VICEROY DISMISSED FROM OFFICE.

Liu, Whose Neglect Made Missionary Murders Possible, Can Never Again Hold Office Our Government's Investigation of the Chengtu Affair.

Washington, Oct. 1.-Minister Denby cables the state department from Peking as follows: "Imperial decree issued: Ab stract—Responsibility for Szechuan riots rest with officials. Vicercy Liu careless; took no notice of the beginning of the riots. He is deprived of office, never again to be employed. Other officials to be pun-

This would seem to indicate that the crisis impending in China, involving a naval demonstration by the British forces, has been averted, for a time at least, by compliance with the principal demands of

It cannot be learned, however, whether the decree concedes all of the demands made, and the cablegram makes no reference to the sweeping condition imposed by the British minister that the guilty of-ficials be punished by suspension for three years of all promotions and appointments in the civil service in the province of Viceroy Liu, whose fall is announced, has been in trouble before. It is understood that he was found gullty last No vember of misappropriation of funds, and later on, because the French investigation showed that he was responsible for the Chengtu riots, he was obliged to pay an indemnity of $800,000 to the French Catholic missions from his own pocket.

The present conclusion, which has been brought about apparently by British threats, will not involve the abandonment of the independent investigation into the Chengtu riots which has been ordered by Secretary Olney.

The reason for the delay in organizing and sending forward the American com-mission to Chengtu has just transpired. It arose from the insistence of our state department upon sending the commission overland, instead of up the Yang-tse-Kiang river. The Chinese government was extremely unwilling to have journey made in this fashion, while they had no objection to sending the commissioners up the river in a steamboat. the department felt that the passage of the commission overland through the breadth of China, accompanied by a formidable es-cort, would have a most saintary moral effect upon the Chinese, resembling, as it would, a demonstration in force, the point was insisted upon, and it is felt that a substantial advantage has been gained in
