THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS SPENT.

Those Favoring the Fight Claim That to Prevent it Now Would Cause Serious Loss to Innocent Persons, and Claim That it Will Not be Prevented.

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept 80.-The following is direct from the governor's office, and is self explanatory : "Governor Culberson stands firm on his position against prize fighting. He intends to suppress it, and will exert every power of his office to that end. He believes that the law as it now stands is against it, and that the decision of Judge Hurt is fundamentally wrong. His proclamation does not recede one inch from his declared purpose to enforce the law, regardless of the Hurt opinion. He simply begins with mild pacific measures before force is used. legislature will convene Oct. 1, and the case against Comptroller Finley, it is said. will be set for hearing in the supr What the legislature will do then COULTE. will be known when the case comes up, in all probability. If the legislature shall pass an effective law, and put it into immediate effect, that will end it. If it does not the supreme court will probably docide the matter in a few days, after Oct. 10, and if it holds that the license law is not operative, and the criminal statute against prize fighting is in force, the public may rest assured that the governor will use all the military force of the state to uphold the law. Should the decision of the suprome court be against the state there will remain the law against affrays and disturbances of the pa

Ex-Governor O. M. Roberts has written Governor Culberson commending his con duct in calling the logislature. There are grave doubts however, about the legis-lature passing a law with the requisite two thirds vote to give it immediate effect.
