Senator Tillman Taunted by a Delegate From Abbeville.

THE CONVENTION AT FEVER HEAT

For a Time it Was Feared There Would be a Personal Encounter Between the Senator and Mr. Gary, But Mutual Friends Prevented a Hostile Meeting.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 24.—Last night the constitutional convention was enlivened by a hot war of words between Senator Tillman and Mr. Frank B. Gary, a delegate from Abbeville, during which the lie was passed and it was expected that the two men would come to blows immediately after adjournment, which took place at midnight.

Senator Tillman is a firm advocate of forming new counties, while Mr. Gary is not. The former had been taunting Mr. Gary with forming unholy alliances politically to defeat new counties, though he never said exactly what they were.

Last night Mr. Gary said that it will become Benjamin R. Tillman to taunt any one with forming such alliances. He, Tillman, had entered into a secret combination to rush three new counties through the convention, and it came with poor grace from a man like him to be throwing such things into the faces of other men.

Senator Tillman got very much excited and resented the imputation against his honor and honesty. He said he did not want to have a personal difficulty with the gentleman or to break friendly relations, but he could not sit quietly by when such an untruth was uttered.

Mr. Gary replied that parliamentary usages and the respect he had for the convention prevented him from resenting then the words used by Senator Tillman, but he would hold him personally responsible outside. The convention was in an intense state of excitement. Senator Tillman made no reply, but sat quietly in his seat, though it could be seen that he was much wrought up.

Before adjournment friends began to try to settle the matter and avoid difficulty, which they succeeded in doing. After the convention both gentlemen met and mutual explanations were made. Mr. Gary misinterpreted some remarks Tillman made on Tuesday and that led him to call the senator to task, with the wordy war as the outcome. Mr. Gary is a cousin of Governor Evans, who was quite active in bringing about a reconciliation.

Killed an Officer to Avoid Arrest.

TIFFIN, O., Oct. 24.—Lee Martin, a farmer near Watson, yesterday tried to strangle a small boy to death. His screams brought the assistance of Frank Burkhardt, who was hunting in the woods close by. Burkhardt swore out a warrant for Martin's arrest, and last night Officer Sweeney and Marshal Shultz went to the scene. When they reached the home of Martin a terrible struggle occurred, in which Marshal Shultz was shot and died within a few minutes. Officer Sweeney was also shot, but not fatally. It is feared Martin will be lynched, though he is strongly guarded.

University Defeats Duquesne.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—The score in yesterday's football game was: University of Pennsylvania, 30; Duquesne, 0. This is the lowest score the university men have made this season. The game was fast and furious from start to finish. The first half resulted in one touchdown for Pennsylvania, no goal being kicked. In the second half the university made five touchdowns and kicked three goals. The weather was fine and a crowd of about 5,000 was present.

A Mine Fire Spreading.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 24.—The fire in No. 5 Delaware and Hudson mine at Plymouth has reached the plane, and has attacked some of the timbering. This has weakened the supports, and there are frequent falls of rock, making the work of fighting the flames exceedingly hazardous. Flooding the mine is the only remedy, and old miners say unless this is done there will be a general squeeze, such as that at the ill fated Gaylord mine over a year ago.

An Iron King's Suicide in Paris.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 24.—A telegram from Paris, France, received here by the family of Francis Hinton, the Milwaukee iron king, announces that Mr. Hinton had committed suicide in his hotel at Paris. Mr. Hinton was a man of great wealth, and was well known in the iron trade throughout the country.

The Prize Fight Fizzle.

HOT SPRINGS, Oct. 24.—The supreme court at Little Rock yesterday rendered its decision in the Corbett case. Judge Leatherman's decision was reversed, and the prize fight law sustained. Corbett was remanded back to the custody of the sheriff of Garland county. Chief Justice Bunn, in delivering the opinion, severely criticized Chancellor Leatherman, saying he had no authority for his action in the habeas corpus case. Now the representatives of both fighters, since it is known there can be no fight here, are claiming that their men are anxious to get at each other, but that this far it has ended in talk.

To Prosecute Crooked Bank Officials.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Oct. 24.—Resolutions have been adopted by the city council ordering the city attorney and a committee of aldermen to investigate the condition of the Superior National bank, the Douglas County bank and the Bank of South Superior, with a view of starting criminal prosecutions against the officers. It is said the city lost a large amount by the failure of the banks, alleged to be due to reckless and negligent management. It is said the Superior National was insolvent for twelve days, meantime receiving all deposits offered.

THE SUSPECTS COMMITTED.

Dempster, McDonald and McCorney Held for the Car Robbery.

THE THREE PLEADED NOT GUILTY

All the Men Have Very Unenviable Records. Dempster Attempts to Escape at Pottsville But Policeman Kreiger's Revolver Caused a Change of Mind.

William Dempster, Barney McCorney and Hugh McDonald, the three men arrested yesterday by C. & I. Policemen George Geiger and Peter Krieger and Constable Talbot Phillips, on suspicion of having broken open and robbed the freight car near the Lehigh Valley depot, were given a hearing before Justice Lawlor and committed to the Pottsville jail in default of $500 bail each.

In its present status the case does not appear to be a very strong one against the prisoners, but the police are confident that they will have ample evidence when the trial in court comes up. All the prisoners pleaded not guilty. McCorney only opened his mouth to make the plea. No amount of "pumping" could get him to say anything in addition. The police say he is one of the shrewdest crooks in the region. He completed a sentence in the Pottsville jail about three months ago for horse stealing and has a record for car breaking. He served one term for robbing the Lehigh Valley depot at Mahanoy City.

McDonald looks as deplorable as McCorney, but his countenance is not quite as vicious and appears more frank. He talks more, and sometimes says too much. His indignations became so insulting that the justice ordered his removal from the office. McDonald is a native of Robinson's patch, near Mahanoy City, and the police say his record is a bad one. He has served time for breaking into cars.

Dempster, who resides in town, is a rather good looking young fellow and was very neatly and comfortably dressed. His general appearance was much in contrast with that of the others. He admitted that he drank beer, or rather "rushed the grogery" with a crowd of lads in the lumber yard near where the car that was robbed stood, but denied that he had any hand in the robbery, or knew anything of it. Harry Davidson, one of the witnesses, testified that he resides near the scene of the robbery and was awakened by the noise made in breaking the seals on the car doors and he heard Dempster's voice while the work was in progress. He says he is well acquainted with Dempster's voice.

Mrs. Hawley and Mrs. Townsend, residents of the neighborhood, testified that they heard the noise when the car was broken open. One of the witnesses saw men carry a box up the railroad after the noise, but it was too dark for her to see who the men were. The other witness did not see anybody because she did not leave her bed. Policeman Kreiger and Thomas Connors testified to the discovery. Connors also said that Davidson told him he saw Dempster at the car during the robbery. Davidson said Connors was mistaken; he only heard Dempster's voice. The hundred pounds of tobacco stolen from the car was consigned to Musser & Beddall, the East Centre street grocers. Sixteen pounds of the tobacco is still missing.

While on his way to the Pottsville jail Dempster attempted to escape from the officers. Kreiger instantly drew his revolver and, as he leveled it, exclaimed, "Stop! I won't tell you again." Dempster had run about twenty yards and turned his head. Seeing the revolver aimed he stopped. When he returned to the officer he was trembling with fear and walked to the jail without giving any further trouble.
