There's Just What You Want.

The conservative Republicans of the county are "dead onto" the fellows who pretend to be in earnest in their support of that party's county ticket, but who are in reality playing for position in the national delegate fight of next year. There are Republicans who are doing tall shouting for their county ticket, but who wouldn't care a rap if every man on t were defeated, if they themselves could out be placed in positions to win next year. This is one reason for the apathy exhibited by many Republicans of prominence.
