Judge Bradley Releases the Accused Officer from Custody.

GENERAL SCHOFIELD CRITICIZED.

The Judge Declares That the General's Action Was Unwarranted, Illogal, Un-Just and Tyrannical—The Judge Advocate General Appeals the Case.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.-Judge Bradley, of the district supreme court, ordered the discharge from custody of Captain George A. Armes, who was arrested on the order of Lieutenant General Schoffeld, just prior to the latter's retirement from command of the army, for having written him an in-sulting letter. Judge Bradley scored the action of the ex-general of the army, characterizing it as unlawful, tyrannical and capricious. In discharging Captain Armos Judge Bradley said:

"The arrest and taking away of Armes into custody, carrying him away from his home to barracks, and holding him in CAPTAIN GEORGE A. ARMES, RETIRED. of crime preferred in any way against him, was and is unjust, unlawful, arbi-trary, tyrannical and capricious on the part of General Schofield, in whatever capacity he acted ,whether as lieutenant general or acting secretary of war.

Judge Bradley, in his opinion, expressly recognized the right to court martial a retired army officer, saying: "By Section 1,356 of the revised statutes of the United States he is 'subject to the rules and ar-ticles of war, and to trial by general court martial for any breach thereof,' " and he declared that arrest was not essential to a court martial.

Speaking of the letter written to General Schofield by Armes he cited the articles of war relative to complaints by officers and men and said: "This was a personal and a private communication to that officer. It makes grave charges of persecution, injustice, wrong and unjust and improper official action by General Schoffeld to the petitioner. If these charges were true, would their making be conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, office hours: Every day, I to 5 p. m. Sundays for conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline? If the petitioner believed or thought that they were well founded would it be such conduct?

"Is it possible that an officer in active service may lawfully seek redress from the commanding officer of his regiment, who he thinks has wronged him, and that a common soldier may lawfully complain of common soldier may lawfully complain of an officer if he thinks himself wronged by him, but a retired officer, out of active service, engaged in the pursuits of civil life, cannot complain to the general com-manding the army of wrongs that he thinks or believes the general has inflicted upon him without being subjected to summary arrest and incarceration and ulti-mate trial by court martial? If so, then there is a rigid, unwritten discrimination against such an officer that should receive arly attention and righting from our national legislature."

The judge advocate general's office of the war department has determined to take an appeal from the decision of Judge Bradley. This will carry the matter to the court of appeals of the District of

The war department officials were nat-ural much disappointed and chagrined at the decision of Judge Bradley. Secre-tary Lamont refused to say what his pur-pose was, but it is inferred, in view of the breadth of the decision, that no attempt will be made to try the captain by court martial pending the action of the appelate court upon the appeal noted. The case has utgrown its original importance, in view of the court's action, and now becomes of absorbing interest to all of the army, involving, as it is said to do, the whole ones tion of the amenability of retired officers to discipline.

All Her Life-Happy Release at Last The Porte's Answer to the Powers of Miss Alice Young, who Residen at 392 Alexander Street, Rochester, N. Y.

(From Rochester Democrat and Chranicle.)

Our representative was received very pleasantly at 392 Alexander Street, by Miss Alice Young, who told how since calldhood she had been held in the bond age of pain from her back, never remembering the time that she had not suf-fered pain or aches in the region of the kidneys. Many were the means she used to find relief, but there seemed no remedy for her case and she still remained a cap-tive; then along comes these little enemies for her case and she still remained a capite; then along comes these little enemies to backache, Doan's Kidney Pills, and a half box releases the bonds, as one by one the aches and pains disappear, she finds herself a slave to pain no more, by their continued use. She says: "I was entirely relieved of all my suffering and now I amperfectly strong, healthy and well."

"How did you take this remedy !" Miss Young was asked by our representative, she replied that she followed directions explicitly. Miss Young then told how the total of the saying her symptoms were: "Stooping, bending over, walking or standing any length of time always gave me a pain in the small of my back, I had a pain in the kidneys all the time, and if I caught cold it would always settle there; the pain I suffered was of a very exhausting nature; at night I could only lie flat on my back, were affected and this brought with it severe headaches, but as I said before, Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all.

BARRICADED ARMENIANS FREED

They Leave the Church Where They Had Taken Befuge Buder Eccurt of the Dragcommon of the Bufferent Embances-Fours of a Mostem Uprising.

Cos cassisants Oct. 11 - Late yester day it weame known that the Turkish government had finally presented to the envoys of the six powers a reply to their collective not you the subject of the recent

They exhemated the courtes in the presence of the dregoman of the emission of the different formals. sign powers who were present on behalf of their entities les to ensure the safety of the refurest and to report on their return to their names to the amoustours.

The situation is far from reassuring. While the Armenians and some sections of the Christian population show has alarm, the Moslem element is in a state of effervescence, which is causing the great-est armidge at the palace. Revolutionary placards were posted yesterday at the mosques and other public places, clamor-ing for a constitution and for a meeting of national assemblies.

Though great exasperation is felt by the Moslem classes against the Armenians, the young Turkish party is adreitly profit-ing by the general confusion by exciting animus against the sultan, who it declares to be primarily re-ponsible for the present state of affairs. The principal fear at the palace arises, not from the Armenians. but from the revolutionary spirit displayed by the Moslems. This fear will almost rtainly bring about Armenian reforms which there is every reason to hope will be embodied as published before the end of he week.

The sultan continues to be greatly disturbed by the presence of the British fleet off the Island of Lemnos, and has sent again to the ambassador of Great Britain. Sir Philip Currie, to ask for the while drawal of the British warship from the entrance of the Dardanelles. Sir Philip, it is understood, persists in refusing to recommend the withdrawal of the squad-

A long procession paraded the streets and then went to the semetery, where the monument in memory of the Culam leaders who perished for the cause was decorated. John Buel Frazier, a ne-gro, was accidentally killed by the explosion of a cannon during the celebration, the top of his head being blown off.
