STATE TICKET.

STATE TREASURER,
BENJAMIN J. HAYWOOD, of Mercer.

SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES,
JAMES A. BRAVER, of Centre,
E. W. WILLIAMS, of Lackawanna,
CHARLES E. BROWN, of Luzerne,
GEORGE R. ORLANDY, of Huntingdon,
JOHN J. WICKHAM, of Berks,
HOWARD REEDER, of Northampton.

COUNTY TICKET.

JUDGE OF ORPHANS' COURT,
THOMAS H. B. LYON, of Mahanoy City.

CONTROLLER,
BENJ. R. SEVERN, of Shenandoah.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY,
CHAS. E. BRACKONS, of St. Clair.

CORONER,
DR. S. J. SEYFERT, of Pinegrove.

DIRECTOR OF THE POOR,
S. R. MIDDLETON, of Gilberton.

COUNTY SURVEYOR,
JOSEPH W. GRARY, Jr., of Pottsville.

A VOTE once lost is lost forever. The election occurs November 5th.

THIS is no longer a campaign of silence. Danl. Shepp's bar has been tapped at the bung.

If the number of weddings constantly taking place is any indication, times ought to be becoming very prosperous hereabouts.

It is all right for railroad managers to smash the record in speed of trains, provided they smash nothing else in trying it.

THE Cuban insurgents who were arrested in this country, and tried and acquitted at Wilmington, Del., have gotten into trouble again, falling into the clutches of John Bull in the Bahama Islands this time, and will hardly get off so easily.

POOR Turkey, like some other countries, is suffering from what is described as "the progressive element." If they will only succeed in driving the Sultan and his court to the deserts of Arabia we will incline to believe them capable of real progress.

THE true friends of Democracy will vote to remove the present incompetent administration of the District Attorney's office. The official was elected to prosecute, not shield, offenders of the law. We still believe young Bechtel, the nephew of his uncle, is beaten.

THE Chairman of the Republican State Committee seems to be a rather prominent personage in the National Committee, and his opinions and sayings appear to be of considerable importance to metropolitan journals just now. He was described by Lord Sackville as "one Quay."

IS the person of Dr. S. J. Seyfert, of Pinegrove, the Republican place before the voters of the county a candidate for Coroner of irrefragable character; a physician prominent among the medical profession and of many years' practice; and an upright and honorable citizen. He is a consistent and aggressive Republican, and is in every way the peer of his opponent. The Democratic nominee for this office is a perfect gentleman and a physician of acknowledged ability, but this fact does not justify any Republican in giving him a complimentary vote. It is by this means he hopes to be elected, and to avoid that it is the duty of Republicans to vote their ticket from top to bottom. It is the boast of the Democratic candidate that he never scratches his ticket even in borough elections, and the Republicans of this section of the county should follow his example in that respect at this time.

It is, perhaps, rather early to discuss the Senatorship in the 29th district, but as the early bird is said to be the one that gets the worm for breakfast, it is not too early to look around for good candidates, and among those mentioned in connection with the nomination is Col. Thomas H. Elckert, of Pottsville. The colonel is well known throughout the county and numbers his friends by the thousand, and it is to be hoped he will accede to the requests made by many of them to enter the contest. He has been active in the councils of the party, and always ready to render assistance when needed. His successful career as a business man renders him eminently fit for the office which he would fill with credit to himself and his constituents, and as Senator Keefer has had about as much of the good things, politically speaking, as any one man is entitled to, in the opinion of a large number of voters of the district, no better successor could be found than Col. Elckert. It is the opinion of many, too, that some one who is more closely in touch with the voters of the district should be chosen, and no one is more so than genial Tom Elckert. He should have no opposition.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP.

In an address before the National Reform Association, at Mechanicsburg, Rev. Charles Roads, son of ex-Chief of Police A. H. Roads, of town, spoke upon what constitutes good citizenship. His remarks are very appropriate at this time, on the eve of an important election.

Among other things the reverend gentleman said: "The fundamental principles of good citizenship must be based upon Christian ethics as applied to good government, and our civil life must harmonize with our Christian life. Our right to vote is a royal privilege; a grand prerogative, and we should exercise that right with a stiff back bone. In order to exercise the right of true citizenship we should scrupulously and jealously inquire into the character and merits of the men who are placed before us for offices of great responsibility, and we should especially inquire into their political and ward heeler record. There has been a great and grand reform in our elections; fraud and repeating are being gradually, but surely, stamped out."

If Troubled With Rheumatism Read This.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Apr. 16, 1894.—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pains on the market and cheerfully recommend it to the public. Jno. G. Brooks, dealer in boots, shoes, etc., No. 18 Main St.

NOTED BOTANIST DEAD.

Robert Brown, Who Had Traveled All Over the World.
LONDON, Oct. 28.—Dr. Robert Brown is dead. Dr. Brown was born at Campster, Caithness, March 23, 1812. He was educated at the University of Edinburgh and in the European universities. Between 1833, 1836 and 1837 he traveled for scientific purposes in many of the least known parts of America and some of the Pacific Islands, the West Indies and Venezuela, Alaska and Behring sea coast and Greenland. He was honorary or ordinary member of many learned societies in England, in America and on the continent, of many of which he was an officer. His name has been attached to various species of plants. He wrote wholly or conjointly about thirty volumes and a large number of scientific memoirs, and nearly 4,000 articles in reviews in various languages.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by Grubler Bros., Druggists.

Dr. Talmage at Washington.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Rev. T. De Witt Talmage preached his initial sermon as co-pastor of the First Presbyterian church last night. The crowd was an immense one, and it is safe to say that had Convention hall, the largest public place of gathering in the city, been used for the purpose it would not have been large enough to accommodate the number that went to hear the noted Brooklyn divine. Seven policemen were on hand to keep the people in order, and two ladies who were in the church fainted and had to be carried out. Dr. Talmage occupied the pulpit alone, and Rev. Byron Sunderland, the regular pastor of the church, took a seat in the audience.

Painted in the Puttip.

GREENVILLE, O., Oct. 28.—Rev. C. W. Hoegler, the Republican candidate for the legislature, charged with offering the Democratic executive to vote for a Democrat for senator if they would give him $1,500 for election purposes, appeared in the pulpit to preach yesterday. After announcing that he had taken a powder which a boy brought him at midnight, supposing it to be from his family physician, he fell back fainting into a chair, creating the greatest confusion. To all questions he responded: "My lips are glued." He was taken to his home, where admission is denied all callers.

Worn Out Women

Should read this letter. It shows the wonderful building-up powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

"I wish I could stand in some public place and cry to alluring humanity, 'Hear this, ye people, what wonderful things Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me and my family.' I cannot express what I suffered. Only one of my sex now what a woman can suffer in my condition. I was prostrate with nervousness and weakness. The least noise would drive me frantic. I decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am overjoyed to say that I am now well, hearty, rosy and plump."

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine for those suffering as I have suffered. Mrs. C. C. KIRKPATRICK, Pine Grove, Penn. Buy six for $3.

NO LYNCHING IN OHIO.

Brave Defense of a Prisoner by a Sheriff and His Guard.

TWO WOULD-BE LYNCHERS KILLED.

The Determined Attitude of the Officials Overawed the Riotous Mob, and the Prisoner Was Spitted Away—Governor McKinley Orders Out Troops.

Tiffin, O., Oct. 28.—The city has been shocked from center to circumference over the attempt to lynch Marshal Schultz's prisoner. The mob that attacked the jail early yesterday morning was composed of the worst specimens of law defiers that any community could produce. Whisky had been indulged in to the extent that they were more like bloodthirsty wolves than human beings. To reason with them meant danger, if not death, to the peace-maker. The mob came from an entirely unexpected source. The report was current that a crowd of farmers from Utopia township was congregating and organizing on the outskirts of the town, and the attack was expected to be made by them. But instead it was done by fellows who had been circulating in the vicinity of the jail all evening. It was hardly supposed that they would dare to do such a thing, and the police made no effort to quiet them.

Thus matters went on until about 1:15 a. m. Six men gathered on the lawn about fifty feet from the jail, and in a moment about thirty others joined them. Then a sharp whistle was heard, and out of an alley on the opposite side of the street rushed fully 800 more, the leaders carrying a rope and several sledge hammers with which to accomplish their work. The sledge hammers were thick enough to hang a dozen men. As the mob made the rush towards the jail they emitted yells that were blood curdling, eclipsing any savage yell ever uttered.

A squad of policemen who had stationed themselves on the steps were whisked to one side as though they were so many straws. Officer Kelfor, who made a brave and fierce resistance, was struck on the head with a sledge and kicked brutally. He was carried home unconscious, and is now hovering between life and death. Officer Fischer was thrown against a brick wall and partially stunned, and Officer Hennessy was tumbled over in the grass and kept there by a ruffian, who held a murderous looking club over him and threatened to kill him if he did not lie still. The other officers were treated in the same way.

The mob went direct to the side entrance and commenced the onslaught on the door with their sledges. They were without any reason whatever, and made no demand for the keys. Michael Schmidt, a powerful teamster, wielded the sledge, and the door was broken in splinters in a short time. With each blow the fury of the crowd increased. When the entrance was gained there was a wild rush and the hallways were filled with excited men. Sheriff Vannest and three men stood in the opposite end. He appealed to them most bravely and strongly several times, asking them to disperse. It did no good, for the men only grew fiercer.

The entrance to the corridor is first protected by a heavy sheet iron door. The lock was broken off with a few blows and then there remained the heavy grating. Then it was that the guards, who were in that portion, began to fire. At first they shot over the rioters' heads. One of the guards declares the man swore to kill every person inside, and to show their purpose they began to fire at them. The guards said no shot was fired by them until the attacking party had fired through the grating first. Henry Muehler, the first man killed, was the one who carried the rope. He was shot through the left temple, the ball coming out on the right side, and he died instantly. Then Christ Matz received a bullet through his heart. He was also picked up dead.

This work and the determination of the guards would be lynchers, and they left the place cursing and wilder than ever. Vic Vendone, a young Italian laborer, left with the intention of getting dynamite to blow up the building, but he never put in appearance afterward. While in the midst of the attack Vendone rushed upon a daughter of the sheriff and threatened to kill her. Another fellow held a revolver close to the heart of Andrew Grover, a one armed son-in-law of the sheriff, and pulled the trigger, but it missed fire, and the next instant the one fist of Grover fell the would-be assassin to the floor.

The sheriff's family was up stairs, and one of the mob swayed them at the head of the stairs, rushed viciously at them, but some one threw him headlong to the bottom.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning, after the mob had moved further down the street, the prisoner was handcuffed, taken through a side door and then to a side alley, where a carriage was in waiting. Police Captain Falkner and Officer Sweeney took him to Sandusky county as fast as the horses could carry them. Many people refused to believe that the prisoner had been taken away, and at 10 o'clock a crowd numbering hundreds started to make another attack, but wiser counsel prevailed. Finally, to pacify them, one of their number who knew the murderer, was allowed to search the building. He did not find the prisoner, and so informed the crowd, but they refused to believe him. Then Company K, of the Second regiment of militia of this city, was called to guard the building.

In the afternoon the crowd again surrounded the place. They became so determined that a committee of six well known citizens again searched the building from cellar to garret. Among the party was Mayor Fox, and when they had finished the search he appeared on the front steps of the building, and in behalf of the committee said the man could not be found. Captain Falkner, who had just returned from Sandusky county, spoke to the crowd also. They could not help but be satisfied, and the greater part dispersed.

In response to the governor's orders, Company I, of the Sixteenth regiment, thirty-five men; Company D, Sixteenth regiment, forty-five men, and Companies G and I, of Kenton, arrived last evening, and a strict guard will be kept for several days. Over 300 guardsmen are here. The crime for which an attempt was made to lynch Lee Martin was committed last Wednesday. Martin was a farmer, living a short distance from Tiffin. A warrant had been issued for his arrest on the charge of having threatened to kill Ezra Smith, a neighbor. City Marshal August Schultz and Policeman Sweeney, of Tiffin, went to his house to arrest him. Martin swore that he would never be taken alive. The officers sat down and tried to reason with him, but to no purpose. When Martin's attention was attracted for an instant by a noise outside, the marshal sprang upon him and grasped the rifle. Martin, growing desperate, disengaged one hand and pulled his revolver, and fired three times, all the shots taking effect in the marshal's body. Schultz died in twenty minutes. Abraham Sheldier, Ezra Smith's father-in-law, struck Martin with a stone, and held him until Officer Sweeney secured him with handcuffs.

THE SHERIFF LAID IN WAIT

And Presented Wholesale Murder by Killing the Would-be Murderer.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 28.—L. U. Orme, sheriff of this county, yesterday afternoon shot Dr. Rose at Mesa, sixteen miles east of Phoenix, with a shotgun, killing him instantly. Rose, with two confederates, had attempted to murder the Williams family, consisting of the doctor, his young wife and daughter. The latter was formerly the wife of Dr. Ross in Kansas. The confederates, Burt and Cooley, were captured and placed in jail. Burt previously gave the plot away to the sheriff, but was afraid to refuse to help execute the plans of the murderer for fear Rose would kill him. Sheriff Orme was in Dr. Williams' bedroom awaiting the assassin, while United States Deputy Marshal Stankard remained outside to watch. At 9:30 Burt came out and sent the servants and unlocked the door. At 11 o'clock he returned with Rose and entered the house. Rose had a blacksmith's hammer in his right hand, a wagon spoke in the other, and a pistol in his pocket. Two dummies had been placed in Dr. Williams' bed. Rose struck one with the hammer. Sheriff Orme said: "Hold up your hands. I am sheriff of this county, and have you covered with a double barreled shotgun?"

After waiting a few seconds he again said: "I will surely shoot if you don't throw up your hands."
Rose failed to do so, and the sheriff fired both barrels, killing him. Rose was wanted by the government for holding up mails, and also in Kansas for bank robbery. He had $500 and seven doses of arsenic sewed in the waistband of his trousers.

Fatal Freight from Hazing.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Oct. 28.—Fright over an attempted hazing at Michael's university may prove the death of Miss Mary Jennings. A. M. Gifford, coach of the football team, and two students, attempted to haze Theodore Vera, son of Colonel Vera, of Custer, Pa. Disguised and masked they came upon Vera, with pistols presented. The young man ran into the college tower stricken, screaming murder. Miss Jennings, of the college, became so frightened at his cries that she fell unconscious to the floor. She has not yet recovered consciousness, and her recovery is doubtful.

No Cuba Day at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Oct. 28.—At yesterday's meeting of the exposition directors many directors who were not present when a day was set aside for Cuba brought the matter up again, and insisted that the exposition company should not take part in matters of international concern. After discussion the day was postponed from Nov. 6 to 17. This is regarded as virtually an indefinite postponement, for the day is so near the close of the exposition that it is not likely it will be further considered.

RESCUED.

On Lake Erie's Shores.—The Captain's Wife Tells the Story.—It Will Interest Many People.

(From the Buffalo Evening News.)

If you were to call at 27 Front Avenue you would find a pleasant elderly lady, Mrs. Captain Hensley by name. Her kindly smile and joyous manner are to no small extent due to the escape she has had. Her own words can better describe her rescue and one can easily understand her present happy condition when they realize what she has gone through. She says: "About five months ago I had an attack of sickness which lasted for a week and since that time I have been subject to intervals to similar attacks, some of which were longer in duration. It is hard for me to describe how I suffered. The pain would commence in my head, after which it would seem to pass down my body and settle in my back, my sides ached, my back ached, and I had a feeling of great distress in the bowels. The increased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost unbearable, my face and stomach would heat up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziness made it almost impossible; this feeling was always within my even after the feeling of the attack passed over. The last attack I had was the worst, and was so bad I would not have been able to tell this story but for Doan's Kidney Pills. As soon as I commenced their use I found immediate relief. The pain in my back and sides left me and the dizziness went with it; the bloating in my face and body disappeared and all distress in my bowels was gone. I have great faith in Doan's Kidney Pills; in a short time they did a great deal more for me than all the plasters and medicines which I had resorted to in seeking relief and cure. I hope always to be able to procure them."
