HYPNOTISM AND CRIME!

The Subject Discussed by the Medical-Legal Congress.

WIDE DIVERGENCE OF OPINION!

A Baltimore Physician Tells of Having Caused a Bank Cashier to Steal $45,000 While Hypnotized—Deadly Bacteria as an Instrument of Murder.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—At the medical legal congress Dr. Gilber said that bacteriology should be very carefully considered from a criminal point of view, for bacteria could be used more easily and with more certain deadly results by murderers than arsenic, antimony or any other poison. "Bacteria could be turned," said he, "to more deadly account than dynamite. Any plague or disease could be introduced by the mere throwing in water or milk of cultivated bacilli. Bacteriologists should keep their cultivations as carefully locked up and under watch as their persons."

The afternoon session was opened with the reading of a paper by Clark Bell on hypnotism in the courts of law. Mr. Bell sent a letter to several prominent physicians, asking:

"Can crime be committed by the hypnotizer, the subject being the unconscious and innocent agent and instrument? If the subject is unconscious, and even unwilling, has the hypnotizer such power and domination over the hypnotized as could control action to the extent of the commission of a crime? Is it possible to remove by hypnotic suggestion from the mind of the subject all memory of acts or occurrences which happen in the hypnotic state? Would it be possible for a hypnotizer to so control a hypnotized subject as to, for example, make him sign a will in the presence of a third person, declare to be his will, and to request them to sign as attesting witnesses, and be afterward wholly unconscious of the occurrence? Or a note of hand or a check?"

Replies in the affirmative were received from several eminent professors, while others, conceding that persons in a hypnotic state are constantly amenable to control by suggestion, denied that hypnotism has any place in criminal jurisprudence as a defense for crime. Mr. Bell pointed out that it appeared that the majority of medical men in this country did not recognize hypnotic trance as an existing fact. The lawyers and judges were on the same ground as the doctors. In the countries of Europe the contrary was the fact, and men of the highest character and professional attainments devoted their best efforts to its study and elucidation. As it was with the professional men, so it was with the people.

Professor Carl Saxtus, of Chicago, wrote to say that a natural criminal could be made to do criminal acts under hypnotic influence, but not a person of real moral worth.

Dr. William Lee Howard, of Baltimore, said that hypnotism was a reality. He gave several instances of hypnotized persons in Baltimore, including his own servant, whom he sent to a neighboring physician's to steal everything the doctor had. He restored the fellow while he had the articles still in his possession. The doctor confessed it affected the man's brain somewhat, but he always took care, except on this occasion, to get the subject back into a good mental state before he completely restored him. The doctor also hypnotized a bank cashier and made him steal $45,000. He performed an operation in the Johns Hopkins university with the patient under hypnotic influence. Hypnotism was invaluable as a corrector of morals.

Dr. Grover, of Massachusetts, told of a young lady in Boston who had a tendency to tuberculosis being cured by hypnotic influence.

Not Necessary to Go to Halifax.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Justin McCarthy, the government contractor who built the naval dry dock at Port Royal, S. C., has written Messrs. Cramps' Sons, of Philadelphia, calling their attention to the published statement that they were about to take the United States government vessel Indiana to Halifax to dock it, as there is no dock in the United States large enough to dock it. Mr. McCarthy adds: "I wish to inform you that the United States government dry dock at Port Royal, S. C., just completed by me, is sufficiently large to take the Indiana, and that I am willing to stand all expenses of taking the Indiana there and making the test if it should turn out that the dock is not capable of taking it."

Sentenced and Lectured.

POTTSVILLE, Sept. 7.—Labor Day was almost generally observed here to-day and court adjourned at 11 a. m. until Monday morning. Before adjourning court Judge Savidge sentenced Lizio Bohrer, convicted of keeping a lawdy house at this place, to pay $50 fine, costs, and serve four months imprisonment. The woman is but 23 years of age, and before dismissing her, Judge Savidge administered a fatherly lecture as to a course for her to pursue in the future.

VALKYRIE AND DEFENDER

Races Between the American and English Yachts Begun.

The Challenger For the America's Cup Crossed the Line First—Leads by a Quarter of a Mile at End of First Hour.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD.
NEW YORK, Sept. 7, 12 a. m.—No event in all our sporting history ever awakened such widespread interest as the five races arranged between the Defender and the Valkyrie.

Both yachts lay calmly in the Horseshoe near Sandy Hook all night chafing under the restraint of their cables, each bearing with her the honor and the hope of a continent. One is the proud challenger for the most coveted trophy that ever was sailed for, and the other has worthily won her way to the proud place of defending the cup that for forty-four years has been the attesting proof of the yachting supremacy of both the old and new worlds. For a year the race has eclipsed in interest every other sport. For five months the best designers, the most expert sailmakers, the ablest seamen, have been drafted into service on either side until last night all parties to the contest rested satisfied that they had exhausted every resource that wealth and ingenuity could suggest and that both boats were as perfect as human hands could make them. It has been agreed that the British boat will allow the American yacht twenty-nine seconds start.

START OF THE RACE.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD.
HIGHLANDS, 1:21 p. m.—The Valkyrie crossed the line at 12:50 for the first race, fifteen miles to windward.

The Defender crossed the line about five seconds later.

THE VALKYRIE LEADS.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD.

HIGHLANDS, 1:30 p. m.—Both yachts are standing northeast on the starboard tack.

The Valkyrie is increasing her lead.

The course will be east by south.

The yachts will sail fifteen miles to windward and return.

VALKYRIE WELL AHEAD.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD.

HIGHLANDS, 2:10 p. m.—At 12:50 the Valkyrie was well to windward and well ahead.

END OF FIRST HOUR.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD.

HIGHLANDS, 2:35 p. m.—After an hour's race the English yacht leads the Defender by a quarter of a mile.

AROUSED INDIGNATION.

A Child Run Over Through Carelessness of Its Guardian.

At noon to-day a four-year-old child named Eehorn was run over by a buggy on North Main street under circumstances that aroused the indignation of the people who witnessed the accident. The child was riding in the carriage with a man named Joseph Hoffman residing on South Bowers street. Hoffman was intoxicated and the horse was on a slow trot with loose lines, practically taking its own course. The carriage bounced over one of the hillocks left by the work on the water works and the child's hat fell off. The child reached out for it just as the carriage bounced over another mound and was thrown beneath the carriage, one of the rear wheels passing over its stomach. Hoffman did not realize what was going on until after the child was run over, and then he pulled up the horse, M. F. Maley, the jeweler, and others hastened to the child's assistance and upbided the man for his carelessness. The child was unable to stand but is not thought to be dangerously injured. It was placed in the carriage and Hoffman drove home. The child has been in care of the man's family. Hoffman said that he couldn't look after the child and take care of the horse; which was quite true, as he appeared quite unable to take care of either.

The only baby medicine—Luka's Syrup.

Obituary.

After several weeks illness Dora, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Stout, died at her parents' home on South White street this morning. She had but recently been brought home from Pottsville after a long illness and much suffering and was apparently recovering, but had a relapse which resulted fatally.

Caught in a Chute.

William Jones, of St. Nicholas, had a narrow escape from being killed in the Bear Run mine. He started some coal that was stopped near the battery and lost his balance, falling into the chute with a large quantity of coal following him. When he struck the battery he managed to drag himself to one side and escaped being buried by the coal, although he was badly cut and bruised.

Made Their Returns.

Ward Assessors Patrick Devers, George H. Krick, Benjamin F. Parrott and William Patterson yesterday made their returns to the County Commissioners at Pottsville for the fall election.

Teething children should be treated with Luka's soothing syrup.

Horse Race.

Charles Curran has matched his mare Belle C. against Thomas Dixon's mare, Fly, for a purse of $30. The race will occur in Haupt's lane at Pottsville Sept. 14th. As it has caused considerable feeling and many bets are made it will be interesting.

Accident to a Shaft.

A shaft in the breaker of the West Shenandoah colliery broke yesterday and the shaft was thrown into in consequence of the mishap. It remained idle to-day. Operations will be resumed on Monday morning.

TURKEY RUN FIRE BRIGADE

A Promising Volunteer Force Has Been Organized.

FULL LIST OF ITS MEMBERS!

The Company Has Elected Officers and Will Apply for a Charter and Become Fully Uniformed For Active Service.

Shenandoah can now boast of four volunteer fire companies. The fourth was organized at Turkey Run a few days ago and is on a fair way to become very valuable to the residents of that distant, but somewhat important section of the borough. A few years ago the site of this rapidly extending section was hardly considered in connection with the borough affairs and was a barren, desolate line at the Gilberton borough limits. Since then many families have located there, leased ground, erected homes and prospered generally. It is now an important factor in Fourth ward politics, has a representative in the Borough Council, who is Patrick Kerns, and who, by the way, is the first Councilman that section has had. There are also two schools in the place and a line of the public water works has been extended there. Recently a branch of the United Mine Workers was organized and now the people come forward with a full fledged volunteer fire company.

The organization is composed of the following residents, and includes many property owners: Peter Monaghan, president; James Birmingham, vice president; David Howells, recording secretary; Joseph Campbell, financial secretary; Bryan Monaghan, treasurer; James Purcell, Messenger; Benjamin Jenkins, foreman; Michael Campbell, assistant foreman; William Minto, Harry Howells, Joseph Krapp, William Davis, John Matthews and Patrick Quinn, directors; John O'Neill, John Reese and Thomas Britton, trustees; James Burns, janitor; and the following additional members: Patrick McDevitt, John Purcell, John Monaghan, Patrick Birmingham, Michael Redmond, Daniel Campbell, Daniel Mundy, William Quinten, Peter Birmingham, Joseph Mathias, Thomas Davis, George Thomas, Harry Reese, James Toomey, John Krapp, Fred Gauderson, Patrick Holden, James Hasley, George Davis, William D. Jenkins, William B. Thomas, Thomas Campbell, James Thomas, Stephen McKean and James Breslin.

The company has secured a building in which to hold its meetings and will proceed at once to apply for a charter. This will be acted upon at a meeting to be held next Wednesday night. A uniform will be adopted, but no definite step in that direction has been taken, nor has a name been decided upon. The latter will also be acted upon next Wednesday evening.

The list of membership reveals the names of many who will be remembered as old time neighbors in this part of the town and as a whole the company may be relied on to at all times make earnest warfare on the common enemy.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.

Sour kroust and Weiner sausage to-night. Hot lunch on Monday morning. Little neck clams. Meals served at all hours.

Rev. Williams' Closing Meetings.

To-morrow will be Evangelist Williams' last Sunday in Shenandoah for the present and he will supply the pulpit of the English Baptist church at 10:30 a. m. and 6:30 p. m. In the morning his subject will be "Lions," and in the evening, "The Face Illuminated." The choir will render some choice music under the able leadership of Mr. Waters, and, in addition to this, the evangelist and wife will sing. A farewell tent meeting will be held on Monday night and will be a praise and testimony meeting. On this occasion the farewell hymn will be sung and will be printed on paper, along with Rev. Williams' picture, and will be sold at the tent as a reminder of the meeting, at 5 cents each. It is hoped that all will come prepared to give the evangelist a good "Thank offering."

Watson House Free Lunch.

Nice sour kroust with imported Weiner sausage to-night.

The Telegraphers' Contest.

The second annual assembly of the telegraph operators will be held in Robbins' opera house, in town, on Friday evening, October 25th. The contests for the various prizes offered will be spirited ones, and the assembly will be well attended. These annual gatherings of the knights of the key are becoming quite popular, and they entertain their friends in royal style. The committee in charge of the affair is composed of Messrs. F. W. McDermott, Joseph A. Conaghan, George Drew, Tim Mahoney, A. J. Farrell and M. J. Sullivan.

Beeswing Known.

Jack: "Hello, Bill, how are you this morning?"
Bill: "Tiptop! Columbia beer did it. If all the people knew how wholesome it was the borough wouldn't hold the people that would look here to get it, but they are finding it out pretty fast."

Will Play at Tumbling Run.

The Lithuanian band, under the leadership of Prof. Zeitz, is making arrangements to give a concert at Tumbling Run next week. The band is being urged by many of the leading citizens of Pottsville to give the concert.

Travelers are frequently troubled with dysentery, diarrhoea or other bowel complaints brought on by change of water and diet. One dose of Dr. Fowler's Est. of Wild Strawberry will bring relief.

MAX SCHMIDT.

BRAKEMAN KILLED.

A Freight Train Crashes Into the Rear End of a Coal Train.

A freight train on the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad ran away at about 6 o'clock last evening on the heavy grade between Locust Summit and Gordon and crashed into the rear end of a coal train. Thomas Chisholm, a brakeman on the former train, was crushed to death in the wreckage. Ten of the freight cars and about as many coal cars were wrecked.

Chisholm was a single man about 20 years of age and resided with his parents in Ashland. He was the only son and was to have been married in the near future to Miss Eltringham, of Ashland.

At Revere's Cafe.

Clam chowder for free lunch to-night. Hot lunch on Monday morning. Little neck clams. Select prime oysters. Beef steak, lamb and veal chops. Migs feet, tripe and lamb's tongue.

Excellent Concerts.

The concerts the Puggsley Bros.' original Tennessee warblers are giving at Robbins' opera house are of a refined, unique and very pleasing character and worthy of very liberal patronage. The perfect harmony and varied expressions changing from loud to the softest whisper or sound, with which their selections were rendered is indescribable. Mr. Whitney is an excellent bass, and made a hit last night by his singing of "Old Black Joe."

Join the Crowd.

And go to Walters for your free lunch of nice sour kroust and Wiener sausage to-night. Vegetable soup on Monday morning.

Believe in a Boom.

Among the residents of this town who pin great faith in the future of St. Clair are Capt. George W. Johnson and Michael Curley. They visited that town to-day and it is said they will locate there in the near future. Mr. Curley is already disposing of his property here.

Schelly House.

Clam chowder to-night. Lobsters. Maurice river coxe oysters. Hard and soft shell clams. Chicken soup. Oysters, Clams. Deviled clams. Fish-cakes.

Ministerial Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Ministerial Association of town on Monday, next at 10 a. m. in the Primitive Methodist church. All the clergymen are requested to attend.
