

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

An Absolute Cure For the Worst Cases of Rheumatism.

The Plain Language of Mr. Oscar Pike—The Greatest of All Remedies Accomplished His Cure After Many Months of Weakness and Suffering—No Tedious Waiting for Improvement.

Paine's celery compound is the one known specific for the cure of rheumatism. And it does not need a tedious trial to prove it.

The effect of this best of remedies is straightway felt.

Not a week goes by before the pains of rheumatism diminish.

Thousands of men and women have told of the days and nights of pain and feebleness exchanged in a few weeks for activity, and strength.

Paine's celery compound has won the reputation of being the remedy "that makes people well." Its good works extend from Oregon to Maine. In every state in the Union there has been piled up in the newspaper and medical journals, a tremendous amount of indisputable evidence of the curative power of Paine's celery compound over all forms of nervous debility and diseases of the blood. It cures after nature's plan, by affording nutrition for every part of the body, overhauling the worn-out tissues, and supplying new brain and nerve material, sending pure blood through the veins, invigorating the whole system, and removing the cause of disease.

Mr. Oscar Pike, a well-known resident of Princeton, Maine, recently sent the following unqualified letter to the proprietors of this wonderful remedy:

"Two years ago I was taken sick with what the doctors called the grip. I was improving when I took on a violent cold and chill. Then rheumatism set in, first in the joints of my shoulders, then down my hands and arms, then all over. Feet, hands and legs swelled. I could not put my hand to my head, could not throw the clothes off from me, could not dress or undress myself, nor get out of my chair without help. For a year and a half I tried all kinds of medicines and remedies, with little or no relief. I was 73 years old. Some one told me to try Paine's celery compound. After I had taken three bottles I found a marked improvement. I have now taken twelve bottles, and the result is I eat and sleep well, do my own work, and go about as usual, getting in and out of my carriage without help. I have been tempted to put an article in the local paper for the benefit of those that are afflicted as I have been."

Mr. Pike is well known in his locality. He is the founder and president of the North Washington Agricultural Society and Trotting Association. When he goes for his mail, he says, people ask him what he has been doing that he is improving so of late, and he answers as do thousands of others throughout the country—

"Paine's celery compound has made me well!"

ONLY A FAKE IN PART.

What Martin Fahey Has to Say About the Cressona Race.

In conversation to-day relative to the foot race at Cressona Park yesterday between George Glenwright, of Ashland, and John Hoffman, of Philadelphia, Martin Fahey, the sprinter of town, said that he was not the referee and had nothing to do with the race other than as a spectator and bettor. He says he believes the race was all right, except so far as the bets were concerned. He bet on Hoffman and got his money, but in making his bets put the cash in good hands. This the majority of the people who are complaining failed to do. He believed Hoffman was the best man and he won by four yards. Hoffman could have won by ten.

Fahey says nothing has been seen of Thomas Whitaker, of Mahanoy City, since the race. Whitaker held stakes to the amount of $1,000, it is said. There is a story that Whitaker disappeared because he found himself in a hole after the race. The foundation for this is a statement that he was dead sure. Glenwright would win and that one $100 bill was used to make a number of bets. In other words, when the bill was given to Whitaker as stakeholder he passed it out for another bet and it came back to him as stakeholder. This was repeated several times and when Glenwright lost there was only the solitary $100 bill to meet the claims. Others assert positively, however, that there is nothing in the story and Whitaker held $1,000 of good money.

Fahey predicted this morning that Kirlin would win the 50-yard race with Rogers, of Girardville, this evening, by two yards.

An Interesting Litigation.

An important trial is now before the court at Pottsville, in which the Shaefer and Gilbert estates are defendants. The plaintiff is Robert F. Potter, Sr., assignee of Lawrence & Brown, operators of the Lawrence colliery. The suit is brought to recover for the improvements made by the coal firm during their leasehold to apply the proceeds to the benefit of all creditors. The defendants have put in claims to the amount of $78,872.52 for royalty, with interest from April, 1892. With this is also claimed an allowance amounting to $10,300.88, the half share of the cost of driving tunnels and gangways, which was advanced by the defendants, but is surcharged the coal firm by reason of the forfeiture of the lease. These surcharges, together with others, will foot up $125,000. John G. Johnson, Esq., the well-known Philadelphia corporation lawyer, and Hon. John W. Ryan are the attorneys for the defendants, while ex-Judge Ryan, William B. Wells and William A. Marr are pleading for the plaintiffs. The trial is creating much interest.

A Landlord's Troubles.

Ex-Poor Director James Grant today caused the arrest of Kajitinos Mixus, charging him with the larceny of a beer pump. Mixus acknowledged that he took the article, but claimed he owned it. Justice Lawlor fixed bail at $500, which was furnished. Mixus kept a saloon in Grant's property on East Centre street and was sold out by the Sheriff about two months ago. Charles Shamkus succeeded as tenant, but before he had time to get the license transferred the Sheriff pounced upon him. The sale was postponed from time to time until yesterday when the fixtures of the saloon were disposed of to various bidders. Mr. Grant claims he bid in the beer pump, but when he went to get it he found Mixus had carried it away, hence the suit. It is said Joe Trevelia, formerly of town and lately of Mahanoy City, will take charge of the saloon.

In both departments students must also take PENMANSHIP and CORRESPONDENCE so as to be able to write plainly, neatly and correctly the different kinds of business letters.

This college is a branch of the splendid Wilkesbarre Business College, and the same effective methods of teaching Bookkeeping and the same kinds of typewriters are used.

The Commercial and the Shorthand and Typewriting courses together (time unlimited) can now be had for $50 in the day school, or $40 in the night school. If only a few subjects are taken special rates will be made to suit. Send for catalogue. Students may enter at any time.

It is impossible to estimate the real value of a newspaper. Not a day passes that some substantial evidence of its influence and power does not come to light, and the story of how some fireside has been cleared of a gloom and made bright and cheerful through the service of some newspaper is daily repeated. One of the latest striking cases has developed in Scranton. Thirty years ago Mrs. Rantz Ackley, of that place, was separated from her husband and five children.

An advertisement placed in a newspaper led to information by which the woman traced and located one daughter at Buffalo and three of her sons and the husband in California.

There is to be a grand reunion and no doubt Mrs. Ackley and those who were so long separated from her will appreciate the value of newspapers during the balance of their days.
