

HEART DISEASE,

like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyessville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1904, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 10 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I haven't lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 5 ft. 4 1/2 inches and weigh 250 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone should know of your wonderful remedies."

THE BRITISH DEMANDS.

They Will be Enforced by a Strong Fleet of Warships.

THE ENGLISH ADMIRAL WILL ACT

Unless Within Fourteen Days an Edict is Issued Degrading the Viceroy of Szechuen—London Newspapers Urge Positive and Determined Action.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 30.—Failing the entire compliance of the central government with the British demands, it is understood that a fleet of fourteen warships will make a demonstration before Nankin tomorrow Wednesday. The British demand is that within fourteen days an edict must be issued degrading the viceroy of Szechuen, or otherwise the British admiral commanding will act. The wife and family and the treasure of the viceroy of Nankin have been brought to Shanghai for safety. Rich Chinese merchants are coming here from every side seeking shelter.

The British warships Rainbow, Plover, Spartan, Swift and Aeolus are at ports on the Yang-Tse-Kiang river. The Carolines, Undaunted, Edgar, Archer and Albatross are at Woo-Sung. The Daphne and Firebrand are at Shanghai. The British admiral is on board the Edgar.

URGING DETERMINED ACTION.
The Manchu Dynasty Imperiled by the Existing Controversy.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The Standard says regarding the Chinese situation: "The position of the Chinese government is extremely perilous. It has enough on its hands, without a quarrel with England. It is too soon to say that the fall of the Manchu dynasty is imminent, but the news of the spread of the Mahommedan insurrection is alarming. The British demands must be supported by the presence of our fleet in the Yang-Tse-Kiang, if not by the occupation of Nankin. We doubt if the Manchu dynasty could survive such a shock. If the Mahommedans of the west find a leader, and if, at the same time, the imperial government is rash enough to defy the western powers, a revolution is inevitable."

The Times dwells upon China being a huge and inert mass whose friendship is not worth cultivating by feeble concessions to her pretensions and pride. "What we want done," The Times continues, "we must insist on having done, not by futile representation at Peking, but by going to the spot in question and seeing it done ourselves."

Will Contest His Mother's Will.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—It is stated that Jesse Potter, the son of Mrs. Charles Lux, will attempt to secure the $100,000 estate left by his mother. When the widow of the cattle king died her estate consisted almost entirely of a one-quarter interest in the cattle firm of Miller & Lux. She left $100,000 to her son and a number of smaller bequests to relatives and charities. The remainder, amounting to over $1,000,000, was left in trust, the income to be paid Jesse Potter during his life. When Potter dies the estate is to be divided between his son and two of Mrs. Lux's sisters. A clause in the will provides that in case any legatees contests the will he shall forfeit his legacy.

The Convict Corner's Accomplices.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 30.—Henry A. Patton was brought to this city yesterday afternoon in custody of a federal official and placed in jail under commitment of Commissioner Harris, of New Albany, for passing counterfeit money, and in default of $5,000 bail. Patton is a brother of the president of the Patton Hollow Ware company, and was foreman of the company's plant at the southern prison. He was apprehended in the act of buying spurious coin from a convict and confessed to having been circulating the bad money for about six months. John Lynch, formerly a guard at the prison, has also been arrested as an accessory.

Beaten to Pieces on the Rocks.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 30.—The schooner Josiah F. bound from St. John, N. B., for Stonington, with a cargo of lumber run on to the rocks off Napatree Point before daylight. A gale was blowing and the vessel was soon beaten to pieces. The crew were taken off by the Watch Hill life savers. The tug E. E. Ives went to the scene of the wreck, but was unable to save anything. The Josiah F. was owned in the British provinces. She was insured for only a small amount.

Esata's Arms Detained.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 30.—A number of cases of arms and ammunition which were brought from Mazatlan in the Pacific mail steamer City of Sydney by Antonio Esata have been detained at Acapulco by his custom house authorities. Esata was on his way to Guatemala, but stopped off at Acapulco because the captain of the steamer refused to take him any further, as he feared international complications.

A Child Fearfully Burned.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 30.—Annie Pocony, aged 6 years, met with a terrible accident here yesterday. A quantity of mountain brush near her home was burning, and while playing around it her clothing caught fire. Frank Hadash answered her cries, and in trying to remove her clothing tore the flesh from her limbs. She was so terribly burned that her life is despaired of.

A Dishonest Postmaster's Little Scheme.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 30.—J. N. Simmons, the postmaster at Pulla, Ia., is the subject of a lettering postal notes payable to himself at various towns in Nebraska and getting them cashed. He is alleged to have worked the scheme successfully at South Omaha, Papillon, Plattsmouth and this city before being detected.

Deserted on the Wedding Day.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Sept. 30.—While the intended bride, Mrs. Eva Sludka, a widow, was waiting for her lover, Joseph Wloska, to take her to church where they were to have been married he suddenly disappeared. Up to last evening no trace could be found of him.

RESCUED.

On Lake Erie's Shores.—The Captain's Wife Tells the Story.—It Will Interest Many People.

(From the Buffalo Evening News.)

If you were to call at 27 Front Avenue you would find a pleasant elderly lady, Mrs. Captain Hecny by name. Her kindly smile and joyous manner are to so small extent due to the escape she has had. Her own words can better describe her rescue and one can easily understand her present happy condition when they realize what she has gone through. She says: "About five months ago I had an attack of sickness which lasted for a week and since that time I have been subject to intervals to similar attacks, some of which were longer in duration. It is hard for me to describe how I suffered. The pain would commence in my head, after which it would seem to pass down my body and settle in my back, my sides ached, my back ached, and I had a feeling of great distress in the bowels. The increased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost unbearable, my face and stomach would blot up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziness made it almost impossible; this feeling was always with me even after the violence of the attack passed over. The last attack I had was the worst, and was so bad I would not have been able to tell this story but for Doan's Kidney Pills. As soon as I commenced their use I found immediate relief. The pain in my back and sides left me and the dizziness went with it; the bloating in my face and body disappeared and all distress in my bowels was gone. I have great faith in Doan's Kidney Pills; in a short time they did a great deal more for me than all the plasters and medicines which I had resorted to in seeking relief and cure. I hope always to be able to procure them."

PROFESSOR PASTEUR'S DEATH.

France Will Give the Eminent Physician a State Funeral.

PARIS, Sept. 30.—Professor Louis Pasteur, the distinguished chemist and discoverer of the cure for hydrophobia, died at Garches, in the environs of Paris, Saturday evening, aged 73. The government has decided to hold a state funeral. Professor Pasteur's widow has received telegrams of sympathy from President Faure, from M. Challemel Lacour, president of the senate, and from all parts of the world. The government desired to enter the remains of the distinguished scientist in the Pantheon, but it was the family's wish that he should be buried in the Pasteur Institute. The obsequies will be held at the Cemetery of Notre Dame, probably on Tuesday.

M. Pasteur's discovery of the hydrophobia virus was the result of years of research and experiment, and was the crowning achievement of his career. Honors were showered upon him. The Academy of Sciences, the Academy of Medicine and finally the French Academy opened their doors to him. On Dec. 27, 1882, his 73th birthday was celebrated with great enthusiasm. In delivering an address from the Royal London society, Sir Joseph Lister, the famous English surgeon, said to Pasteur: "Bodily, there is not in the whole world a man to whom medical science owes more than it does to you."

Since 1886 Pasteur, loaded with honors, enjoying universal respect, had lived in the magnificent institution which bears his name, and which is supported by the state.

According to Professor Huxley, M. Pasteur's labors have been equal in money value to the whole $1,000,000,000 of indemnity paid to Germany in the late war.

To Extend Our Trade with Japan.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 30.—A Japanese syndicate is soon to put on a steamship line between Japan and some point on the North Pacific coast, and Seattle is making a strong effort to have the American terminus of the line located here. The Japanese diet will in October next consider a subsidy bill which has for its object the execution of navigation to foreign countries. In case of favorable action on this it is thought to be pretty certain the company will immediately send an agent to this country. The United States annually imports from Japan $30,000,000 worth of goods while it sells to that country only $3,000,000.

Major Armes Azain in Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Captain George A. Armes, better known by his brother title of Major Armes, a retired United States army officer now engaged in the real estate business, is again in trouble. He is the man who pulled Governor Beaver's nose. He wrote an insulting letter and sent it to Lieutenant General J. M. Schofield, his superior officer and acting secretary of war, who thereupon caused his arrest last Friday night at his home, at Cherry Chase, in the suburbs of this city. Armes will be court-martialed.

A Kansas Counterfeiter Captured.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 30.—Edward Davis, a married man with six children, was arrested and placed in jail today for making counterfeit money. In his house were found a quantity of counterfeit and dies for making silver dollars, halves and quarters. William Workman, with Charles Mosher and his two daughters were also arrested upon the charge of passing counterfeit money. All acknowledged that they had received the counterfeit from Davis, and that they had seen him manufacture them.

Swindler Harvy in Winipeg.

WINNEPEG, Man., Sept. 28.—Edward E. Harvey, of Detroit, Mich., who is accused of swindling fraternal organizations there out of $100,000, is here. He says that Johnston, assistant cashier of the Peninsular Saving bank at Detroit, has been at Winipeg recently to see if he would make any settlement. Johnston had returned to Detroit, apparently satisfied with what he had accomplished. Harvey gave up every cent he had to his creditors and those of the bank he was with, and was now penniless.

Run Down and Killed by a Bicycleist.

ADRIAN, Mich., Sept. 30.—While riding his bicycle after dark in Tecumseh, Rev. J. J. Hudson, pastor of the Baptist church of that village, struck Miss Woodard at a crosswalk, injuring her so severely that she died. A contusion on the young woman's head was the only mark of injury.

Stole the Cash Register.
