DURRANT'S EVIDENCE.

Prosecution Declares He Omitted Important Details.

WHAT HE TOLD MISS CUNNINGHAM.

Said He Saw Miss Lamont's Dead Body in the Belfry on the Afternoon He Repaired the Sun Burners—A Sensational Confession.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Now that Durrant has told his story on the witness stand and has made answers to all the accusations implied by the cross questions of the prosecution an impression exists among those who have watched the trial closely that there is something to come which will perhaps have more effect on the minds of the jury than the guilt or innocence of the defendant than anything that has gone before. This feeling is due to the confidence with which District Attorney Barnes put a series of startling questions relating to a conversation held by Durrant with a newspaper reporter, Miss Carrie Cunningham, at the county jail within the past week, and also touching on the address and indorsement of a certain envelope which may or may not have contained a confession.

The prosecution witnesses will seek to show by their testimony that Durrant made admissions which destroys the whole fabric of the defense. These alleged admissions are taken by the prosecution as coming from the one person on earth who knows all that occurred beneath the belfry of the Emanuel Baptist church on the afternoon of April 3. The record of what passed at the county jail between Miss Cunningham and Durrant is thus told by the prosecution, which is in possession of the full facts:

On the evening of Sept. 23 Miss Cunningham visited Durrant at the county jail, and during the course of their conversation Durrant showed her a small envelope which bore the following address and indorsement: "Messrs. Dickinson & Durey. To be opened in case I am convicted. To be returned to me in case I am acquitted." Durrant told the young lady that the envelope contained a complete statement of all that had occurred at the Emanuel Baptist church on the afternoon of April 3. He said that it had been written in order that his attorneys might know the facts in the event of his being convicted of the murder of Blanche Lamont.

On the following evening, Sept. 23, Miss Cunningham again visited Durrant at the county jail, and there was shown a large envelope addressed like the other and smaller one. Durrant told her that the contents of the other envelope had become jammed up, and that he had transferred the written statement to the larger envelope.

On the morning of Oct. 5 Miss Cunningham held a conversation with Durrant at the county jail, and during the course of that conversation, and in answer to questions asked him by the young lady, he said that about 5 o'clock on the afternoon of April 3 he ascended the space between the ceiling and the roof of the Emanuel Baptist church for the purpose of fixing one of the sun burners. While at work he heard a noise which at once attracted his attention. It seemed to come from that part of the building where the belfry is situated. He walked along in the direction from which the sound came and peered through the opening that connects the space above the ceiling with the interior of the belfry tower. While in this position he saw the body of Blanche Lamont lying on the second landing of the belfry stairs. He repeated the details of the circumstances, and added that Blanche Lamont was murdered on the second landing of the belfry stairs. Miss Cunningham then said:

"Oh, yes, it was from the second landing of the stairs that the blood dripped down and stained the cloth covered picture frame on the floor below." Durrant replied that there was no blood on the cover of the picture frame, as "we have had the stains analyzed and find they were made by water, not blood."

An official inspection was made of the cloth covered picture frame referred to as being stained by blood. This inspection revealed the fact that the piece of the cloth cover, one inch by two inches in size, had been cut from the frame in the center of one of the largest blotches or stains. As this was not done by any one connected with the prosecution the inference is drawn that it was done by some one interested in the defense, and that it was for the purpose indicated by Durrant's alleged statement regarding the analysis.

The Superior Court Will Decide.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 14.—The question of how many candidates for judge of the supreme court can be voted for at the coming election will have to be settled by the supreme court, as Judge Simonon, president judge of the Dauphin county court, decided that seven candidates can be voted for, while Judge McPherson, the additional law judge of the same court, dissents in a manner and says that in voting for six the constitutional rights of a voter will not be invaded, at the same time formally concurring because he wishes the judgment of the president judge to stand. The attorneys have made out the papers for the supreme court and will present them today or tomorrow.

Shot to Protect His Mother.

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 14.—Little John Fox protected his mother, Mrs. Polly Ann Fox, and to do it he shot Ellsworth Harwi through the body. Harwi went to the hotel of Mrs. Fox and demanded a drink of liquor. He was refused because he was intoxicated, whereupon he took hold of Mrs. Fox by the throat. Her 10-year-old son procured a revolver and shot Harwi. The ball struck him in the breast and came out of his back. Harwi's recovery is doubtful. Mrs. Fox and her son were arrested.

Bavaria's Insane King.

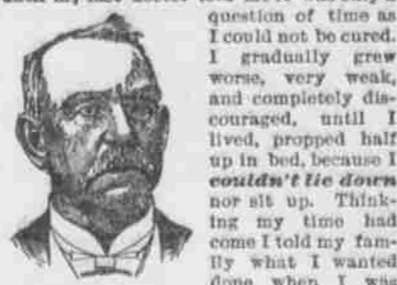

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—A few days ago Baron von Craillheim, president of the Bavarian council of ministers, made his periodical visit to the insane king, Otto. He found the condition of the king worse than ever. He even goes naked, and jumps about like an animal on all fours. He eats incessantly, taking his food off the ground. The windows of the place where he is confined are built up to prevent the entrance of light, which the mad king hates.

To Wed Water's Daughter.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—It is reported here via Paris that the Count of Tiffin, nephew of the king of Italy, is about coming to England and that he will marry one of the daughters of the Prince of Wales. The prince was born in 1870.

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart, and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I haven't lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4 1/2 inches and weigh 200 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

Dyesville, Ohio. SILAS FARLEY.

HARRISON AND MCKINLEY

The Ex-President Gave No Advice on the McKinley Tariff Law.

SOME MISLEADING STATEMENTS

Corrected by the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, Whose Editor Was Close to General Harrison during the latter's Administration.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14.—The Commercial Gazette, a strong McKinley paper, edited by Perry S. Beach, who was close to Mr. Harrison during his administration, says in today's issue:

A great deal has recently appeared respecting the attitude of President Harrison toward the McKinley tariff at the time of its adoption. It is contended that in the capacity of president-elect Harrison opposed the adoption of substantial tariff as high as those in the McKinley bill, and that he entered a protest against them to those who had the measure in charge.

One prominent Republican newspaper has stated recently that the McKinley tariff defeated Harrison's re-election and that this fact is the cause of "Harrison's feeling toward McKinley." Another influential Republican newspaper in the west announced that during the consideration of the McKinley bill President Harrison summoned its author and Speaker Reed, and warned them against the adoption of such high duties.

The Commercial Gazette is in a position to say that all such statements are untrue and misleading. Ex-President Harrison discovered neither course nor opinion in regard to the McKinley tariff. He took no part in drafting or the "united" opinion of the measure. No feature now that, so far as those who compiled it, is aware, represented his particular views or those with his specific disapproval.

Repeatedly President Harrison, when asked by those drafting the bill, what he thought of it, stated that the details should be left to those in charge of the measure; that they were responsible to the people, and were most familiar with the subjects in hand. He offered no advice.

When the bill went to the White House for signature the president did not, so far as is known, show any displeasure or offer criticism. Nor did he subsequently express displeasure with the law. If the law was ever held responsible for the defeat of 1892, President Harrison should stand blameless.

Received Into the Catholic Church.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—An interesting ceremony was performed last evening at St. Lawrence Roman Catholic church, when George W. Davidson, who was until yesterday sexton and director of a religious order in the high ritualistic Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, made a confession of faith, received absolution and was afterward baptized and received into the Roman Catholic church. The church of the Redeemer is a high Episcopal church. Mass is said there every day, confessions are heard and all the paraphernalia used in the Roman Catholic church in public worship is to be found there. Mr. Davidson is the first person to leave it for the Catholic church. The first was the Rev. Henry Austin Adams, formerly rector of the church.

A Young Lady's Tragic Death.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 14.—Miss Estella West, one of the most prominent young society leaders here, accidentally shot and killed herself yesterday afternoon at the country residence of her parents at Montgomery. The family were preparing to move into the city, and Miss West was fixing a revolver that had been presented to her for protection while in the country. She was unable to extricate the chamber, and in some way a cartridge was discharged. The ball struck below the clavicle and glanced upward. Miss West died an hour later. She was 21 years old, extremely pretty and a great favorite.

Noted Preacher Favors Open Saloons.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Rev. Dr. Heber Newton advocated open saloons on Sunday, and declared that a complete closing was an impossibility. In his sermon at All Souls' church yesterday he said: "Mr. Roosevelt has set the standard to which we must hold all his successors, but the question as to what the law should be is wholly another matter. Local option means far more than the rights of a city to settle its own excise system; it means that civic freedom with which comes the education of a civic conscience."

Died from Drinking Wood Alcohol.

COUDERSPORT, Pa., Oct. 14.—A strange poisoning case has happened on Young Woman's creek, this county. Mrs. Harry Lewis, who kept a house in the forest, where she sold an alcoholic mixture to woodsmen, several days ago got a two gallon keg of what was supposed to be ordinary alcohol. The stuff turns out to be wood alcohol. Mrs. Lewis drank of the liquid and gave some to her 17-year-old daughter, Lizzie. Both died in great agony soon afterward.

A Titled Preacher.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Rev. W. H. Evans, who supplies the pulpit of a Methodist church in Warwick, Orange county, during the past summer, has since fallen heir to an immense estate in Ireland, and he also gets the title of Lord Carbury. It is stated that the estate will net him an income of about $40,000 per annum. Mrs. Evans will be known as the Countess Carbury.

Assaulted and Robbed by a Footpad.

RIVINGTON, N. J., Oct. 14.—A daring footpad got $190 that was intended for the home of John McDermott, day engineer at the Drexler nurseries. In taking it he knocked McDermott insensible, cast him into a gutter and left him for dead, along one of the most frequented streets of the town at 7 o'clock in the evening. McDermott says he can recognize his assailant.

Double Tragedy on a Street.

GLOUCESTER, O., Oct. 14.—David C. Cooke, city marshal, was attacked on the street by ex-Judge Marshal Elmer Donnelly, who began firing at Cooke. Five shots were fired, and both fell dead ten feet apart. Cooke with four balls in his breast and Donnelly with a bullet through his heart.

Three Killed at a Political Meeting.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 14.—News has just reached here that a desperate fight occurred in Knott county at a political meeting, at which Winchester, revolvers and knives were freely used. Tom Howard, Henry Patton (Dem.), and Josiah Coombs (Rep.) were killed.
