A HARMONIOUS MEETING!

Result of the Republican Convention at Saratoga.

NO LOCAL OPTION FOR COUNTIES

The Platform Demands the Enforcement of the Sunday Liquor Law and the Preservation of the Sabbath—No Enlargement of the State Committee.

SARATOGA, Sept. 18.—The state Republican convention closed its session last night after following very closely the work mapped out by its leaders. It named this ticket for presentation to the people of the State in November next: For secretary of state, John Palmer of Albany; comptroller, James E. Roberts of Erie; state treasurer, Addison B. Colvin of Warren; state engineer, Campbell W. Adams of Oneida; attorney general, F. E. Hancock of Onondaga; judge of the court of appeals, Col. E. Martin of Broome.

The platform demands enforcement of the Sunday liquor law and preservation of the Sabbath. Governor Morton's wise and patriotic administration is also indorsed, and his candidacy for president formally launched. The platform further sets forth that the demands of the people in the city of New York have been granted in reform legislation.

After the opening session there appeared on the horizon a cloud of discontent that grew so rapidly that at 3 o'clock the fate of the state officers seemed to be sealed against re-nomination. The trouble arose over the contest for seats in the First district, and hinged on the seating of the contesting delegation headed by Congressman Mahoney.

With everything apparently running smoothly the leaders were suddenly confronted with the statement made by State Committeeman George Urban, Jr., and Senator Persons that if the Mahoney delegation was seated the Erie county delegation would leave the convention and Mr. Roberts' name would be withdrawn from the convention, thus breaking the state. When the convention met the committee reported against Mr. Mahoney. It was learned that the vote was 16 against and 15 for, the deciding vote having been cast by Mr. Wheeler, of Utica. Thus was the catastrophe averted.

The next nearest approach to a break in the plans came when Warner Miller introduced his resolution for the protection of the American Sabbath and the carrying out of the excise laws. The leaders who had proclaimed against any excise action accepted the situation, and the result was that all friction ceased.

Action on enlargement of the state committee was tabled and local Sunday option for counties was also killed.

Notice is hereby given to consumers of water that until further notice the use of water for pave washing and the use of hose is absolutely prohibited and anyone found violating this order will have the water stopped immediately. By order of the committee

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETING.

Complaint Made of Neglect by People in Making Reports.

A special meeting of the Board of Health was held in the Council Chamber last night with three of the members, Messrs. Spalding, Miles and McHale in attendance. Secretary Curtin and Health Officer Conry were also in attendance.

President Spalding stated that the meeting was simply called to dispose of routine business which should have been transacted before, but which went by default on account of a failure to secure a quorum. He also said that during the past three weeks there had been a visitation of diphtheria to the town that had created some uneasiness, but the situation was not serious enough to warrant special action by the Board, in fact it had been exaggerated by some people. For two weeks ending last Friday there had been a total of thirty deaths from various diseases, of which seven were cases of diphtheria, one typhoid and one scarlet fever.

At this point Health Officer Conry stated that there is but one case of diphtheria in the town now, and only one of scarlet fever. President Spalding said undertakers are too careless in carrying out the requirements of the Board. They do not apply for burial permits sometimes until the day of funerals, and when they fail to get them, go ahead. The rules require that the permits must be procured at least 24 hours before the funerals, and they will be enforced without fear or favor.

The president also stated that physicians were authorizing parents to send their children to school before the expiration of the time prescribed by the rules, which provide that ten days must elapse after the disinfection and thorough cleansing of a house where a contagious disease has existed before a physician shall give children of the house certificates entitling them to re-admission to either public, private, or Sunday schools. The president added that the Board will uphold the superintendent of schools in refusing admission to pupils in default of a compliance with this rule. Now and then people complain that they are singled out for the enforcement of the rules, said the president, but the Board does not intend to favor any one more than another, or allow guilty parties to escape.

A BANQUET.

The Epsilon Club honors William Neilman, a Departing Member.
The Epsilon Club, a social organization of town, last evening held a banquet at the Commercial hotel in honor of William Neilman, one of the members, who is about to leave for Philadelphia and enter the University of Pennsylvania to study medicine. At nine o'clock the members marched in a body from the club room in the Rynkawicz building and took possession of the hotel parlor, where they were very pleasantly entertained by C. D. Fricke, who rendered a number of piano solos with excellent effect and at 10:30 seats were taken at an elaborately decorated and well spread table. The honored member and his colleagues partook of the following

MENU:
Oyster soup, Consomme.
Chicken and Waffles, Chicken salad.
Fried oysters, Beef.
Mutton, Pork.
Tomatoes, Corn.
Potatoes, Sweet potatoes.
Cocoanut Custard, Raisins, Tea, Coffee.
Ice cream, Fancycakes.
Charlotte Russe, Fruits, Wines.
Claret.

Harry Wasley responded to the toast, "Our Departing Member," and E. B. Brumm spoke effectively in behalf of the club. Other toasts were responded to by W. D. Jones, James Leckie and others, and Mr. Neilman gratefully thanked the club for the honors conferred upon him, after which Messrs. Benj. Daddow and W. D. Jones entertained the members of the club in the parlor with musical selections. The members present during the evening were Messrs. James Leckie, E. B. Brumm, Benj. Daddow, C. D. Fricke, M. F. Maley, W. D. Jones, Elwood J. Jacoby, Saylor Longsdorf, George and Frank Portz, Charles N. and J. N. Beddall, Theodore Bedford, William Neilman, T. T. Hyde, Harry Wasley, George W. Keiter, Burr Lewis. The officers of the club are E. B. Brumm, president; Benj. Daddow, vice president; Charles N. Beddall, secretary; George Portz, treasurer.

A Reform Movement.
Prof. Dill, of Philadelphia, representing the National Reform Association, will begin a week's work in town on the 20th inst. Prof. Dill's work embraces the establishment of institutes of the Association in towns that he visits and during his stay here will lecture on temperance, schools, citizenship, Sunday observance, etc. The morning sessions will be held in the Trinity Reformed church, on West Lloyd street, and in the evening the lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church, on East Oak street. All the lectures will be free.

A Family Jar.
A man and woman of Centralia, evidently man and wife, indulged in a dispute at the Lehigh Valley depot last evening that was quite vigorous for a while and attracted a large crowd. They exchanged blows and threw stones at each other, but by the time the train bound for Centralia arrived the olive branch was exchanged and they got on the train together.

DON'T WASTE THE WATER!

Killing the Goose That Lays the Golden Egg.

LITTLE LESS THAN CRIMINAL!

The Authorities Claim That if People Will Be Careful the Town Will Pull Through the Drought With Hardly Any Inconvenience.

Should an unexpected and stringent restriction be placed upon the town supply from the public water works it will be due in a great measure to criminal waste on the part of many consumers. This is a pretty strong statement, but it is nevertheless true, and it is a pity the authorities cannot detect the guilty parties and deal to them the punishment richly deserved.

It is quite true that the collieries have drawn great quantities of water from the supply during the past two, or three weeks, but they have been cut off and the water now on hand is reserved solely for the use of the town. The last colliery, the Furnace, was cut off yesterday and to-day the water committee of the Borough Council gives notice that the use of water for pave washing and use of hose is absolutely prohibited, so that the disposal of the supply still in the reservoirs is wholly free from the heavy drains of the past few weeks.

A member of the water committee was very indignant last night when speaking of the wastefulness of some consumers. It seems that they are wholly indifferent to the effects of the drought and give no thought to the probable consequences of their extravagance. One case is reported, but unfortunately the identity of the offender is not known. A saloonkeeper was washing the pavement in front of his place with a hose and went into the saloon to wait on a customer. He was absent some and all the while allowed the water to stream from the hose at full force into the gutter. It is said that enough clean water pours into the sewers every day to supply the whole town and it comes almost entirely from hydrants left open by careless people.

Unless the people exercise more care in the matter the borough authorities will be obliged to go to the expense of hiring men to detect the sources of waste and the upshot will be that the people who do not seem to know when they have a good thing will find themselves deprived of water entirely, or at least have the supply from the public water works cut off.

Assurances are given that the streams supplying the main reservoir are flowing little, if any, less than they were at this period last year and that if the people will avoid waste they will in all probability receive their regular supply in spite of the drought which has caused the cutting off of the collieries.

The rain of to-day was of little benefit. Much more wet weather will be required to bring about the replenishment required.

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR.

An Important Feast in the Calendar of the Israelites.

At six o'clock this evening the Israelites all over the world will begin to celebrate Rosh Hashana, or the New Year 5656, and the celebration will continue until Friday evening. The day is also called Yom Hasekorim (The Day of Remembrance). The bible, in numbers XXIX, 1, declares "and the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have a holy convocation. Ye shall do no servile work. It is a day of sounding the cornet unto you." The time mentioned is reckoned on the first month the Israelites went out of Egypt, but the Jews calculate on the time before the bible was given, namely: from the creation of the world. The wise men of the Jews say the reason why the shofar shall be blown is because on that day the world was created and God Almighty was its King. In olden times, when a king went upon the throne, the trumpets were sounded to give him honor, and so the Jews give God Almighty honor on this New Year Day, as the King of the universe.

In commemoration of the day services will be held in the local synagogue from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. and to-morrow services will be held from 6 a. m. until 12 o'clock, noon, from 2 to 4 p. m., and from 6:20 to 8:30 p. m. Services will also be held on Friday morning. The services will be of a very solemn and impressive character and Rabbi Isador H. Mitnick will officiate. As the feast is one of the most sacred and important in the Jewish calendar all places of business controlled by the Jews will be closed.
