MEET DEATH IN STORMS.

Four Persons in St. Clair River, Michigan.

TWO CHILDREN LOST IN ILLINOIS.

A Cyclone Passed Over Syracuse, N. Y., Doing Great Damage to Property and Injury to Persons—Boats Upset on Onondaga Lake and Loss of Life Feared.

PORT HURON, Mich., Aug. 29.—An accident occurred on the St. Clair river, near Marysville, during a squall and rain storm, in which four persons lost their lives. A picnic was being held at Mrs. Island, opposite Marysville, and Mrs. Michael Derrig, Frank Derrig, her brother in law, and three young ladies—Miss Cella Chonick, Minnie Schenhart and Edith Commler—rowed over early in the day.

When the storm was seen coming up they started back for home, but when within 400 feet of the shore the squall struck the little craft and capsize it. Miss Schenhart, a girl of 15, clambered upon the boat, but the other three all got hold of Frank Derrig. For a while he held on to the upturned boat with one hand and made a heroic battle for life, but when one of the women, in her desperation, got hold of his free hand the handicap proved too much, and he had to let go, and all four sank to the bottom. The Schenhart girl clung to the boat and was rescued later by some boys. Mrs. Derrig leaves a husband and two small children. The two young ladies were each about 20 years of age.

CYCLONE STRIKES SYRACUSE.

Boats Capsized on Onondaga Lake and Loss of Life Feared.

SYRACUSE, Aug. 29.—A cyclone of hail, wind and rain struck this city last evening. It lasted not more than a half hour, but in that time hundreds of dollars worth of property was destroyed and several persons injured. The storm caused the greatest damage in the center of the city. Trolley cars were blocked and telephone, telegraph, police and fire alarms were blown down. Among the injured were John O'Hara, an engineer for the Consolidated Street Railway company, who was caught beneath a falling chimney. He may die.

At the annual fair of the state agricultural society, at Lakeside, thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed. Several persons were injured by falling tents and buildings. Victoria, a trained lioness, in a frenzy, bit her trainer, Professor DeKauy, in the back. He will recover.

Several upturned boats have been found on Onondaga lake, and pleasure parties may have been drowned.

Two Children Drowned in Illinois.

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 29.—A cloud-burst, accompanied by a tornado, swept the vicinity of Bloomington last evening, filling the dry water courses in a few minutes, sweeping away trees and the tents at the wild west show at the Fair grounds, where 5,000 people were fairly stricken and drenched, but escaped injury and death. A ravine near Miller park filled and overflowed Morris avenue. Mrs. Riddle and Mrs. Roberts, of Heyworth, were driving home with their daughters, aged 2 and 7, respectively, when their buggy was swept from the bridge by the flood. The children were drowned and the women were rescued with great difficulty. Streams in the country have filled the valleys so as to almost submerge houses.

Eight Drowned in a Watersport.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 29.—A special from Zacatecas, Mexico, says that the village of Huatzingo was visited by a watersport on Monday, causing great loss of life and property. Many of the houses were washed away and eight persons met death by drowning. The flood also destroyed all the crops in the little valley. The storm came up very suddenly, and the watersport burst directly over the town.

Arab Village Destroyed by Cloudburst.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Algeria, Aug. 29.—There was a cloudburst yesterday evening in the district of Sidl Aich, which caused enormous damage. An Arab village was destroyed. Fourteen persons who were killed and sixteen others severely injured have been removed from the ruins.

Knocked Out in the First Round.

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—Dick O'Brien, of Lewiston, champion middleweight of New England, was knocked out in the first round of what was to be a twenty-five round bout, by Joe Wolcott, colored, of Boston, last evening. More than 3,000 spectators were present. The fight was hot while it lasted, but O'Brien was completely knocked out in the first round, and Walcott got the decision.

Hurled to Death on a Mill Race.

TIFFIN, O., Aug. 29.—Elmer J. Schlifak and Jacob Atweid, both aged about 10 years, were caught by a belt in a flour mill at New Riegel and hurled against the ceiling. Young Schlifak's arm was torn from the socket and his brains dashed out, producing instant death. Atweid's arm was broken in several places, and he received injuries which will probably prove fatal.

Killed in a Duel Over Politics.

AJACCIO, Corsica, Aug. 29.—A duel with pistols was fought near here today between Senator Benedetti, a journalist, and Dr. Alessandrini. The latter was killed. The quarrel which brought about the encounter grew out of a political discussion.

Mrs. Laura C. Phoenix, Milwaukee, Wis.

"Nervine of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, overcomes my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1893, The inmates had the 'LaGrippe', and I was one of the first. Becoming dizzy too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not remain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue its occasional use, as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me." June 6, 1894. MISS LAURA C. PHOENIX.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it in 50c. bottles for 25c., or it will be sent prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

ANOTHER BIG STRIKE

Threatened by the Cloth Weavers of Philadelphia.

THIRTY-FIVE THOUSAND WORKERS

Will be Thrown Into the Ranks of the Unemployed Should the Six Thousand Weavers Go Out—One Firm Yields to the Demands of the Strikers.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—The cloth weavers of J. A. Bachman & Co. did not go out yesterday, as was expected. The firm granted the advance asked, and the schedule will go into effect at once. An effort will now be made to get the other manufacturers to do the same.

The weavers' committee of Bachman's employs not the firm yesterday morning. The firm agreed to grant them the increase on the worsted goods, but not on cotton goods. The present schedule the firm is paying is one and a half mills a pick on one loom job, on worsted goods, and on two looms eight one one hundredths mills; on cotton goods, two looms, they pay seventy-five one hundredths mills.

The weavers refused to accept this offer, and gave the manufacturers until today to decide, threatening to strike unless their demands were accepted. The firm tried to get them to wait until tomorrow, but the weavers were obdurate and refused to concede anything. Later in the day the committee again waited on the firm.

The firm finally yielded and granted the advance. This will amount to nine-tenths of a mill a pick, bringing the price on two loom work up to three-quarter mills, and to one and three-quarter on the loom jobs. This is on both cotton and worsted goods.

Members of the weavers' committee said that if their demand for a uniform wage rate was not accepted they would order a general strike. This means that 6,000 weavers alone may go out. In addition to these are the twistlers and spoolers and winders. They would swell the number to 35,000 men and women.

The uniform price demanded by the weavers is two mills per pick on all goods. This, the manufacturers say, is preposterous. The present condition of trade will not admit of the advance. They declare that some of the manufacturers have had their looms idle for over two years.

Death of Ex-Police Justice Duffy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—A dispatch from Toms River, N. J., announces the death of ex-Police Justice Patrick G. Duffy, of this city. Ex-Judge Duffy was born in Ireland nearly sixty years ago, and came to this country early in the sixties. He became a teacher in the public schools of New York and soon afterward went into politics. In 1875 Mayor Wickham appointed the schoolmaster police justice, and he was reappointed in 1883. The full term, which expired in 1903, the little judge, as he was called, was a unique figure on the bench. It was his greatest delight to joke at the expense of the drunks and disorderlies who were taken before him, and many a man went free for having made a timely jest. The judge married Miss Mammie Cullen, of Brooklyn, in May, 1894.

Candidate Lowndes' Acceptance.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 29.—Lloyd Lowndes, the Republican candidate for governor of Maryland, has made public his letter of acceptance of the nomination. In it he says: "I am in favor of such a system of finance as will give to the people of our country a sound national currency, redeemable at the pleasure of the holder in that coin which is the standard of value of the great commercial nations of the world." Fair elections are proclaimed to be "the bulwark of a free people." He would cheerfully sanction a law providing for free books in the public schools, which should be removed entirely from political influence. Appointments by merit and service during good behavior in city departments are favored. He also pledges himself in favor of civil service reform.

To Meet Next in Pittsburg.

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—An Associated Press representative has learned from an authoritative source that a canvass of the grand encampment shows that the next triennial convocation of the Knights Templar in 1898, will be held in Pittsburg. The matter is now in the hands of the committee on time and place, and the vote of the encampment will be taken this afternoon.

Another Pittsburgh Murder.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 29.—James Getty, an ex-councilman and a wealthy wholesale liquor dealer, was shot and killed by Alexander Hutchinson, formerly proprietor of the Merchants' hotel, in this city. Getty was the owner of the Hotel Willet, and the murder was the result of a dispute over the leasing of the hotel to Hutchinson. Hutchinson surrendered to the police.

Ambitions to Become a Desperado.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Aug. 29.—George Hackathorn, aged 29, ran amuck with two revolvers. He fled at five different persons, none of whom were hit, and then attempted to swim the Ohio river. Officers pursued him in a skiff and finally captured him. Hackathorn was not intoxicated, and his escapade is attributed to his desire to figure as a desperado.

Escaped Prisoners Recaptured.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Aug. 29.—William Frazier, colored, charged with murder, and William Loring, accused of larceny, two of the six prisoners who escaped from jail here on Monday night, were captured yesterday at Magnolia, W. Va., and returned to prison. Three of the escaped prisoners are still at large.

Strikers Accept a Compromise.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 29.—The strike at the H. P. Nail works, which has been in progress ten weeks, has been settled, the wire drawers accepting the advance of 10 and 15 per cent. in wages, and the nail makers an advance of 5 per cent. Five hundred men will resume work next week.

Princess Maud to Wed.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—The Cologne Lokal Anzeiger's Copenhagen dispatch says that the betrothal of Prince Christian of Denmark and Princess Maud of Wales, daughter of the Prince of Wales, will be proclaimed on Sept. 7.
