Municipal Association Agent Addis Continues His Statements of Fraud.

CONTRACTS FOR STREET CLEANING

The Committee Will Probably Hold But Three Sessions a Week in the City Hall Building—Much Interest Manifested.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—The second day's session of the senate investigating committee was held yesterday at the Hotel Metropole, with the same members present as on Monday. The entire session was taken up with the examination of General Agent Addis, of the Citizens' Municipal Association. The testimony given related to the contracts for street cleaning, collection of garbage and street paving, and also the non-compliance with specifications by contractors and non-enforcement by the authorities. Lawyer Frosdley conducted the examination.

Agent Addis said that the contracts for street cleaning were generally violated, and referred to the collection of ashes by saying that the carts, despite the regulations requiring tight lids, had none at all. As to garbage he said the general complaint was that it was not incinerated as required by ordinance of councils.

Referring to street paving, he said that the ordinance of April, 1893, required that close fitting blocks should be used. This, he said, was not done. During 1893, he said, the property owners paid $140,000 more than they should have paid, as fitted instead of irregular blocks should have been used.

The committee then adjourned until today, when Mr. Addis' examination was resumed.

It was announced around the lobbies of the hotel that the committee had determined to have but three sessions a week—on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. It was also stated that the quarter sessions room in the city hall had been secured for future meetings through the good offices of District Attorney Graham.

He Lived a Double Life.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The friends of the late Curtis E. Robinson, formerly a prominent real estate dealer of this city, and who died in 1893, leaving an estate worth $1,000,000, were amazed to learn yesterday that he is charged with having deserted a wife in Massachusetts, in the early sixties, when he came to Chicago, and his three children are probably surprised to find their right to inheritance challenged by Massachusetts relatives. At the time of his death Robinson lived with his three children, Mrs. Martha J. Ruprecht, Curtis E. Robinson, Jr., and Bessie D. Robinson. After his death his daughter, Mrs. Ruprecht, was made administratrix of his estate. The Massachusetts relatives—brother, sister and children of a dead sister—claim that his children here are illegitimate, and that they are the legal heirs. Robinson's legal wife having died childless. They also claim that he never married his Chicago wife.

Maher Challenges the World.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—J. J. Quinn, the manager of Peter Maher, who knocked out O'Donnell so readily Monday night, makes this statement in behalf of the fighter: "Maher challenges any man in the world to fight for the championship, and he will not put the stakes so high that no one except a man with three millions behind him can accept. Maher will fight for $5,000 a side, in public or private, and he will go any place to do battle, South Africa not barred. He is particularly anxious to meet Fitzsimmons." Quinn said that Maher would not challenge Corbett, because Corbett had asked him as a personal favor not to do so, as he (Corbett) had retired.

Prisoners Prepared for Suicide.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 13.—Sheriff Jurgens has discovered a plot among the prisoners confined in the county jail, charged with murder, to defeat the ends of justice by committing suicide. By some means as yet unknown the prisoners in the murderer's row had gained possession of enough morphine to kill a score of people. Eugene Stanley died the day he was to have been taken to the penitentiary for life, and yesterday when Bill Gay was found guilty of murder in the first degree his cell was searched and morphine discovered. The plot was then disclosed by the prisoner.

Andie Rice Convicted.

A Polish woman residing in this town known as Annie Rice was yesterday convicted at the Pottsville court on oath of Chief of Police Tush on a charge of being a common nuisance. She was sentenced to pay costs, $5 fine and serve 30 days. She had entered suit against the chief for illegally arresting her, but when before the court yesterday she denied that she had authorized any such suit, so that case was dropped.

From Distant Lands.

To-morrow night Edouard Remenyi will give his grand concert in Ferguson's theatre for the benefit of the Primitive Methodist church. He has appeared and won plaudits in all parts of the world. Read what the Hong Kong (China) Telegraph says: "Remenyi is the finest and most finished violinist who has ever visited these shores. At the conclusion of his performance the theatre rang again and again with shouts of applause. The difficulty is not in filling the seats but in obtaining accommodations for those who nightly crowd to listen to his magnificent playing." Don't forget the grand concert to-morrow night.

BIG FIRE THREATENED.

A Blaze on South Main Street Caused Excitement This Morning. At seven o'clock this morning the fire department was called to the new building at the corner of Main and Laurel streets, occupied by George Karlisk, a saloonkeeper. The building is a three-story frame structure which would have fallen an easy victim to flames had not the firemen responded promptly and worked vigorously when they reached the scene. The neighborhood is thickly built up with frame buildings and a bad place for a fire to get hold. Fortunately the flames did not get much headway and the firemen succeeded in extinguishing them with a liberal use of water. The building was flooded from top to bottom and it will take about $200 to repair the damage. The fire was caused by a misfitting and badly worn elbow of a stove pipe in a room on the first floor and the pipe is held for inspection by the borough authorities.

Some of the escapes made from the building were of a thrilling character which was unexcelled for by the extent of the fire. One woman partly dressed jumped from the second story of the building. She escaped injury. Another, similarly attired crawled out of a window on the same floor and after holding on to the sill with one hand for a few moments dropped into the arms of some men who were in waiting. The proprietor of the place rushed out of the main entrance of the saloon with a demijohn under one arm and a number of bottles under the other arm, and shouting "Fire!" with all the force his robust lungs would allow. As Karlisk stood watching the firemen at work he complained of many recent misfortunes. His wife deserted him last week.

The Rasimas Case.

There are no new developments in the case of Paul Rasimas, who was found badly injured on the Lehigh Valley railroad yesterday morning. The authorities have not worked up the case to see whether the story of assault told by the victim is true, as they are busy at the criminal court, now in session at Pottsville. But few people believe an assault was committed. Rasimas is at the Miners' hospital. Dr. Biddle trepanned his skull yesterday. He will not give an opinion at present as to the result of the injuries. It is believed that recovery is very doubtful.

BURGESS AND POLICE SUED.

A Sequel to a Raid the Police Made at a Wedding.

THE MATTER WILL GO TO COURT.

Six Men Charge Chief Burgess Burns and Chief of Police Tush With False Arrest and Imprisonment, Extortion and Misdemeanor in Office.

Chief Burgess Burns and Chief of Police Tush were last night made defendants in six suits brought against them by six Lithuanians whom they arrested and fined about three weeks ago at a wedding on charges of creating disturbances of the place. The prosecutors are George Zdanens, George Raytkiewicz, John Quodder, Joseph Akulackis, Martin Zdanens and Joseph Raytkiewicz. Each of the men have instituted a suit against the two officers, charging false arrest and imprisonment, extortion and misdemeanor in office.

The warrants were sworn out before Justice Bierstein after the prosecutors had consulted with Congressman Charles N. Bruman, whom they have engaged as counsel to push the cases to trial at once. The specific charge by five of the complainants is that on the night of October 20th, last, they attended a wedding on East Lloyd street and were enjoying themselves without disturbance to the neighborhood when the Chief of Police and a squad of police, accompanied by a squad of boys who marched down the street yelling and whistling, entered the house and arrested the complainants, who were taken to the lockup. They were subsequently released upon paying $7 each. It is also alleged that permission to hold the wedding had been granted by the Chief Burgess.

One of the prosecutors, Joseph Raytkiewicz, bases his case on other facts. He says he went to the Council chamber to pay the fine and secure the release of his brother, who was one of the men arrested at the wedding, but was himself arrested and kept in the lockup until he paid a fine and costs. He says his arrest was made without cause or provocation.

When before Justice Bierstein last night the Chief Burgess was represented by M. M. Burke, Esq., and Chief Tush appeared in person. The Justice held that there was sufficient evidence upon which to send the cases to Pottsville for trial and fixed bail at $200 for each officer in each case, and they furnished $1,200 each before Justice Williams later in the evening.

The accused officers say the suits have no foundation and are in line with the persecutions that have been heaped upon them for trying to enforce the laws against certain people and other reasons. The arrests at the wedding, they say, were made upon a warrant sworn out by the Chief of Police after the neighbors had complained of a long continued disturbance, including fights in the house and yard. As to the arrest at the Council chamber they say Raytkiewicz insisted upon getting into the place where the prisoners were before the police could get matters in shape to give the accused men a hearing. Raytkiewicz was asked to wait until that could be done, but became overbearing. He was ordered from the premises, and after repeated refusals to comply with the order was locked up.
