IT WILL ALWAYS BE SUSTAINED.

The Massachusetts Statesman Believes the Next Congress Will Declare That Dockey of the United States.

LONDON, Nov. 15 .- The Chroniele publishes an interview with Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, in which he expresses his views upon the subject of the Monroe doctrine. After going into the his-tory of the doctrine in detail, Mr. Lodge said

"Nobody in America ever pretended that the Monroe doctrine is a proposition of international law. It is a declaration of policy, and one which people in America have always sustained, and in my opin-ion always will sustain as of vital imfor hiwkys will susain as of visit in portance to the people of the United States. Its bearing upon the subject matter of the Venezuelan dispute is very simple. Each country is entitled to what its predecessor beld, and no more, for no new rights have been acquired in the interval by either people. The question is what was the true people. The question is what was the true boundary between the Dutch and Spanish possessions. That question can properly Passenger trains leave Shenandoah lor Penn Haven Junction. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 15.-Miss Mar-jorie Rhoaden, of Stockton, Cal., a beau-tiful young woman about 21 years of age, caused the arrest of Willie M. P. Burdick in this city on the charge of bigany. In the police court yesterday she stated that she met Burdick in California some time since, and after his return east they continued to correspond until about a month ago, when at his request she came to this city and the r were married. After secur-ing her money Burdlek deserted his wife, and was later found working on a farm near Hemlock lake. Miss Rhoaden instituted an investigation, and through Burdick's uncle she learned that Burdick was married before he married her. Wife No. 1 was in the police court, and testified that she was married to Burdick in 1892,

Men Who Went to Him on Crutches Walked Away Unaided-A Paralytic Instantly Cured-The Healer Disappeared to Evade Appearance as a Court Witness.

DENVER, Nov. 15 .- The fact that Schlatter had announced his work to end to morrow has resulted in turning the at cention of the whole public to him. The trains yesterday brought in a thousand more people from Kausas and Nebraska and more distant points. J. B. Handy, of Ellsworth, Kan., created a sensation by appearing on crutches be-fore Schlatter and then walking away without them. He was photographed and exhibited for a time as a sample of the work done by the healer. Judd Webb, of Omaha, was treated and his paralysis was instantly cured.

The hotel clerks report that they have seen guests come apparently afflicted and later have seen them go away happy and well. One man who limped into the Ox-ford on Wednesslay on crutches yesterday walked serves the confider without on loosing after a contract there for the State: I got very wet, and, as usual, was laid up. I was simply twisted way around ana-doubled up on one side; when I attempted to stand up it seemed as though I would tear out one of my kidneys; while in this condition I saw Doan's Kidney Pills ad-vertised. Being almost desperate, I was willing to try anything for relief. I ba walked across the corridor without sup port.

Yesterday morning, when a member of the Fox family, with whom Schlatter has lived during his stay here, went to call him they found his room vacant. A note left by him for Mr. Fox read: "My mis-sion is ended. The father takes me away." His mysterious disappearance has caused the greatest excitement.

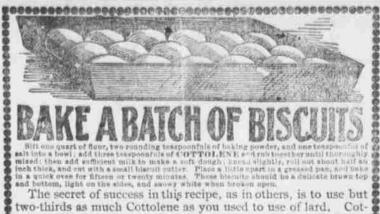

As early as 3 o'clock in the morning people had begun to assemble in front of Schlatter's home, and by 8 o'clock there was a crowd of fully 3,000 awaiting his ap-pearance. When Mr. Fox came before the people and told them the news the growd was astounded, and were disposed at first to disbelieve the story. Then they be gan to discuss the matter, some being inlined to blame Mr. Fox,

Yesterday Schlatter was to have ap-peared before the United States commissioner as witness against the "blessed" handkerchief fakirs, who are charged with using the mails to defraud by advertising handkerchiefs for sale that have been "blessed" by the healer. The fear of be-coming entangled in the court proceed-ings is the real reason for the disappearance of the man. It is thought the healer is wandering over the hills. It is known that he took no money with him. Thousands of people are flocking about the deserted cottage, and the condition of the disappointed sick from a distance is pitiful.

Joseph A. Connor, member of the Omaha chamber of commerce, arrived in Denver on Wednesday with a petition from that body to Schlatter requesting him to stop body to Schlatter requesting him to stop over in Omsha several weeks while en route to Chicago. Mr. Connor had great difficulty in presenting his credentials to Mr. Fox, the general manager of Schlat-ter's affairs, but obtained a reluctant promise from that individual to present the matter to Schlatter. A special train was offered Schlatter if he would accept the invitation. the invitation.

St. Louis also made a big bid for the healer on Wednesday. A delegate from that city, who was in the crowd, was nu-thorized to offer Mr. Schlatter $5,000 if he would go to St. Louis. The agent was a well dressed man, with a businesslike ad dress, but he was evidently nonplussed when he found he had struck a place where money was of no avail. He was very much annoyed at not getting an in-terview with the healer, and buttonholed Mr. Fox. "You might just as well offer him $5,000,000 as $5,000," said Mr. Fox. "If he decided to go you would not have to pay him anything. The very quickest way to keep him away from your city is to offer him money for going there." When Schlatter was informed that there was a man outside who had $5,000 in his pocket for him if he would go to St. Louis he remarked placidly: "I don't want his dollars," and dismissed the subject.

Quickly Tired of Married Life.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Raymond Dominick Pochelu, the New Orleans theatrical manager, found at his hotel a note from his wife of five weeks saying she had unceremoniously decamped. He rushed to the Central police station and reported his wife's flight, giving it as his opinion that she and her cousin had gone to Atlanta. Sergeant Broderick told him it was not a case for police interference, and he put the matter in the hands of a detective. Mrs. Pochelu was formerly Hazel Earl, an aerial performer.
