

"For Charity Suffereth Long."

Mrs. Laura C. Phoenix, Milwaukee, Wis. "Matron of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, overcomes my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1893, The inmates had the 'LaGrippe' and I was one of the first. Resuming duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue its occasional use, as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me." June 6, 1894. Mrs. LAURA C. PHOENIX.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it, or it will be sent prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

DURRANT'S TESTIMONY.

The Accused Murderer's Evidence in Defense of His Life.

HIS REMARKABLE SELF CONTROL.

The Prisoner Tells His Story Without a Quaver and Creates a Good Impression on the Crowded Court Room—A General Denial of Incriminating Testimony.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Theodore Durrant, assistant superintendent of Emanuel church Sunday school, was placed on the stand yesterday for the purpose of convincing the jury that he did not murder Blanche Lamont in the belfry of the church on April 30. With the same coolness that has characterized his conduct since his arrest, he denied the principal allegations that have been made against him by the most important witnesses for the prosecution. His answers were always brief and to the point, and by many were interpreted to mean that he had studied his part well before taking the stand.

Only once during the course of the direct examination did he show any nervousness or hesitancy. When Attorney Dickinson asked him if he took notes at Dr. Cheney's lecture on the afternoon of April 3 he cast his eyes toward the floor and for a moment was silent. He replied that he had taken notes, but that they were brief. The hesitancy of the prisoner may be understood when it is explained that Gilbert F. Graham, one of Durrant's most intimate friends, will testify that Durrant asked to borrow his notes of the lecture. When the request was made Durrant explained that he only needed the notes to establish a good alibi. Graham refused the request.

Taken altogether, Durrant's direct testimony probably had a tendency to strengthen his case. His demeanor while on the stand was certainly intended to impress the jury with the opinion that he was telling the truth. Questions that would ordinarily cause a visible impression on a guilty man were answered by Durrant with the utmost unconcern. Even when Attorney Dupuy asked him if, on the third of April, or at any other time, he murdered or participated in the murdering of Blanche Lamont, the prisoner coolly replied in the negative.

The examination of Durrant was begun with the questions relative to his age and his early life in this city. Coming down to the day upon which Blanche Lamont was murdered, the prisoner was asked to relate his movements from the time he left his home in the morning until he returned at night. He said he met Miss Lamont on her way to school and rode with her on a street car until he reached Cooper Medical college. He said he remained at the college until 10 o'clock, when he and another student named Rosen went for a walk. When he returned, an hour later, he went to the library, where he was engaged in his studies until noon. Then he went to luncheon with a student named Digging, and returned at 1 o'clock. After luncheon Durrant remained in the library until 5:30 o'clock, when he attended Dr. Cheney's lecture. He said he was present at the roll call at the close of the lecture and answered to his name.

At the close of the lecture Durrant said he boarded a street car and rode to Emanuel church for the purpose of repairing the sun burners. "He denied that he was accompanied by Blanche Lamont or any body else. Upon entering the church he said he left his coat and vest in the library, obtained the necessary tools and ascended to the gallery. A blackboard was provided, and Durrant drew a rude sketch of the church and its tall spire to illustrate the manner in which he made the repairs. He said to make the repairs it was necessary for him to lie at full length on a plank, which was much lower than his feet. In this position he inhaled so much gas that he was made ill.

After repairing the burner Durrant said that he descended to the auditorium, where he found George King playing on the organ. King remarked that Durrant looked pale. Durrant replied that King would be in the same condition if he had been nearly overcome by escaping gas. At Durrant's request King bought some bromo seltzer, which the prisoner drank. The medicine made him feel better, and at 6 o'clock Durrant left the church in company with King.

In the evening he went to prayer meeting at Emanuel church. He saw Mrs. Noble and asked her if Blanche was coming to prayer meeting. Mrs. Noble replied that she did not believe her niece would be present. He related a number of minor incidents in connection with his conversation with Mrs. Noble, who evidently did not indorse his statements, from the fact that she shook her head several times. At the close of the services Durrant said he went home and retired.

Durrant denied that on the afternoon of April 3 he was at the corner of Powell and Clay streets, testified to by Mrs. Vogel. He also denied the statement of the three school girls, who testified that Durrant and Blanche Lamont boarded a Powell street car at Clay street and rode toward Market. He said he did not ride on a west bound Valencia street car with Blanche Lamont, as testified to by Mrs. Crossell, and declared he was never in Oppenheimer's pawn shop.

Seven Years for Father Flaherty. GENESSEO, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Rev. Father Charles Flaherty, convicted of having undue relations with Marie Sweeney, a girl under 16 years of age, was sentenced yesterday to seven years in Auburn prison. Flaherty was asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced, and he said: "I am innocent of this charge and have been unjustly convicted. My innocence has been demonstrated by the testimony, and the verdict of the jury is contrary to the evidence."

An Unpopular British Minister. PANAMA, Oct. 10.—Bogota is clamoring for the withdrawal of the British minister, Jenner. The press clearly reflects the popular excitement in its expression of the hope that Jenner's relations with the railway contractors, which were not before exposed, will persuade the British government that it is an injury to Colombia to retain him in office at Bogota.

NO REST, NO SLEEP.

Now Energy and Ambition are Killed.

Vitality and Health Destroyed by Wakeful Nights.

Strong and Steady Nerves a Necessity.

To Neglect Them Means Certain Ruin.

Dr. Greene's Nervura Gives Strength and Vigor.

How many thousands to-day suffer from sleeplessness caused by nervous weakness. It is one of the incidents of American life, and you who read these lines are no doubt one of the great throng. After the day is done and when its cares ought to cease, you wish that they might fold their tents like the Arabs and as silently steal away. When night has drawn her sable curtains and all nature seems in repose, your weary eyelids long for that tired nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep. What would you not give for the rest you had in the olden times. But it is denied you. The long hours are full of weakness and weariness, and the coming day brings only headache and heartache, impaired strength and exhausted nerves as you drag through its duties.

There is no burden so painful, and no loss so wasting. It wrecks the body and impairs the mind. It is the fearful harbinger of insanity. It has filled our asylums with its victims. You know this and gloomily dread the future. Weak, nervous, and discouraged, the least excitement prostrates you, and you are always worrying over anticipated trouble. Nothing goes right, and you often feel like despairing. You do not feel equal to the burden you once bore so easily. Take heed while it is time. You are in a whirlwind of destruction. You are in the very Niagara of our nervous modern life. Do not delay. Safety is right at hand, if you will but accept it. That loss of appetite, gas in the stomach, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness, headache, etc., are but the first symptoms of the danger to come. It can be avoided, but only by acting at once. Thousands have stood where you now stand confronted by the same frightful consequences, and have been cured and restored to health and happiness by that wonderful exchanger of sleep, that marvelous restorer of nerve energy and physical strength, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is purely vegetable and entirely harmless.

Mrs. L. L. Gumprecht, who resides at 108 Elm Hill Ave., Boston, Mass., says: "After having had an attack of the grippe I was feeling very weak and completely run down. I could not eat, sleep or work. I was so weak in the limbs I could not walk or work. I was very miserable, and I thought I should die. I lost all interest in everything. I had great trouble from the little food I could eat. "After taking three bottles of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy I am entirely cured of all these complaints. I feel like a different woman."

This grand restorative for the nerves, Dr. Greene's Nervura, does not contain a particle of anything injurious, and can be given to restless and sleepless infants, nervous children or the most delicate invalid with absolute assurance of beneficial results. Dr. Greene, of 33 West 14th St., New York city, the most successful physician in curing nervous and chronic diseases, discovered it, and he can be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter.

THE POPE'S PLAIN.

His Holiness on the Recent Fetes in Rome.

MENACE TO ITALY'S INSTITUTIONS.

The Object of the Occupation Was "Not to Complete Political Unity, but to More Closely Attack the Spiritual Power of the Pope."

Rome, Oct. 10.—The letter of his holiness P. Leo XIII. to Cardinal Rampolla, the papal secretary of state, on the recent fetes in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the entry of the Italian troops into Rome, was published last evening. It is as follows: "The sentiment of humanity, which even minds dominated by passion retain, seemed to permit of the hope of some consideration in our old age, but this has been brutally ignored. We have been reduced to become almost immediate witnesses of the apostrophe of the Italian revolution and the spoliation of the Holy See. That which most afflicted us as the design to perpetrate rather than to terminate the conflict of which no one can measure the disastrous effects. The final object of the occupation of Rome was not to complete political unity, but, in destroying the walls of the temporal metropolis, to more closely attack the spiritual power of the pope.

"The object was to change the destinies of Rome, return it to paganism, and give birth to a third Rome and a third era of civilization. That is what it was desired to celebrate secondly under the sanction of the new law by noisy demonstrations conducted by a sect which is the enemy of God. The nation suffers, for not only are the promises of mutual benefits unfulfilled, but, morally, it is divided and subjected to factions which menace all civil and social institutions, in augmenting numbers and force. Nothing will ever confer veritable independence upon the papacy so long as it does not have temporal jurisdiction. This condition they pretend having guaranteed us, subordinated to the arbitrary will of others, and lately there has been a suggestion of a threat to abrogate even the guarantee itself."

The letter of the pope then vaunts the blessings of pontifical sovereignty, and invites Italians not to be bound up with sects and to consider how pernicious it would be to perpetuate the conflict which is warring the enemies of Christianity. It then affirms that the head of the church follows with loving vigilance humanity's road, and does not refuse to accept the reasonable necessities of the times.

The letter of his holiness concludes with: "If Italians, throwing off the Masonic yoke, would listen to us we could open our heart to the fondest hopes; otherwise we can but predict new perils and greater disasters."

Turkey Seeks the Powers. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 10.—The representatives of the six powers are still waiting for a definite reply to the communications recently handed to the Turkish government. The patience of the European governments is becoming exhausted, and definite action upon their part may shortly be expected. No reply has been made to the request of Sir Philip Currie, the British ambassador, that he be allowed to visit the prisons in which the Armenians charged with rioting are confined, to take their deposition.

Two Miners Burned by an Explosion. ASHLAND, Pa., Oct. 10.—Michael Snyder, of Germantown, a country village two miles from here, and Christian Seymour, of this place, both engaged as miners at North Ashland mines, were seriously burned by an explosion of a keg of powder. Seymour was sitting on the floor of the breast eating a lunch, while Snyder was engaged in firing a blast when the explosion occurred. It is supposed that a spark from a lamp dropped in the keg.
