TRAVELS OF YOUR BLOOD TREBIZOND MASSACRE. Proof Upon Proof. DURRANT CONVICTED.

BODY IN TWO CONTINUOUS STREAMS.

It Starts From Your Heart and Passes Through Your Kidneys .-- What is the Kidneys' Part, and How They Perform it .-- What These Two Streams Have to do With Health and Sickness.

Blood is made by your digestive organs. Your heart pumps it all over your body. It contains food, heat and nourishment, which it gives out as it goes along.

This is the first stream. It is rich, red, bright, and runs through blood vessels called "arteries." When it has given out all its food and life, it takes up in return all the waste matter it can collect, and starts back to where it came from.

This is the second stream.

It is dark colored, unhealthy, poisonous. It runs through blood vessels called "veins." It takes the shortest cut to your kidneys, for your kidneys are waiting to filter it.

When it reaches them, they filter out all poisonous matter and expel the poison from your body.

your body. Then the blood goes on to the liver and lungs, to get fresh food and heat, after which it begins its journey all over again. BUT: When the kidneys don't filter the blood, it passes on just the same, and then, instead of leaving food and life wherever it passes, it leaves behind it poison and disease. This is what makes us sick: Impure blood.

This is what makes impure blood : Sick kidt kidneys. So long as the kidneys are well, they will filter the blood.

Bo long as the kidneys are well, they will filter the blood.
 When they are sick, they can't, and that is the long and short of It.
 So that, when your kidneys are sick, or when you have Rheamatism, Gout, Amenna, Chloroais, Neuralgia, Nervoumess, Loss of Ambition, Tiredness, Depression, Sleeplessness, Backache, etc., you may easily get well by curing your kidneys.
 For all those symptoms are symptoms of blood, diseases. All of them are caused by the kidneys not properly filtering your blood. All of them can be cared by taking Dr. Hibb's Sparagus, Kidney Pills.
 Tr you have eaten Asparagus, and of course you have, you must know the action it had on your kidneys.

YOUR BLOOD TRAVELS THROUGH YOUR Statement from an Eye Witness of the Terrible Slaughter.

THE SCENES OF SASSOUN REVIVED.

Unsuspecting Armenians Founced Upon and Put to Death on the Streets-Their Shops Looted and Their Property Distributed Among the Murderers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 .- The following statement is taken from private letters re-ceived by a gentleman in this city in regard to the recent disturbances in Trebizond, Turkey:

"The excitement in Trebizond began about Oct. 9, when an attempt was made on the life of the ex-vall of Van. He was shot and wounded by an Armenian revo-lutionist, who has not yet been captured. and is supposed by the government to be concealed somewhere in the city. The ex-citement of the Turks was, of course, greatly increased on hearing of matters in Constantinople. They seemed to infer that all the Armenians were banded to-gether and in armed rebellion against the guvernment. The Turks themselves rep-resented that they were afraid of an at-tack from the Armenians, and even in some cases took measures to put their foreilles because of actions. families in places of safety.

"On Friday, Oct. 3, there were extensive movements of armed men on the streets. About 11 o'clock they seemed to disperse, and nothing specially worthy of attention occurred through the night. On Satur-day, Oct. 5, the excitement in the town was very intense. The consuls had a con-sultation, and going in a body to the vall earnestly pressed him to arrest those who were exciting the people to acts of outrage. The vali declined to do so, but prom ised in his own way to do the right thing "Until Monday, Oct. 7, matters seemed to be quieting down when an incident stirred up the excitement anew. On the previous Friday night the son of a leading Turk of the town was wounded on the street, some say by one of his own com-panions, others that he was shot by an Armenian whom he was trying to arrest. On Monday he died and the funeral re-vived the excitement in an intensified form, and loud and many were the threats of mussuere that night, and hundreds of the Armenians rushed to places of safety. 'The next morning, Oct. 8, all dispersed in the hope that the danger was past. Men went to their shops and were encouraged to open them, as they had not done for two or three previous days. Suddenly the trou-ble began. Unsuspecting people walking you must kidneys.

"For five hours this horrible work of inhuman butchery went on. Then the sound of musketry died away, and the work of looting began. Every shop of an Armenian in the market was gutted. For hours bales of broadcloth, cotton goods and avery conceivable kind of merchan dise passed along without molestation to the homes of the spoilers. The intention evidently was to impoverish and as near as possible to hlot out the Armenlans of the town.

So far as appearance went the police and the soldlors distinctly aided in this savage work. They were mingled with the armed men, and so far as we could see made not the loast offort to check them. Apparently they took care to see that the right ones-that is, the Armenians-were killed. Also that an offer of surrender might be made to all that were found unarmed. To any found with arms no quarter was given, but large numbers were shot down without any proffer of this kind. This talk of surrender would seem to be on the supposition that all were in an attitude of resistance. One poor fellow when called on to surrender thought he was called on to give up his religion, and when he refused he was hacked to pieces in the presence of his wife and children. "While I write the town is in a great stir because news has come that the vill-age Armenians, thoroughly armed, are on their way to attack the town. The real fact, however, seems to be that the massacre is extending to the villages, but the constant effort is to show that this affair Office.-Mellet's Building, corner Centre and is only the quelling of an insurrectionlike Sassoun. "Not one of the perpetrators of these outrages has been arrested or disarmed, but all have moved about with the utmost freedom to accomplish their nefarious pur-pose. On the other hand many of the Armenians are in prison. While I write the wails of the newly bereaved fall on my ears. Throngs fill the schools that are under foreign protection and the consu-lates. There is no telling how many have perished. Four hundred is a moderate estimate-probably the figure would rise much higher, and how far the massacre will sweep through the villages remains to be seen.

Twenty Minutes' Deliberation. ANGUISH OF A STRICKEN MOTHER.

The Verdict Unanimous After

Mrs. Durrant Gives Way to Uncontrollable Grief, While the Prisoner Is Unmoved-The Verdict Wifdly Cheered. Case Will be Taken to the Supreme Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2 .- Theodore Durrant, assistant superintendent of Emanuel Baptist church Sunday school, was yester day afternoon convicted of the murder of Blanche Lamont, for which he has been on trial since July 22 Last. The jury was out twenty minutes, and arrived at the verdict on the first ballot. As there was no recommendation of mercy the punish-ment was fixed at death.

The scene in the court room when the verdict was announced will never be forgotten by those who were present. Judge Murphy finished his charge at 3:30, and the jury at once settired. Although there was supposed to be little prospect of a ver-dict being returned before 7 or 8 o'clock, the throng of spectators who had remained in the overcrowded court room all the aftermoon to hear the judge's charge settled themselves back in their seats to await the return of the jury. Mrs. Durrant and the prisoner talked and laughed together as if an acquittal were a foregone conclusion. They were surrounded by a half dozen friends, and the conversation was ani-mated when it because whispered about that the jury had agreed upon a verdict.

In an instant a hush fell upon the little circle that had gathered around the prisoner. Durrant's face, always pallid, as-sumed a glustly hue, and his mother was speechless. Then the door at the rear of the room opened and the jury filed in and took their seats in the box. Intense ex-citement followed. The room, although filled to its utmost capacity, was almost as quict as if it had been vacant. Judge Murphy, who had retired to his chambers. was summoned and took his place upon the bench. Clerk Morris asked the usual question as to whether the jury had agreed upon a verdict. Foreman Warren Dutton arose and replied in the affirmative. "We, the jury," said he, "find the defendant, William Henry Theodore Durrani, guilty of murder in the first degree." As the aged foreman, pale and tremb-ling, read the words that fixed Durrant's fate, a low rumbling noise like the rowr of a mob arose from the rear of the cour room. The next moment men ware chose ing wildly, while women wept hystorically in excitement. The bailiff rapped lotally for order, but the turnult continued for a for order, out the turnut continues or a minute before anything like quice could be broughtout of the disorder. When Dis-trict Attorney Barnes arose and asked that a day be set upon which the sentence of death should be passed upon the pris-oner Judge Murphy sold that sentence would be passed next Friday, upon which day he would abay as the day for the trick day he would also set the day for the trial of Durrant on the charge of murdering Minnie Williams.

During the tumult that followed the announcement of the verdict Durrant and his mother were lost sight of, except by the few who sat nearest thom. As the last words of the verdict were utt-red Durrant. made a spasmodic effort to rise to his feet but before he could do so his mother, with a half sigh, half moan, throw her arms around his neck and sunk back into ber chair. His mother's grief seemed to make Durrant forget his own position, and for the next few minutes he sat with his arms around her neek, trying to soothe her. The long strain of the trial, however, had completely shattered her self control, and it was some thue before Mrs. Durrant gould leave the court room. Durrant's father was not in the room when the ver dict was returned. As soon as the jury retired he went out into the corridors, not belleving that the jury would return for several hours, and he first learned that his son had been convicted when a cheer went up from the crowd in the building as the

MUSSER & BEDDALL,

Durrant recovered his old time composure as soon as he left his mother and prepared to return to the county jail. With his overcoat swing carelessly over his arm he walked leisurely out of the room, twirling his slight mustache with apparantly as little concern as if he were merely a spectator, instead of the principal figure in the exciting scene,

Aside from the spectators Mrs. Noble, Blanche Lumout's aunt, and Maud Lamanche in months and the Manche Lea-mont, the grand girl's sister, were appar-ently the imposes persons in the room. When the variated was announced Maud Lamonteness from her seat, clasped her hands, and then cried from sheer excite-ment. Mrs. Noble mixed smiles with tears, and shook hands with a number of friends who arowded around to congratulate her.

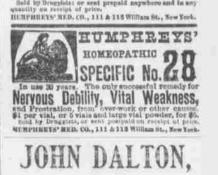

As soon as Durrant left the building the ered around the door, out of which the prisoner usually came to reach the prison ran. Fearing that some violence might be offered the prisoner, he was taken out of another door and driven by a circuitous route to the county juil.

The verdici fell with all its force on Durraut and his family, who had banked all their hopes on a disagramment. While Mrs. Durrant knew that it was only among rest in the mind of one of the jurors, and that her son would not be convicted. She was, therefore, totally unprepared for the jury to find her son guilty in twenty minpices.

ity common consent, District Attorney Barnes is given most of the credit for conviction of the greatest murdoror that was over tried in California. While the police department did excellent work, it is be-lieved that Mr. Barnes' address, which ponsumed two days and a half in its de livery, had much to do with removing any lingering doubt from the minds of the lurors, if at any time there was a juror who was not convinced of Durrant's guilt. The case will be appealed to the supremonry, and it is expected nearly a year will shapse before a decision can be obtained. While it is not thought that any error has been committed, the defense has embraced every opportunity to take exceptions to the rulings of the court. General Dickinson took exception to three features of the district attorney's argum at vestorday. He also look an exception to the Judge's churge.
