STATE TREASURER, BENJAMIN J. HAYWOOD, of Mercer.

SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES, JAMES A. BEAVER, of Centre.

E. W. WILLARD, of Lackawanna.

CHARLES E. KICE, of Luzerne.

GEORGE B. ORLADY, of Huntingdon.

JOHN J. WICKHAM, of Beaver.

HOWARD REEDER, of Northampton.

COUNTY TICKET.

JUDGE OF ORPHANS' COURT, THOMAS H. B. LYON, of Mahanoy City.

CONTROLLER, BENJ. K. SEVERN, of Shenandoah.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY, CHAS. E. BROCKSON, of St. Clair.

CORONER, DEL. S. J. SEYFERT, of Pinegrove.

DIRECTOR OF THE POOL, S. R. MIDDLETON, of Gilberton.

COUNTY SURVEYOR, JOSEPH W. GEARY, JR., of Pottsville.

JUDGE DISTRICT is an able judge, but that is no reason his nephew should be elected District Attorney.

AND now it is Amelie Rives Chanler who has been divorced. Love in her case appears to have been over quick, and is dead.

THE Republican party is worthy the support of every citizen who desires an economical administration of public affairs.

THE meeting of the Republican League this evening should be well attended. The time is short for effective work in the present campaign.

THE business man who gives his printing to non-residents can not complain if the people purchase their goods out of town. The two cases are similar.

THE HERALD is an old established paper, and there is no doubtful quantity about its claim as an advertising medium. Prospective advertisers should keep this fact in mind.

In a political campaign one's marriage relations are sometimes used to advantage, especially so if those relatives are of the opposite political faith. We notice a Democratic candidate is flying that kite pretty high, and the probabilities are it will lose its tail before November.

THE voters of Schuylkill county are opposed to nepotism in any form, and for this reason they will triumphantly elect Charles E. Brockson District Attorney. He goes before the people on his own merits, and not those of his "uncles, his cousins and his aunts."

REPUBLICAN enthusiasm is up to fever heat in Ohio. Fully 20,000 gathered to hear Sherman, Fousher, McKinley and Bushnell discuss the situation at Cincinnati on Wednesday evening. The former scored Senator Brice for looking after his personal interests while neglecting those of his constituents, particularly the wool-growers.

THE Democratic pow-wow to-morrow, as foreshadowed in our news columns, is an indication that the braves are about to move upon the breastworks of the pale face. However, the war-hoop has been heard before and many a good warrior of the Democratic tribe has fallen by the wayside from the tomahawk of the Republican pale faces, and the indications are they will meet with a bloody massacre on November 5th.

At the recent meeting of the state mine inspectors held this week at Shamokin, the officials arrived at the conclusion that most of the disasters in the mines were caused by the foreign element being ignorant of the work to which they are assigned. This fact has been apparent for many years, and the remedy lies with mine examining boards and mine inspectors themselves. More care should be exercised in issuing certificates to applicants.

SHENANDOAH points with much pride to its efficient fire department and especially to the buildings they occupy. This is especially true in reference to the handsome structure of the Phoenix company dedicated on Wednesday evening. The company can certainly feel proud of their efforts and should be encouraged by our citizens in every way. The Rescue company has also recently made extensive improvements in their building and painted the exterior and papered and painted the interior, while the Columbus has one of the coziest and elaborately furnished parlors of any fire company in the county. It will thus be seen that Shenandoah has much reason for congratulation, so far as its fire department is concerned.

IN A CHINESE COURT.

How Prisoners Are Tortured to Compel Them to Give Testimony.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a letter from its correspondent at Kuching describing the trial of a prisoner implicated in the outrages upon missionaries. The accused man is brought in handcuffed. He is filthy in appearance, and has the wild and ghastly look of a starved man, which he really is. The prisoner opens the proceedings by swearing that he was nowhere near the scene of the massacre, and the torture begins. The man is first compelled to kneel with his bare knees upon a coil of chain. His head is dragged back and his pistol is fastened to a rack high above his head. A pole is then thrust across his legs and two soldiers stand on each end of it, crushing the poor wretch's knees into the coil of chain.

The British consul could not stand this method of extracting testimony and insisted that it be stopped. This was done as far as the proceedings in the court room were concerned, but for an hour afterward the shrieks of tormented prisoners could be heard coming from an adjacent room, where the torture was continued.

Besides the torture described the prisoners were beaten with bamboo sticks until their yells were most horrible to hear. One prisoner appeared in the court room unable to walk from the beating he had received, and another was unable to kneel because his knees had been broken by the chain links.

Swept by a Tidal Wave.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Captain Olsen, owner of the schooner Czar, has received a private dispatch from Guaymas confirming the story of a hurricane and tidal wave at La Paz, Lower California. The Czar is at La Paz, and is high and dry on the beach. It is feared that she is a total loss. There is no direct telegraphic communication with the Lower California capitol, so news from the scene of the disaster is necessarily slow. Mexicans here have had dispatches about a severe storm which prevailed all along the coast early this week. The loss of life is reported heavy, but details of the disaster are meager.

Mrs. Langtry's Stolen Jewels.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Some of the sapphires and rubies which formed part of the jewelry belonging to Mrs. Langtry, which was obtained by means of a forged order from the Sloan street branch of the Union bank of London, on Aug. 24 last, have been discovered in the possession of a firm of merchants on Hatton Garden, this city, to whom they had been sold. The value of the stolen jewels has been estimated at from $100,000 to $200,000.

Physicians recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup because of its prompt, positive action in all cases of lung trouble. It is a positively reliable cure for coughs and colds.

An Exile from Korea.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Prince Yanghio Pak, who was formerly prime minister of Korea, and is now an exile from that country on a charge of conspiracy, is in Washington. He called upon Acting Secretary Meadon at the navy department yesterday and presented letters of introduction from mutual friends. The prince expects to remain some time in Washington.

Tramps as Highwaymen.

LEWISBURG, Pa., Oct. 11.—Joseph Culp, of Milton, was assaulted and robbed by three tramps on the outskirts of the town last night. He surrendered his watch and some money at the point of a revolver, and was then relieved of his hat, coat and vest. The tramps boarded a passing freight train and escaped.

Two masked men entered the house of Farmer Thompson, at Cambria City, near Lockport, N. Y., chloroformed Thompson and his housekeeper, and escaped with nearly $1,000.

WELCOMING FOREIGN DELEGATES.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 11.—The second day's session of the national council of the Congregational churches of the United States took on an international aspect when delegates were welcomed from the unions of England, Wales and Canada. The Rev. George S. Barrett, the English representative, spoke of the reception tendered him and said that the English union sent its greetings. The American church had sprung from England, but the child had outgrown the parent. He continued: "You Americans have a knack of getting ahead of us, especially in athletics."

Probably Murdered by Tramps.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 11.—An unknown man was murdered and robbed at Bower Hill, near here, under circumstances which are yet a mystery. Passengers on an accommodation train discovered the body lying near the track. An examination showed that he had been shot through the head and his pockets rifled. The murder occurred where a gang of tramps had been camping. Subsequently the murdered man was identified as Julius Pastola, a coal miner.

If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by Grubler Bros., Druggists.

YOUR TIRED STOMACH.

"I have no appetite," you say, "and the little I do eat does me no good. At first it feels cold and dead in my stomach and by and by I have aches and pains that sometimes go to my chest and back. I feel weak, low spirited and out of sorts all over. I fancy the demon of dyspepsia has got me." That's the way you talk, and no wonder. But we'll reason together. Perhaps thus far your stomach has been tired. You have been eating too much, eating the wrong things, and irregularly. You have given it too much to do, and like all living things, when overworked, it stops at length from sheer exhaustion. There may not be an actual disease condition as yet. Still it is nature's warning, and you must heed it or worse will follow. "But I must eat or starve," you say. True enough, but safety usually lies in middle courses. Here is one for you. You don't need drastic purges or exciting stimulants. Your condition is one easily relieved if we go about it gently and sensibly. The tired stomach won't work under whip and spur. It has probably had too much of that already. What you require is something that is gentle, a food and a digester of food. Such an article is the Shaker Digestive Cordial, discovered and prepared by the Shaker Community of Mt. Lebanon, N. Y. Taken right after eating, so as to mix with the food, it does the stomach's work for it, gives it the advantage of further rest, strength, and a natural way, and soon enables the stomach to do full duty. There is nothing else like this simple, safe, certain and palatable remedy. Yet the Shakers respect your doubts, and authorize druggists to sell a trial bottle for ten cents.

Governor McIntyre Defended.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—William Hosca Ballou, vice president of the American Humane Association, has written to John G. Shortall, of Chicago, president of the society, asking him to withdraw from its minutes the resolution recently passed at a meeting in Minneapolis censuring Governor McIntyre, of Colorado, for "timidity and indifference" in not stopping the bull fights in his state. Governor McIntyre sent to the society a statement to prove that he exerted his official power so far as he could legally do to prevent the fights. The governor states that, as the sheriff refused to call upon him for assistance, he could only use the military arm of the state, under the circumstances, by a gross usurpation of power, which would render him liable to impeachment.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by Grubler Bros., Druggists.

For a Colored Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—A call has been issued by a committee of prominent negroes from many states in the Union for a national conference of colored men to meet at Detroit on Dec. 12 next. The call says in part: "Here were are today, thirty years from the emancipation, and millions of free men are practically disfranchised; the constitution of the United States set at defiance; freedom of locomotion denied; the freedom of decent transportation; municipal corporations granting license to private citizens to deny us accommodation in hotels, restaurants, barber shops, places of amusement, etc."

Tried to Sell Alleged Stolen Bonds.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Charles Boussett, a young man who claims to be an English speculator, was arrested and locked up at police headquarters for trying to sell to T. E. Ward & Son fifty shares of Canadian Pacific stock which the firm was advised from London had been stolen from Mrs. Winifred Gordon. Boussett showed a bill of sale for the stock from a Paris bank and claimed to have obtained it from a man named George Krahn. According to Boussett's story Krahn had been intimate with Mrs. Winifred Gordon, and with difficulty secured from her the bonds, which he had given her, with other valuables, to keep for him.

Released by Matrimony.

BOSTON, Oct. 11.—The Cunard steamer Cephalonia, which arrived on Sunday, was the scene of a novel affair. Immigration Commissioner Delehanty had refused to permit a young widow named Maria Bettelkonger, a Finn, to land because she had no way of providing for herself here. After deliberating the woman sent for William Honkonen, of Piteburg, a native of Finland, whom she had never seen, but with whom she had had some correspondence. The man, on going aboard the vessel, offered to marry the woman, and a clergyman being summoned did so, and the couple at once landed.

AN INSURANCE ROW.

Serious Charges Against Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association Officers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Charges of a serious nature are made against the officers of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association of New York in a bill filed in the circuit court. The bill was prepared by Attorney William E. Mason, who represents a number of the Chicago policy holders, and is brought for the purpose of enjoining the company from declaring their policies lapsed, owing to a dispute which has arisen, and which the courts are called upon to settle.

The complainants show that they took out policies upon the recommendation of the company, through its agents, that the insurance business carried on by it was on the mutual plan, and that a very small reserve fund only was to be maintained by the company for emergencies. Also, the recommendations included, the court is informed, the statements that the assessment would not reach beyond a maximum amount.

The charge is made that the company is conducting the business of insurance in the state of Illinois in gross violation of the state laws, and by doing so are increasing the expense of insurance to the complainants, without any corresponding benefit.

The complainants further charge the fact by terms that millions of dollars of insurance has been issued by the present management of the company without bringing in one dollar of benefit by way of cash payments.

They secured money and jewelry valued at $150 and valuable papers. The robbers then went to a neighbor's and stole a horse and buggy and escaped.

How To Use Cottolene

the new shortening, like all other things must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never, in any recipe, use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you used to use of lard. Never put Cottolene in a hot pan. Put it in when cold and heat it with the pan. Be careful not to burn Cottolene. To test it, add a drop of water; if hot enough, it will pop. Cottolene, when rightly used, delights everyone. Get the genuine, sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, CHICAGO and 192 N. Delaware Ave., Philadelphia.
