

Mahanoy City Business College.

This new college opened Monday, September 9th, in the Hopper building, 203 East Centre street, Mahanoy City, and already shows plainly that it will soon be one of the best business training schools in the state.

The teachers are the very best that can be secured. They are practical business men, are highly educated, and have had long and successful experience in teaching thoroughly all the branches that are of use to the business man.

This college is a branch of the splendid Wilkesbarre Business College, and the same effective methods of teaching Bookkeeping and the same kinds of typewriters are used.

The Commercial and the Shorthand and Typewriting courses together (time unlimited) can now be had for $50 in the day school, or $40 in the night school.

The Ladies' Medical Institute at Hotel Kaiser, North Main street, Mahanoy City, has come to stay.

SINGULAR FATALITY

Bodily Crippled Years Ago by a Train and Now Beheld.

David Travers, a cripple, was beheld by a coal train at Girardville Saturday night. He was about 20 years of age and resided with his parents at Girardville. The accident happened while the young man was trying to get on a moving train, despite the fact that he was minus his natural left arm and left leg. He used false limbs.

About eight years ago Travers lost his limbs while trying to jump on a moving coal train near the place where he met his death. He was taken to the Miners' hospital and recovered in spite of his terrible injuries. When able to go about he was made gate attendant at the hospital and conducted a candy and fruit stand at the entrance. He remained there about four years and became well known to many people who had occasion to visit the institution.

How Editors are Treated in China. Nineteen hundred editors of a Peking paper are said to have been beheaded. Some would shudder at such slaughter, who are heedless of the fact that Consumption is ready to fasten its fatal hold on themselves.

Stamps, La Fayette Co., Arkansas. Dr. R. V. PRECKER, Dear Sir:—I will say this to you, that consumption is hereditary in my wife's family; some have already died with the disease. My wife has a sister, Mrs. E. A. Cleary, that was taken with consumption. She used your "Golden Medical Discovery," and to the surprise of her many friends, she got well. My wife has also had hemorrhages from the lungs, and her sister insisted on her using the "Golden Medical Discovery." I consented to her using it, and it cured her. She has had no symptoms of consumption for the past six years.

Delicate diseases in either sex, however induced, speedily cured. Book sent securely sealed, 10 cents in stamps. Address, in confidence, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Harrisons Defeated. The game of base ball at the Trotting park on Saturday between the Harrisons, of Girardville, and the Lost Crook club, resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 11 to 1. The game was for $50 a side and the championship of the two places. McDonald and Coyle formed the battery for Lost Crook and Gallagher and Horan filled the points for Girardville. David Kelly, of town, was the umpire. The attendance was quite large.

Exceptions to the petitions will be filed.

Julius Caesar. "I'm no boaster," began the manager of the Charles B. Hanford, Elihu R. Spencer and Nora O'Brien Shakesperian Dramatic Company, "but I am so proud of the all around excellence of this combination that I feel like putting reluctant persons in to witness its performance. Other companies of this sort are content with one star, we have three. Any one of them is a better player than any American star I know of. Why, there are actors in the company who are far cleverer than one half of the so-called legitimate stars. Take James Carden, for instance. We make no fuss about him, yet I'd like to see a man picked from another company who could impersonate Brutus half as fiercely as he. And as for Marc Antony, why no one can approach Mr. Hanford in that character. Mr. Spencer is the best Cassius I know of, and as Portia, Miss O'Brien charms everyone. Then you should know that we have all the Booth-Barrett Julius Caesar scenery." At Ferguson's theatre this evening. Owing to the great length and massiveness of the Julius Caesar production the curtain will rise at 8 p. m. sharp. Patrons of the theatre are requested to be in their seats at that time.

On the journey home the horse ran away and threw the occupants out of the buggy. The horse returned to the stable at five o'clock this morning. The buggy is on the mountain in pieces. None of the occupants sustained dangerous injuries. The women returned to their friends in the valley. It is said Mrs. William Becker sustained a fracture of the nose. Her husband claims the horse was not properly hitched before the start was made from the valley.

An Excellent Actress. Dainty, graceful and pretty Miss Nora O'Brien, who plays Portia to-night in Julius Caesar, is a graduate of the Loyetta Convent, at Niagara Falls, Ont. Miss O'Brien is a devout member of Cardinal Gibbons' Cathedral church in Baltimore, and before she left on her starting tour the reverend Bishop sent for the talented actress and gave her his blessing and best wishes.

OTTOLENE COOKS. Should remember to use only two-thirds as much Cottolene as they formerly used of lard or butter. With two-thirds the quantity they will get better results at less cost than it is possible to get with lard or butter. When Cottolene is used for frying articles that are to be immersed, a bit of bread should be dropped into it to ascertain if it is at the right heat. When the bread browns in half a minute the Cottolene is ready. Never let Cottolene get hot enough to smoke.
