Considerable comment is being aroused by the fact that among the fifty delegates leading member of the Invincibles, knew him only as "Number One," Carey, however, when he became an informer, made it necessary for Tynan to come to this untry. During the year following the killing, Tynan was a member of the Mid-dlesex volunteers, a crack London corps, and was one of the men picked to escorthe queen to the opening of the new royal courts on the strand,

Rossa is well known for his dynamite campaigns. He was, it is claimed by friends among the delegates, most inhumanly treated while m an English prison on a thirty years' sentence for his connection with the Fenian movement, heing ubliged to hap his food while his bands were tied behind his back. He lately visited England, the term of his sentence having expired.

A sensation has been erented, by the annonnecement that among other things the convention will consider the cases of the Irish political prisoners still held in penal servitude in England. Lord Sallsbury, it is stated on high anchority, will probably be some a formal demand for their release within a certain period, which if not com-plied with will be followed by the carrying eye and a tooth for a touth. For every prisoner not released the "removal" is promised of a British cabines officer or
