Further Details of the Double Murder and Suicide at Laredo, Tex.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.-There is more than the ordinary story back of the adventures of Mrs. Caroline Menn and her murder at Laredo, Tex., by William Kuntz, or O'Har-rold, as he is known here, her lover. Her husband was proprietor of a hotel in East St. Louis, Ills. Thirteen months ago Mrs.

Menn left her husband and eloped with Hunts, taking her stepdaughter's child, Clara Fischer, who was also murdered. Ten weeks ago her rightful husband, Fred Menn, who continued the management of the East St. Louis hotel after her elopement, died. Some say the cause heart disease, others ascribe it to whisky, which he is said to have taken in excessive quantities for the purpose of killing him-self because of the conduct of his wife. The Menns had been married about twelve years. He had three daughters by his first wife. His second marriage was not blessed in this way. The couple began to drift apart three years ago, when Mrs. Menn fell in love with her husband's bar-tender, Michael O'Harrold, aged 28. She was 55 years of age, but looked barely 30, and her actions caused a split in the family But her husband, who was nearly 60 years old, blamed O'Harrold more than an About a year and a half ago Menn forced O'Harrold to leave the hotel.

The feeling in East St. Louis was very strong against O'Harrold, and he came to St. Louis, where Mrs. Menn lived with him most of the time, she paying the expenses. One day she disappeared altogether. The date was Oct. 13 of last year. Before leaving she sold property in which she and her husband were jointly interested for $4,000. He got only $1,000 out of the sale Mrs. Fischer left last night for Laredo
