MR. BRICE'S PREDICTION

The Ohio Senator Anticipates Republican Success Next Year.

SAYS FORAKER WILL SUCCEED HIM

It Seems Certain That the Kentucky Legislature Will be a Tie, That There is a Possibility of a Republican Senator, and That Blackburn's Defeat is Assured.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 9.—"The results of the election of 1895 make it almost certain that the nominee of the next Republican national convention will be elected president," said Senator Calvin S. Brice to a reporter at the Union depot. Mr. Brice was seated in a Pullman car on the eastern express. The defeated statesman said he was going to New York. The reporter asked him how the election would affect our presidential politics, and Mr. Brice made answer as quoted above. The senator continued:

"If the next president is not a Republican the last election has at least added very much to the interest that will be felt in the deliberations of the Republican convention. Who will be nominated? Well, Mr. McKinley is a charming gentleman, able, popular, and probably as magnetic as any of the other candidates."

To the reporter's suggestion that the public would like to know the senator's explanation of the result in Ohio, Mr. Brice said: "Ohio did just what the other states did. The result in Ohio was no different from what it was in New York or Maryland or Kentucky. The people seem dissatisfied with the general policy of the Democratic party and no local argument has any effect on the national impulse. General Foraker will be elected to succeed me as senator, and what I shall do does not concern the public."

The reporter asked Mr. Brice if President Cleveland's policy was to blame for the wholesale Democratic disaster. The Ohio senator hesitated a moment and then said: "No, I don't think Mr. Cleveland is blamed personally for the tidal wave. Still, he will have to bear his share of the blame, as being part of the national organization and leader of the Democratic party."

"How about Gorman?" asked the reporter. Mr. Brice arched his eyebrows. "Gorman? Gorman's all right. Your man Quay was twice beaten worse than Gorman was last Tuesday, and he seems to be doing pretty well. No, Senator Gorman is not annihilated, and the man who thinks he is very badly mistaken."

KENTUCKY'S LEGISLATURE TIED.

Possibility of a Republican Senator Being Elected—Blackburn's Defeat Assured.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 9.—The Evening Post says that the general assembly will be a tie when it meets, and the selection of a successor to Senator Blackburn is a matter of conjecture, the Democrats having sixty-eight votes and one Democratic-Union vote, making a total of sixty-nine. The Republicans will have sixty-eight and one Republican-Alliance vote, making a total of sixty-nine. The Republicans claim that the lieutenant governor, Worthington, will have the decisive vote, thus insuring them the senatorship. This is an error, however, as the lieutenant governor, as the presiding officer of the senate, cannot vote in joint ballot.

A special from Lexington says: "Dr. Hunter, chairman of the Republican campaign committee, declares the Republican majority on joint ballot in the next legislature will be four or five. The Democrats concede the election of sixteen Republican senators and fifty-three representatives, make sixty-nine in all. They also claim the election of twenty-two Democratic senators and forty-seven representatives, which makes them have sixty-nine on joint ballot. Of the Democrats, fourteen in the senate are for sound money and twenty-seven in the house. Eight of the senators are for Blackburn and twenty representatives, which shows that a joint caucus of the Democrats would stand forty-one against Blackburn to twenty-eight for him. Among Democrats Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge is spoken of as a strong candidate.

Chairman Hunter thinks that the sound money Democrats, or at least enough of them, will vote for a Republican for United States senator to insure his election, should the legislature not be Republican on joint ballot. There is strong talk in favor of Dr. Hunter for United States senator. The other candidates spoken of are A. E. Wilson and Colonel Walter Evans, of Louisville, and John W. Yerkes, of Danville.

Actors' Tribute to Jefferson.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Nearly all of the prominent actors and theatrical managers in New York were included in the company of 300 which assembled at the Garden theater yesterday afternoon to present to Joseph Jefferson a massive silver loving cup, the gift of more than a thousand members of the dramatic profession. Speeches were made by Daniel Frohman, chairman of the presentation committee; John Drew, Frank Mayo and Mr. Jefferson and Mrs. Agnes Booth-Shoofel read an ode written by William Winter. Frank Mayo made the presentation speech, and Mr. Jefferson feelingly responded. The cup, which is not yet finished, was substituted by a plaster cast, an exact representation of what the gift will be like. When finished the cup will stand twenty-one inches in height, and will be suitably inscribed, decorated and flanked in massive silver.

Another New Cabinet in Peru.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Word reaches here of the appointment of a new cabinet in Peru, as follows: Don Antonio Bontin, president of the cabinet and secretary of home government, police and public works; Dr. Don Meliton Porras, foreign relations; Dr. Don Augusto S. Albaracoc, justice, public instructions and charities; Colonel Don Domingo J. Parra, war and navy; Don Fernando Bressani, treasury and commerce. The appointment of this cabinet gives assurance that the new government is on a stable basis and that the evil effects of the last revolution have been overcome. It is expected that a minister will be sent to Washington at an early day. Peru has been without a representative here since the last revolution began.

Carlisle's Nephew Acquitted of Murder.

LINDON, Kan., Nov. 9.—Dr. R. C. Mullins, of Lebo, Coffey county, a nephew of John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury, after a two days' trial was last evening acquitted of the charge of murdering J. W. Blake on the afternoon of Dec. 27, 1894, at Arvoda. The defendant proved the shooting was in self defense.

The Mayor's Advice.

Mayor Wing, of Montpelier, Vt., Heartily Endorses Dr. Greene's Nervura.

Mayor Wing Used Dr. Greene's Nervura in His Family With Marked and Decided Benefit. Makes all Strong and Well.

HON. GEORGE W. WING, MAYOR OF MONTEPELIER, VT.

Hon. George W. Wing, Mayor of the Capital City of Vermont, is a man of high eminence. A distinguished lawyer, he has served his state in many high offices, having been Deputy Secretary of State, occupied a position in the State Treasury, was postmaster of Montpelier, and was elected to the State Legislature in 1882. Owing to his great popularity, he had the distinguished honor to be elected Mayor of Montpelier, a position he now fills with illustrious success.

When such a man, occupying so high a position in community, endorses the great curative powers and recommends the sick and suffering to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, no one will hesitate for a moment to use this grand medical discovery, this great restorer of health and strength.

Mayor Wing says: "I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in my family, with marked and decided benefit. Especially has it been useful in insomnia, arising from indigestion and its attendant evils. I think well of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and freely grant permission to use this letter in advertising it."

JUDGE THURMAN DYING

His Son Says the End Is Looked For at Any Time.

HIS LONG AND ACTIVE CAREER

A Native of Virginia, When He Settled in Ohio the State Was on the Border of the Far West—Congressman, Senator and Judge.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9.—On Friday of last week ex-Senator Allan G. Thurman fell from a sofa in his library and suffered an injury to his left hip, which was very painful at the time, but his physician found no bones broken, and though he suffered severely on Saturday, he was better on Sunday, and it was believed that his strong constitution would enable him to stand the shock, notwithstanding his great age. On Tuesday he was so much better that he wished to go to the polls to vote, but by the advice of his physician he did not do so. Wednesday he was much worse, and Thursday he fell into a stupor, from which it is altogether likely that he will not recover.

Mr. Thurman was alone in his parlor when he fell. He thought he was strong enough to walk into the library and back to his chair. In returning to his chair he fell.

His son, Allen W. Thurman, said last night that there was little ground to hope that he will live more than a few days, and his death may occur at any time.

Allan Granberry Thurman's four score years of life covered almost the entire progress of the nation from childhood to complete maturity. In his Virginia boyhood the Alleghenies were the western limits of anything that could be called an advanced civilization, but Columbus, O., the home of his later years, is far east of the center of population.

When he emigrated to Ohio it was on the border of the far west; when he entered the United States senate he was accounted rather as a representative of the east. His first political lessons were from the living Jefferson and Madison; he witnessed the phenomenal growth of Jackson; outlived the eleven presidents who succeeded him, and took the leading part in reconstructing the old party and impressing its doctrines upon the third generation.

He was born Nov. 13, 1818, in Lynchburg, Va., his father being a minister of the Methodist church, and his mother the only daughter of Colonel Nathaniel Allen. His mother's half brother, William Allen, but seven years older than himself, walked from Lynchburg to Chillicothe, O., in 1822, and soon attained such prominence as a lawyer and orator that at the early age of 29 he was elected a member of congress, beating the popular Whig governor of the state, Duncan McArthur, by one vote, and only four years later he was elected United States senator. After rising to such high rank in his party that the nomination for president was practically offered to him, he suddenly retired, remained in private life twenty-five years, then emerged to be elected governor of Ohio in 1874, in such a phenomenal campaign as to win him the editorial sobriquet of "Rise-up William" Allen.

Allen G. Thurman went to Chillicothe with his parents in 1819, and that place was his home until 1853, when he moved to Columbus. His mother was his best teacher down to the time he entered the Chillicothe academy, which institution he left when 18 years old. He served as an assistant in land surveying for a short time, and then studied law with his uncle, Allen. At 21 he became private secretary to Governor Robert Lucas, reading law at odd times with Judge Swayne, of Columbus. In 1855 he was admitted to the bar in Chillicothe, and was taken into partnership by his uncle. In 1858 the uncle went to the United States senate, and in 1844 Mr. Thurman was elected to the national house.

On Dec. 1, 1845, Mr. Thurman entered the Twenty-ninth congress as its youngest member, just as his uncle had entered the senate the youngest man ever chosen to that body. He declined a re-nomination, and in 1847 returned to the practice of law. In 1851 he was elected to the supreme bench of the state, and served thereon till 1856, the last year as chief justice. This led to his removal in 1853 to Columbus. His judicial opinions are models of clear statement and logical adherence to elementary law. In no other department is his greatness so generally recognized as in this. The senator, the politician, the candidate for vice-president may be harshly criticized, but "Judge" Thurman always commanded respect.

Judge Thurman was a pronounced war Democrat, though he endeavored to avert a resort to arms. His attitude in that trying time was thus explained by him afterward: "I did all I could to help to preserve the Union without a war, but after it began I thought there was but one thing to do, and that was to fight it out. I therefore sustained all constitutional measures that tended in my judgment to put down the rebellion. I never believed in the doctrine of secession."

Judge Thurman's domestic life was singularly happy. His son Allen fulfilled the father's fondest hopes, and in later years his family lived in a residence joining that of his father, so that the two families were as one. Judge Thurman and his wife remained lovers through all their days of wedlock, and her death four years ago was a great blow to the venerable statesman.

Of Judge Thurman's children, Allen married Miss Webb, of Baltimore, and their four children became the life of the double family residence in Columbus. One daughter of the judge is the wife of ex-Governor McCormick, of Arizona, and they live at Jamaica, L. I. The youngest daughter married Lieutenant W. S. Cowles, of the navy, but was divorced from him and married Mr. Thomas Scott Gifford, a native of Spain, of English parents.

WHAT ARE KIDNEYS?

A FEW FACTS ABOUT OUR KIDNEYS AND WHAT THEY DO FOR US.

A New Name for Them and for Their Functions—How Dangerous Blood Troubles and Kidney Diseases May be Cured by Seeing to Our Blood Filters.

Kidneys are for use, not show. But they show what they can do when they keep us well, and bright and hearty, so long as we treat them right and do not overwork them.

Our kidneys are there to filter our blood. If we give them too much to do they do less than they ought to do.

They don't filter our blood, and they won't till we cure them again.

This is why Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills cure diseases which are not kidney diseases, but which are caused by the kidneys not filtering the blood.

The truth is generally deeper than the surface of things.

If we see a person who has skin disease, or Rheumatism, or Neuralgia, or a Pale, Sallow, Bloodless Complexion, we may know that what is really making him sick is his kidneys. That his blood has not been properly filtered. That until his kidneys begin to work he will never be well again.

That Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills will cure him by curing his kidneys.

When you fall sick be sure you take the right medicine.

If it is your blood, see to your filters. If you cure them, they will attend to your blood.

You need no blood "purifiers." Your kidneys are "purifiers" enough.

When they are well they are Bright's Disease, Nephritis, Congestion, Sleeplessness, Backache, Sidaemia, etc., are kidney diseases proper.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills will cure them also.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills act on the kidneys in a healing and tonic way. They cure all injuries to and pains in the kidneys.

They tone them up and give them fresh vigor. They put your blood filters into proper working order again.

After you have taken a few doses you begin to feel new life bounding through your arteries. Your eyes become bright, your complexion is cleared, you feel anxious and ambitious for work.

You have new lease on life. Your filters are working again.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills were first prepared by a physician who had long been a specialist on the kidneys. They contain nothing but purely vegetable, harmless drugs of special power over the kidneys.

They will cure the kidneys and all diseases caused by the kidneys when nothing else will.

Sold by all druggists, or mailed prepaid for 50 cents a box.
