

GOLDIN'S CORNER.

A Great Push for Fall and Winter Business at the Mammoth Clothing House.

We appreciate the want of and grasp the conditions of lower prices. We establish a new basis of lower prices. We took out the front and enlarged the capacity of our store fifty per cent, and then loaded it with the largest stock of Overcoats of the era and added the largest stock of Fall and Winter Clothing for Men, Youths and Boys and all the Latest Styles and Novelties in Clothing for the Children.

No back numbers! No misjudgments! No hygienic mistakes! No bankrupt trash! But new stylish overcoats and clothing made to be sold this season. Every man who buys an overcoat or suit at our prices is bound to see that his friend knows what is going on.

The way we're selling, it will take half the money to buy what you're used to in clothes. No doubt about it—millions turn to us to save money. $5 or $6.75 all-wool suit, good as before $10 or $12. $10 suit now, good as you used to get for $15. $12 suit now, good as you used to get for $17.

We're told we're getting too little, but we are not paying attention to the profits. We are looking for the trade. Overcoats almost given away. Note our prices. We are not content to sell at once. We want your friendship. If you call attention to any defect in our clothing we will esteem it as a great favor. Your money will be refunded if the goods are not as we represent them. We are promoters of low prices.

Our entire store represents superior taste which makes competition impossible.

Don't forget the place. Mammoth Clothing House, largest in Shenandoah, Nos. 9 and 11 South Main Street.

GIRARD ESTATE INSPECTION.

Annual Visit of the Board of Directors of City Trusts.

At about three o'clock yesterday afternoon two cars of the Shenandoah Traction line arrived at the corner of Main and Coal streets with the members of the Board of Directors of the City Trusts and a few invited friends. The party was smaller than in previous years by about fifty per cent, and there was an absence of the usual display of blue badges commemorative of the visit. It seemed more of a business jaunt than on former occasions and many of the party appeared to take little interest in the surroundings, they having been over the route many times. There were some new faces in the crowd, notably that of Judge John J. Wickham, who occupies a seat on the Superior Court bench by virtue of appointment by Governor Hastings.

The party was met by Superintendent Thomas Baird, who, with General Louis Wagner, led the procession up Main street to Line and over the mountain road to the Kehley Run colliery. Brief stops were made here and there to hear scraps of history from some well-posted guide concerning the breaches and the great fire that raged at the colliery several years ago. Arriving at a level spot near the timber grounds of the colliery the party assembled for general consultation. While the maps were being unrolled an EVENING HERALD reporter reached the scene and button-holed Mr. George E. Kirkpatrick, superintendent of the Girard Estate. General Wagner discovered the interview from a distance and exclaimed, "There is the inevitable reporter on hand. Who would imagine that we would be located by one up on this mountain, amid rock banks, coal banks, mine breaches and breakers?"

Then, as if upon second thought, the General wheeled about towards the scribe and his victim and exclaimed, "Say, George, is that Zerby, of the Republican, trying to pump you? If it is, throw him into a breach and we will exonerate you." General Wagner was assured by his brother, Capt. E. C. Wagner, that the reporter was not Zerby and he appeared content. Mr. Kirkpatrick stated to the reporter that the General's despondent suggestion was prompted by displeasure over certain comments the Pottsville paper recently made on Girard College.

Mine maps were produced and Superintendent Baird pointed out the new vein of coal that has been struck in the Kehley Run workings. He claims that it is the Lykens Valley vein and that it is six feet thick. Superintendent William H. Lewis was among those who viewed the map and was willing to bet a dollar that the vein is not six feet thick. General Wagner suggested that the ante be raised, but when Lewis would not consent Baird exclaimed, "I'll bet it is, and let Mr. Thompson, Mr. Lewis and me go down and see." Both offers went by default, as the party didn't have time to await the test.

After spending a few minutes at the top of the slope and watching the hoisting of two cars the party returned to the corner of Main and Coal streets and embarked on the two special Traction cars for a trip to the Hammond colliery and at 3:30 p.m. the tour of the day closed with the return of the party to Girardville.

The visiting party consists of John M. Campbell, John H. Converse, William B. Mann and General Louis Wagner, four of the Board of Directors of City Trusts; Judge John J. Wickham, of the Superior Court; Judge F. A. Brey, Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia; Judge William B. Hanna, and Judge Joseph C. Ferguson, Orphans' Court, Philadelphia; Charles F. Kindred, of the P. & R. R. E.; George E. Kirkpatrick, Superintendent of the Girard Estate; Frank M. Higley, secretary to the Board; F. Carroll and Francis E. Brewster, solicitors to the Board; Lieutenant E. C. Brooks, U. S. A., detailed as military instructor at Girard College; Dr. Theodore L. Chase, Philadelphia; A. H. Fetterolf, president of Girard College; Dr. William S. Janney, visiting physician to the College; William Janney, Willard B. Rivell, prefect of the College; Dr. E. Thomas, Professor of Chemistry at Girard College; Andrew McDonald, clerk to the Board; Emil S. Keck, of Philadelphia; W. A. Lathrop, General Superintendent Lehigh Valley Coal Company; Major Heber S. Thompson, S. H. Kaeber, Esq., Capt. E. C. Wagner, Col. D. P. Brown, Superintendent William H. Lewis and William Thickens.

Judge Howard Reeder, of the Superior Court, arrived at Girardville from Northampton last night and will remain with the party during the remainder of the tour.

At 8:30 this morning the Directors and the Philadelphia guests, accompanied by officials of this region, left Girardville by special P. & R. train for Ringtown and from that place, at 10 o'clock, took carriages to Drescher's Run, which the Girard Water Company proposes confining for its own use. Lunch was served at the Brandonville hotel at noon, after which the party went to Davis Run and inspected the pumping station of the Shenandoah public water works. The rest of the afternoon was spent at Girard Manor and some time was devoted to inspection of the proposed site for a summer home for Girard College pupils. The party will return to Girardville this evening and to-morrow will wind up its trip, paying a brief visit to Mahanoy Mine and proceeding to Philadelphia via Tamaqua, Lansford, Summit Hill and Manch Chunk.

RECEPTION TO THE DIRECTORS.

A Brilliant Affair at Capt. Wagner's Residence at Girardville.

A formal reception and a collation was tendered to the Board of Directors of City Trusts at the residence of Capt. E. C. Wagner, in Girardville, last night and proved a representative gathering of citizens of the coal region. In addition to the members of the party who are engaged in making the annual tour there were in attendance Judge T. H. B. Lyon, of Mahanoy City; Judge O. P. Reicht, Pottsville; Judge Deiter, Bloomsburg; Superintendent A. P. Blaklee, Delano; and George Clemens, Pottsville.

The early part of the evening was spent in social intercourse. Among the prominent figures of the gathering was Judge Wickham, whose commanding appearance and elegant, impressive address, won special recognition. Another was Col. William B. Mann, of Philadelphia. This venerable gentleman is upwards of 80 years of age. He has participated in the gatherings and tours of the directors for a number of years and, although too feeble to make all the visits entailed by the tour, he enjoys himself very much.

At eleven o'clock the collation was served. It was par excellence. It was prepared by Jacob Weber, a Philadelphia caterer, and embraced terrapin, oysters in many styles and many delicacies.
