CHAS. E. BRECKON, of St. Clair.

DR. S. J. SEYFERT, of Pinegrove.

DIRECTOR OF THE POOR,

S. R. MIDDLETON, of Gilberton.

COUNTY SURVEYOR,

JOSEPH W. GEARY, JR., of Pottsville.

THE ISSUE.

The issue in the present campaign is met fairly and squarely by the Republican party in this county, a plank in the platform of which proclaims:

"We condemn the uniform incompetency of the Democratic county officials and especially denounce the present flagrant mismanagement of the District Attorney's office of pigeon-holing indictments against political offenders who openly defy the election laws; and call upon all good citizens, irrespective of party, to assist us in electing to that office a lawyer of such legal attainments and personal integrity as will ensure a proper administration of its duties and the punishment of all offenders, regardless of party or political influence."

We still think it will continue to be Judge Lyon.

SCAN well the ticket at the head of this column, and when you go to the polls place an X in the circle at the top of the first column of your ballot. That is the Republican column.

The office of County Surveyor is not an important one, but Joseph W. Geary, Jr., will go in with the tide. This is a Republican year.

THE FINAL CHARGE.

The campaign of 1895 is drawing to a close. All that remains now to be done is for the contending forces to marshal their strength for the final charge to-morrow at the polls. The apathy that has characterized the contest is something unusual in a political fight in this county, and has caused the leaders of both parties considerable uneasiness.

A feature of the contest—and one that is commendable—is the fact that the candidates of both parties have refrained from personal attacks and cowardly assaults in their appeals to the voters. This is also true of the party papers—with the exception of one or two unreliable sheets whose personal tirades no man of intelligence or self-respect dignifies with a reply.

So far as the HERALD is concerned, and the part it has taken in the contest, we have no regrets to offer. We have advocated the election of the Republican ticket in a dignified and manly manner. While the arguments we have presented to our readers may have occasioned our Democratic friends cold comfort, yet even the intelligent portion of that party are compelled to admit that we have used language becoming and self-respecting. We appreciate, too, the encouraging words of Republicans complimenting us upon the work accomplished in behalf of the ticket.

As we have thus and again stated, we believe it is in the best interests of the people of this county to elect Charles E. Breckon as District Attorney. From a party standpoint, he should receive the vote of every man claiming to be a Republican. He was the choice of the majority of the Republicans in the county as expressed at their nominating convention. In his canvass for the nomination he took no undue advantage of his opponents, and he has no warmer supporters to-day than the two bright young lawyers who deflated the primaries. If he had secured his nomination by intrigue or treachery, there might be some reason in not giving him the united support of the party. But that is not the case. Every Republican owes it to himself and to his party to vote for Charles E. Breckon. Why? Because he is a Republican; because his services for the party in the past, upon the stump and in the councils of its leaders, entitles him to the recognition he seeks; because his legal attainments are of a high order, and he is fully equipped for the duties of the office; because he stands squarely and fairly upon the platform of the Republican party, and has the courage to institute the reforms demanded by that plank bearing upon the District Attorney's office.

Outside of party lines, his candidacy appeals strongly to all voters favorable to a rigid enforcement of the law. While we have a high regard for the Democratic nominee as a gentleman, we do not believe he has that force of character that is so essential in a public official dealing with criminals. He has been one of the Assistant District Attorneys during the past three years, and it is a matter of history that indictments against violators of the law have been pigeon-holed in that office for some unexplained reason. The plank of the Republican platform published at the head of this column is a plain statement of the case, and the facts expressed in no uncertain words.

The truth of the statements are generally acknowledged, and from but one source has an attempt been made to refute them and ask for proof. We have refrained from this so far, for reasons that are apparent to all. It is not necessary to go outside of the limits of this borough to prove all that the platform asserts in this particular.

If you want to compliment anybody, dear Republican reader, Dr. Seyfert is worthy all you can bestow upon him.

With a unanimous nomination for the office of Controller our townsman, Benjamin R. Severn, goes before the people with a clean record. He has been tried in the position, and filled it with credit to himself and profit to the people. The young element will rally to his support to-morrow.

Do NOT make the great blunder of regarding this as an "off year" and stay away from the polls to-morrow. There is too much at stake for any Republican to sulk in his tent. In 1890 the presidential battle will be fought and the majority of the offices on "the hill" will be elected. With a decided victory this year, success in 1896 will be a much easier matter. On the other hand, if the party is defeated to-morrow it will give the Democrats an advantage that will require great effort to overcome. There must be no laggards in our ranks to-morrow. Every man is called upon to do his duty—and that duty is to vote, and see that his neighbor votes.

As Judge Lyon has performed the duties of his office acceptably to the bar and general public, why make a change? His fitness for the position his foes are unable to question, and he should be returned with a good majority. His adversaries are endeavoring to cloud the issue by bringing others into the fight, but Republicans will not be misled and will see that the party vote is given him to-morrow.

It now looks as if the people will make the board of Directors of the Poor unanimously Republican.

HOLMES has been found guilty of the murder of Pitzel in the first degree. While almost every one will acknowledge the man's guilt, yet there exists a grave doubt that the commonwealth had proved that he committed the crime beyond a shadow of doubt. The jury, nevertheless, were unanimous in their verdict, and the judge's charge was favorable to the commonwealth.

AFTER to-morrow our young friend Bechtel can take himself to the woods and reflect upon his own beauty. The other fellow will draw the salary.

We believe the justice of the claim of the Republicans in asking for minority representation upon the bench will meet with hearty approval at the hands of the voters of all political beliefs to-morrow. Judge Lyon's legal attainments are of a high order, and his fitness for the position of Orphans' Court Judge has never been questioned by even those who oppose his election. The only reason the latter offer in support of the Democratic nominee is purely partisan, and politics should not enter into the present contest. Judge Lyon now presides over the Orphans' Court, and should be continued in that position, and will if we mistake not the temperament of the voters of this county.

MR. SEVERN will continue to control the Controller's office, if the people have a say—and to-morrow they'll do the talking.

REPUBLICANS, if you fail to retain Judge Lyon upon the bench you will have no representative upon that tribunal. If you have a personal grievance it should be cast aside in deference to so momentous a question.

STEVE MIDDLETON, the candidate for Poor Director, has held many positions of trust at the hands of the people of Gilberton, his home. The opposition are putting up a strong fight against him, showing that they recognize his popularity. Steve, however, appears confident and says he will be the next Poor Director.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or barely keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there, sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Gruller Bros., Druggists.

THE DISORDERLY ARMENIANS.

The Friendly London Times Declares They Have Forfeited English Sympathy.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The papers this morning are full of Turkish troubles, and have columns of special correspondence from Constantinople. The Daily News, in an editorial, complains of the want of agreement among the powers as encouraging the sultana to withhold the imperial order enforcing the Armenian reforms. "It is most regrettable," the Daily News considers, "that Sir Phillip Currie (the British ambassador of Turkey) should have left Constantinople at such a critical time."

The Times says editorially: "Turkish news is of a grave and disquieting character. Like most things Turkish, the appointment of the Armenian commission of control appears to come too late. The Porte seems to hope that the summoning of the reserves will restore order, but at best the process of restoration is likely to be a rough one." The editorial then proceeds to argue that the Armenians, by their revolutionary tactics, have forfeited the sympathy of the English government, who have already, in their interest, gone as near provoking a disastrous disagreement with the European powers as would be permissible to a prudent nation.

How to Prevent Croup.

SOME READING THAT WILL PROVE INTERESTING TO YOUNG MOTHERS. HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THE DISEASE.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Gruller Bros., Druggists.

Whalers Threatened with Starvation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The schooner Rosario arrived from the Arctic ocean, bringing 3,000 pounds of bone, the residue of a catch of five whales. She is the first of the whaling fleet to reach port from the north, and it is within the limits of possibility that she may be the last. When she left the ocean the ice was forming fast, and it was heavier than it has been for many years. The Rosario brings confirmation of the news of a very poor catch in the Arctic. From the report of the Rosario it looks as if the entire fleet would be caught in the ice. The majority of the barks are provisioned with only enough stores to last them through the summer, and if they are compelled to spend the winter in the north starvation stares the whalers in the face.

Wealth Could Not Save Him.

BEAUBAIGNOIS, Que., Nov. 4.—Francis Cuthbert Valentine Shortis, who shot and killed John Loy and Maximo Le Boeuf in the Valley Field Cotton mill on the night of March 1, 1895, was yesterday found guilty of murder in the first degree. Robbery was the motive of the crime, but he got no money. Friends of his parents, who are very wealthy, immediately obtained the very best criminal counsel, and a money was spared to save him on the plea of insanity. A determined but unsuccessful attempt was made to lynch him at Valley Field, and for that reason he was brought to Montreal for safe keeping. Shortis is only 25 years old, and does not show the slightest feeling for what he has done.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her of this fatal disease. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at A. Wasley's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Harvey was fatally shot in the bowels, John G. Franklin clubbed to unconsciousness and others were badly bruised. The officers have not been able to capture any of the men.

NO GAMBLING IN VIRGINIA.

Governor O'Ferrall Orders the Destruction of Gambling Implements.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Governor O'Ferrall, of Virginia, has taken a decided move in regard to the gambling houses in Alexandria county, across the river from Washington. Acting on the orders of the governor Detective W. G. Baldwin, with a number of assistants from Roanoke, on Saturday night raided Jack Heath's gambling den, above Roslyn. Heath's gambling paraphernalia, worth $3,500, was confiscated, and yesterday it was destroyed. Faro tables worth $300 or $400 were broken to pieces, and gambling devices of every conceivable kind were chopped up. Governor O'Ferrall has given Detective Baldwin permission to burn the wrecked gambling outfit.

About 300 persons were present at the time the raid was made, and consternation reigned. The officers permitted twenty-three persons to cash in, and they were loaded into two large buses in which to convey them to Alexandria. Just as the buses were loaded three men appeared on a bluff near the place and commenced firing at the buses. The shooting frightened the horses, and one of the buses broke down, and one man was injured. The remaining prisoners were taken to Alexandria and locked up. Several of them are said to be Washington department clerks. It is believed that the governor's act will put an end to the gambling which has existed across the river a great many years. Jack Heath was not in the house at the time, and thus escaped.

A Woman Charged with Murder.

HACKENSACK, N. J., Nov. 4.—Joseph Giacarlo was stabbed to death Saturday night in a house on Lower South street, dying at midnight in the Hackensack hospital. Rosel Garataco, a married woman who has disappeared with her husband, is charged with the murder. Several different accounts of the crime are told by Italian residents, but all agree that it was the woman's hand that wielded the knife. Giacarlo and the accused woman are said to have lived together for a time. They separated, however, and have had several quarrels since, it is said.

Held on a Charge of Murder.

ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 4.—Frank Wilson, who was arrested at Scranton on Saturday, is charged with murdering an old man named Henry Zonneka in this city last April. Zonneka was a miser, and was killed for his money. The murder was a most brutal one, and several other men, it is said, were engaged in it with Wilson. Warrants have been issued for their arrest, and the authorities hope to have them in custody shortly. Wilson indignantly protests his innocence, and insists that his arrest and detention is unwarranted.

Shot Her Jealous Lover.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 4.—At the village of Eagle River Hootsley and Bettie Shields, who have been lovers, fell out on account of Hootsley's jealousy. She was seen by him on the street with another man on Friday, and yesterday he demanded an explanation, which was given, but which did not suit him. He fired at her, the bullet cutting her neck slightly. Bettie used her pistol freely in the street duel that ensued, shooting three times, and each bullet taking effect. Hootsley is dying and Shields is under arrest.

The Hyams to be Tried Again.

Hyams were brought to the bar, that they had killed Wells by dropping an elevator weight upon him in order to secure $30,000 insurance upon his life. The jury in the first trial stood eleven to one for acquittal.

Eighteen mules perished, and other property to the value of $10,000 was destroyed.
