

GOLDEN CORNER.

A Great Push for Fall and Winter Business at the Mammoth Clothing House.

We appreciate the want of and grasp the conditions of lower prices. We establish a new basis of lower prices. We took out the front and enlarged the capacity of our store fifty per cent. and then loaded it with the largest stock of Overcoats by the carload and added the largest stock of Fall and Winter Clothing for Men, Youths and Boys and all the Latest Styles and Novelties in Clothing for the Children.

No back numbers! No misjudgments! No by-gone mistakes! No bankrupt trash! But new stylish overcoats and clothing made to be sold this season. Every man who buys an overcoat or suit at our prices is bound to see that his friend knows what is going on.

The way we're selling, it will take half the money to buy what you're used to in clothes. No doubt about it—millions turn to us to save money. $5 or $6.75 all-wool suits, good as before $10 or $12. $10 suit now, good as you used to get for $15. $12 suit now, good as you used to get for $17.

We're told we're getting too little, but we are not paying attention to the profits. We are looking for the trade. Overcoats almost given away. Note our prices. We are not content to sell at once. We want your friendship. If you call attention to any defect in our clothing we will esteem it as a great favor. Your money will be refunded if the goods are not as we represent them. We are promoters of low prices.

Our cutting store represents superior taste which makes competition impossible. Don't forget the place. Mammoth Clothing House, largest in Shenandoah, Nos. 9 and 11 South Main Street.

EVENING HERALD

A DEFENSE OF GARFIELD.

Was in No Way Responsible for His Presidential Nomination.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 22.—Colonel William Perry Fogg, of New York, now in this city on business, was a warm personal friend of General Garfield, and was with him in the convention which nominated him for the presidency. "Garfield was nominated in a sudden whirlwind of political feeling," he said. "After the nomination I, with Governor Foster and N. B. Shreve, of Cleveland, accompanied him to his room at the Grand Pacific hotel. He was like one dazed, not seeming to fully comprehend what had befallen him. Presently Colonel Middleton, the brother-in-law of Senator Sherman, came into the room and congratulated Garfield. 'Moulton,' Garfield exclaimed earnestly, 'I want you to bear me witness that this is not the result of any word or act of mine.' Colonel Middleton responded even more emphatically: 'Any man who says that you had any part in bringing this about is a liar, and I will tell him so.'"

Central Pennsylvania Mines at Work.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 22.—So far as can be learned there was not a mine idle in either the Clearfield or Becks Creek regions yesterday except those at Glen Richey and three or four in this vicinity, at which the men stopped work in order to attend the mass meeting at this place. The men voted against suspension at this time, but resolved to make another effort for an advance at an early date. In the Becks Creek district the men are at work. It is reported here that the suspension in the Dulock and Pymatung districts was only partial, while at Hovado and Abile all the mines were at work. At Dulock less than a third of the miners quit work.

Remains Mined at Work.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 22.—The 300 mines employed at the North Leavenworth coal shaft quit work yesterday and visited the Home Riverside mines for the purpose of inducing the miners to quit. The North Leavenworth men are receiving only one cent for mine run coal, and the Home Riverside security cents. The workers in the Home Riverside mine are to be paid eighty cents.

CHANGE OF PROGRAM.

The One-Price Clothing House Has But One Motto—Low Prices.

The one-price clothing house has adopted the motto that its name implies, and from now on Mr. Kefauver will sell all goods at one price, and every garment in his establishment is marked in plain figures. A child can buy as cheap from him as an elderly person. We have the largest stock-room in Schuylkill county, and the largest stock. We buy all our goods for cash and therefore save a big discount and sell at a profit of five per cent.

I am the oldest and most experienced clothier in the valley, and can sell at retail to my customers at less than what any competitor can at wholesale. All goods in my establishment are guaranteed to be as represented or money refunded.

Frequently the Case.

A citizen, in speaking of the arrest of a drunken man the other day, says the officer should have taken into custody some of the young men who stood at the street corner and tormented the man until he became a nuisance. This is frequently the case. Many men would not fall into the clutches of the law if people who loiter about the streets would leave them alone and allow them to pass unnoticed. The loiterers are often the real offenders.

The Grand Estate Mines.

The Grand Estate has just published the report of the operations of its anthracite collieries for the eight months of this year to August 31, compared with the output for the same period of 1894. It shows that in eight months of 1895 the total shipments were 991,949 tons, an increase of 7,545 tons. The aggregate shipments to market for the whole year 1894 were 1,308,293 tons, and there were consumed in the mines in operating the engines 193,391 tons, making the total output from the mines of the estate 1,501,684 tons. The Grand Estate now has in operation 13 collieries, all of which are leased on a royalty to the following corporations or individuals: Reading Coal and Iron Company 5, Lehigh Valley Coal Company 3, Wm. Penn Coal Company 1, Thomas Coal Company 1, and 1 to Benjamin D. Brown. The engineer in charge of the Grand Estate mines and water works, which are also quite extensive, supplying a number of boroughs and railways as well as the collieries, is Heber S. Thompson.

Increasing Demand for Silver.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The best authorities on silver look for a steadily improving demand for the metal for some time to come. The willingness of Japan to accept the indemnity from China in silver contributed largely to the improvement in its price, which has been noted during the last few months, and the accumulation of the metal in London will go on in order to complete the installments of the indemnity at the various dates of payment. Both China and Japan are showing increasing inquiry for silver, and the silver smelters are said to be sold ahead for two months.

He failed to turn in the proceeds of these sales.
