years ago, when it was not an uncommon spectacle to awaken in the morning and see the body of a notorious criminal dangling from a tree.

A Negro Hanged by Twelve Masked Men.

SPRINGFIELD, Ky., Aug. 27.—A dozen masked men took Harrison Lewis, a negro who was charged with the murder of Joseph Brooks, also colored, from the jail here and hanged him to a tree in the court house yard. The men, after three hours' work, succeeded in battering down the jail door with sledge hammers. The mob did its work in a systematic manner and seemed to be thoroughly organized. It is the opinion of many persons that it was composed of colored men.

Heavy Sentence for Dueling.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 27.—The sensational trial of Colonel Francisco Romero, who killed Colonel Verastegui in a duel on Aug. 9 of last year, was concluded, after an all night session. Romero was convicted on every count. The seconds were acquitted. The judge sentenced Romero to three years and four months' imprisonment, with a fine of $1,800, or 100 days' additional imprisonment if preferred. Romero must also pay $4,500 annually to the widow of Verastegui, in monthly instalments, for eighteen years, and the costs of the funeral of Verastegui, amounting to $465. The costs of the trial he is also liable for.

Opposition to the Bell Telephone.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27.—Colonel William P. Fogg, of New York, is in the city as the representative of a wealthy New York syndicate organizing a new telephone company to compete with the Bell company. The new organization will be known as the Subscribers' Automatic Telephone company, of Cleveland, and will be capitalized at $1,000,000, to be divided into shares of $50. Many local capitalists will also be interested in the company. The rates, as compared with those now charged by the Bell company, will be very low.

To Strengthen the British Navy.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The navy estimates, which were prepared by the late Liberal government and adopted by the present ministry, has just been issued. The number of men provided for is 88,850, which is an increase of 5,450 over the estimate of last year. It is also proposed to lay out £5,586,642 on the construction of ships and £730,000 on armaments.

From LaGrippe.

How Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored One of Kentucky's Business Men to Health.

NO DISEASE has ever presented so many peculiarities as LaGrippe. No disease leaves its victims so debilitated, useless, sleepless, nerveless, as LaGrippe.

Mr. D. W. Hilton, state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Kentucky, says: "In 1889 and '90 I had two severe attacks of LaGrippe, the last one attacking my nervous system with such severity that my life was despaired of. I had not slept for more than two months except by the use of narcotics that stupefied me, but gave me no rest. I was only conscious of intense mental weakness, agonizing bodily pain and the fact that I was hourly growing weaker.

When in this condition, I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In two days I began to improve and in one month's time I was cured, much to the surprise of all who knew of my condition. I have been in excellent health since and have recommended your remedies to many of my friends."

INVASION OF BOSTON

By Knights Templar from All Sections of the Country.

DISPLAY OF LAVISH HOSPITALITY.

The City Magnificently Decorated and Brilliantly Illuminated at Night by Masonic Emblems in Electric Fire—The Grand Parade of Knights This Forenoon.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—Boston has surrendered to an invading army, and is in the hands of 25,000 Sir Knights Templar. These, with the ladies accompanying them, and the immense throng of visitors attracted by the conclave and low railroad rates, have swelled the city's population to such an extent as to cause one to wonder if all the inhabitants of greater Boston have been forced inside the city's limits.

Commanderies have come from north, south, east and west. By hundreds and fifties they have come in coach, parlor cars, sleeper and special until there is assembled here an army the like of which in splendor and good fellowship has never been seen before in Boston.

The entire city has donned a holiday dress and on every hand flags, banners and gaily colored streamers greet the eye. Immense numbers of incandescent lights have been arranged to represent every known Masonic emblem, and these were resplendant last night. The Masonic Temple decorations are, of course, the most elaborate, the principal feature being a huge outline cross of colored lights, covering almost the entire front of the building. The Albion building is not far behind, and all along Newspaper Row the occupants extended a welcome to the Sir Knights in a blaze of light.

The principal reception yesterday was at the headquarters of Boston commandery in Horticultural hall. Two tables were stretched from one end of the long hall to the other, loaded with eatables, while attendants dispensed punch from enormous bowls. A general invitation was extended to visiting Sir Knights to make themselves at home, and there was no formality.

There was a glorious sight this morning when the thousands of knights paraded. Many grand stands had been erected, and yesterday the building inspectors closely examined every structure, and condemned many as unsafe. All these were placarded with an official notice, and no one was allowed to occupy them. The different hotels hotels where the large commanderies are making their headquarters have been jammed to the doors. Each commandery is keeping open house, and a constant stream of humanity in black and gold regalia has been pouring in and out.

Looks Cheering for Rochester Strikers.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 27.—An enthusiastic meeting of the striking garment makers was held last night. All the remaining shops have been closed, and now, counting the church women who have promised their hearty support, the ranks of the strikers have been swollen to over 2,000. Several shops whose employes did not belong to the union yesterday joined the strike. The leaders say that they have enough funds to last them for an indefinite period, and that they intend to carry on the war until the employers are forced to yield. They think, however, that the strike under these circumstances cannot last over a week.

Poisoned at a Church Festival.

LAPORTE, Ind., Aug. 27.—Three hundred out of a thousand people were poisoned at a German Luthern mission festival in a grove at Tracy, this county. A picnic dinner was served, and it is thought some miscreant poisoned the potatoes or drinking water. The victims were attacked with frightful pains, purging and vomiting, and rolled and tumbled on the ground in agony until medical aid was secured. As yet none have died, but many are still very ill.

Evangelists in a Saloon Row.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Sunday night a crowd of prohibition evangelists entered the saloon of Billy McClatchen, ex-prize fighter. They went to pray with the retired pugilist, but a fight followed their arrival, and two men were thrown out of the saloon. The other prohibitionists escaped, and after they had all got out one of their number, a butcher named Crandrall, engaged the saloonist in a fight and received several bad cuts and contusions on the head.
