A PRESENTATION.

Mr. Andrew Crawford Presented With a Gold-headed Cane. Mr. Andrew Crawford, who has held the position of assistant foreman at the Kohinor colliery for the past five years, has resigned and will locate at Providence, R. I. He left for the latter place this morning...

The officials at the colliery decided to present Mr. Crawford with a token of their esteem, previous to his departure, and accordingly that gentleman was invited to the Ferguson House Saturday evening to partake of an excellent supper and receive a gold-headed cane inscribed as follows: "Presented to Andrew Crawford from his friends of Kohinor colliery, September 14, 1895."

The presentation speech was made by C. T. Stranglin, of the HERALD, and in accepting the same Mr. Crawford was perceptibly affected, but found sufficient words to express his appreciation of the gift, and stated that he would remember the event as one of the most pleasant of his life...

Previous to the presentation the party sat down to a sumptuous supper prepared by Miss Host Hutcheson. All the delicacies of the season were served in the excellent style for which this house is noted and much favorable comment was heard upon the service...

Those present were: Thomas J. James, D. B. Jones, Maurice Fitzgerald, Mort. Durkin, William Mitchell, Thomas O'Hearn, William McGuire, R. D. Reese, James Dougherty, A. D. Gable, William Trozies, Patrick Gaffigan, Arthur Whomsey, John Brown, John Mahon, Harry Bishop, Jacob Mildenbald, Joseph Kennard, Benj. Breason, John Pooler.

The case presented to Mr. Crawford was a highly-polluted and very pretty one, and was purchased of E. B. Brumm, the East Centre street jeweler. Messrs. John Pooler, Arthur Whomsey, Patrick Gaffigan and Benjamin Broxton added to the evening's enjoyment by their vocal and instrumental music, and Comedian Gable also sang in the German dialect. It was midnight before the party left for their homes. They were in excellent spirits, and all voted the event a pleasant one.

THAT'S QUEER!

You say a collar and cuff that are waterproof? Yes. And perspiration will not affect them? Yes. And when dirty you need only wipe them off with a wet cloth or sponge? Yes. Wonderful! How are they made? A linen collar covered on both sides with waterproof "CELLULOID." Looks exactly like a linen collar.

Is it the only waterproof collar and cuff made? No, but it is the only one made with the linen interlining and consequently the only one that can give entire satisfaction, because it is the best. How can I know that I get the right kind? Because every piece is stamped as follows:

TRADE MARK. CELLULOID. Inquire for that and refuse anything else, or you will be disappointed. Suppose my dealer does not have them? He probably has, but if not, send direct to us, enclosing amount. Collars 25c., Cuffs 50c. State size, and whether collar wanted is stand-up or turned-down.
