! THE VANDERBILT WEDDING.

Immediate Relatives of the Bride's Father Received No Invitations.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 .- Although Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt was present at the wedding of his daughter and the Duke of Mariborough yesterday and gave the bride away, he left the church quietly immediately afterward, and was not present at the wedding breakfast. It was a significant feature of the wedding, and much commented upon, that few of Mr. Vanderbilt's relatives were invited either to the church to spend two or three weeks. or the weiding breakfast.

Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt's house is closed. He and his family are in Newport, and will not return to town for a days. Mrs. Elliot F. Shepard, Mr. Vander-bilt's sister, and her daughter, Miss Edith Shepard, salled for Europe yesterday. Mr. George Vanderbilt, F. W. Vanderbilt and Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt were not at the church. The reason for this absence. of the Vanderbilt family is said to have its foundation in the coolness between Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt and the Vanderbilt family as the result of her recent divorce from her husband.

At the welding breakfast the guests, as they arrived, were greated in the receptorified to her had by illness. She suffers tion room by the duke and duchess, who, from a severe cold. as they stood beneath the huge floral bell, received congratulations. As soon as the guests had all arrived the bridal couple led the way to the dining room, where they sat down to breakfast.
