A Summary of Political Events as Seen at the County Seat One Week Before the Election-Republicans Are Confident.

Special HERALD Correspondence

POTTSVILLE, October 28, 1895. That interest in the present campaign is assuming greater proportions is now apparent to the most casual observer of political events. One week ago there was considerable apathy on both sides; previous to that time the people did not appear to know nor care that an election was to take place in this county on the 5th of November. But from present indications the campaign will wind up amid much enthusiasm.

Gratifying reports of the progress of the campaign continue to come in at headquarters, which foreshadows the success of the Black and Colored HENRIETTA, a full as: cuttre Republican ticket. With Dunn on the bench and Reilly laid on the shelf their path will be clear in 1896, and for some years to come. This is the secret of their great desire to see Dunn successful, and if it be necessary they will sterifice the balance of the ticket to accomplish their end. It can be seen, therefore, that all is not harmony among the Democratic cohorts, The candidates have adopted the policy of every man for himself, and as a result there Republican leaders, who appear to hold their forces in a solid body without any breaks. If this line of battle can be continued notif that it cannot, Chairman Payne will lead the party to its third consecutive victory.

Fortunately the flame of the lamp was extinguished in the fall and no fire resulted. The police were called and they arrested the offender, who was discharged upon paying the borough fine and costs, the woman refusing to prosecute.
